MICK & SUSIE McMURRY

HIGH ALTITUDE PERFORMANCE CENTER

*An Artist's Rendering of the
New High Altitude Performance Center*

Construction of Wyoming's new $44 million state-of-the-art Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center is expected to begin later in 2016. The new facility will be located at the north end of War Memorial Stadium. It will expand the current Rochelle Athletics Center to more than twice its original size. Contained in the new facility will be: an expanded academic center, sports medicine area, new weight room, new football locker room, a theatre-style squad room, renovated and new football meeting rooms and a training table to help meet the nutritional needs of all UW student-athletes. The project is being funded by $24 million in private donations and a $20 million state of Wyoming matching program. The matching program was established by Governor Matt Mead and the Wyoming State Legislature.

Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites (Fall 2010)

The Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites opened in 2010, with 12 suites and 256 club seats.

New FieldTurf Surface Installed at Jonah Field (Summer 2013)

The most recent addition to Wyoming's football facilities was the installation of a new FieldTurf playing surface on Jonah Field in the summer of 2013.

Rochelle Athletics Center (Summer 2001)

The $9.4 Million Curtis and Marian Rochelle Athletics Center opened in the summer of 2001. The RAC includes a weight room, academic center, sports-medicine center, football coaches' offices and the Cowboy Football locker room.

Indoor Practice Facility (Fall 2007)

Wyoming's $11 Million Indoor Practice Facility opened in the fall of 2007. It contains a full-size, 100-yard football field and over 80,000 square feet of practice area.

The Cowboy Sports Network

Dave Walsh

Kevin McKinney

Hall of Fame Announcers Dave Walsh and Kevin McKinney to Call Games Again in 2016

All Wyoming Cowboy Football games may be heard live on the affiliate radio stations of the Cowboy Sports Network throughout the states of Wyoming, Colorado and South Dakota. The flagship station for the network is KFBC 1240 AM in Cheyenne, Wyo.

Each Wyoming Football game is also broadcast on the official University of Wyoming athletics website: www.gowyo.com.

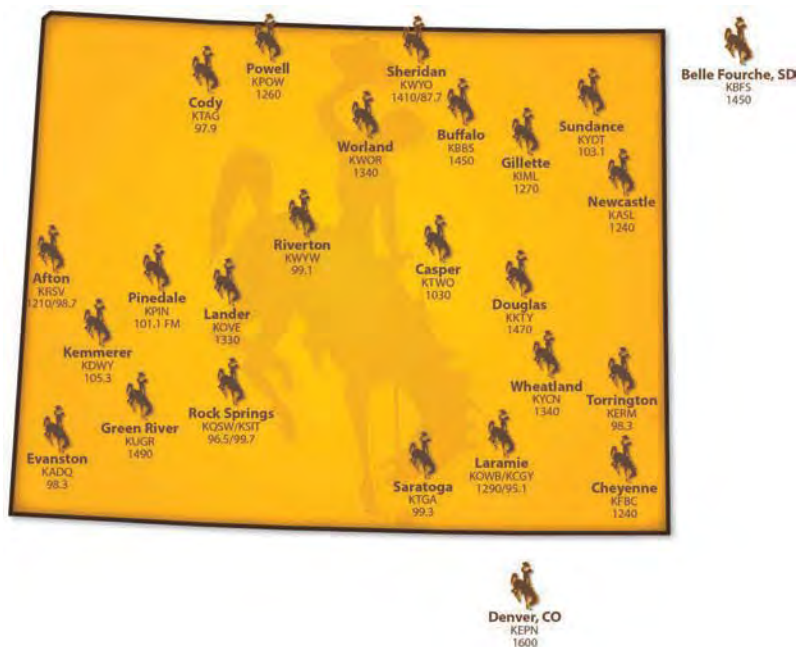

Dave Walsh will be calling Cowboy games for his 33rd season in 2016. He will be joined by longtime Cowboy color analyst Kevin McKinney, who will be adding color commentary on Wyoming Football games for the 19th consecutive season. McKinney will be entering his 44th year as color analyst on Cowboy Basketball broadcasts in 2016-17.

Walsh and McKinney were inducted together into the Wyoming Association of Broadcasters (WAB) Hall of Fame in the summer of 2015. McKinney was inducted into the UW Athletics Hall of Fame in the fall 2013, and Walsh will be inducted in the fall of 2016.

A native of San Diego, Calif., Walsh received his degree in radio and television in 1975 from San Diego State. He was the sports director at KVOC Radio in Casper, Wyo., prior to joining the Cowboys. He is a nine-time Wyoming Sportscaster of the Year as selected by his peers of the National Association of Sportswriters and Sportscasters.

McKinney, a Cheyenne native and University of Wyoming graduate, has also been honored during his distinguished career as a Wyoming Sportscaster of the Year. McKinney serves as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at UW.

Welcome to the University of Wyoming, and Cowboy Football. The information on these pages is presented to assist the working media in its coverage of the upcoming season. The Wyoming Media Relations Office will be available throughout the year to assist you.

Credential Requests

Requests for press box and photo credentials should be directed to the University of Wyoming Media Relations Office. To ensure consideration, requests should be submitted on company letterhead — either by email, fax or mail — two weeks prior to the game. Requests made the week of the game will be handled as space allows. No requests will be processed later than noon on the day prior to the game. Credentials will either be mailed, or will be held at Will Call.

Media Parking at Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium

Wyoming's Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium is located on the north side of Grand Ave. at the intersection of Grand and 22nd Street in Laramie, Wyo. Most media members will be assigned parking in the FA or S lots on the west side of War Memorial Stadium and the Arena-Auditorium. The FA or S lots may both be accessed by taking Willett Drive, which runs on the north side of War Memorial Stadium. On the west side of the Arena-Auditorium turn south off of Willett Drive into the FA or S parking lots.

Media Facilities

The War Memorial Stadium Press Box facility is located on the top of the Stadium's West Stands. Working media are accommodated in the main "Larry Birlieff Media Area", while broadcast personnel are assigned booth space as available. The Press Box is accessible via an elevator, located in the southwest corner of War Memorial Stadium.

Photographic Services

Photographers can either shoot from designated areas on the sidelines or from the camera deck that is located in front of the press box and is accessible from the main press area. Wireless internet access is available in the press box. There is also a room available to photographers during and after games on field level in the former Stadium Club room located underneath the southwest corner of War Memorial Stadium. Wireless internet and high speed data lines will also be available in this room.

Media Services

Complete team and individual stats, running play-by-play and postgame coach and player quotes are provided for working media. A media folder including flip-card, updated statistics and game-day notes will be provided pregame. An internal public address is provided for updated information and notes throughout the game. A pregame meal is served through the first quarter, and coffee, soft drinks and snacks are available during and following the game. For radio, ISDN lines, as well as regular land lines are available. Ample phone lines and wireless internet are available in the press box.

Ticket Information

Tickets to all University of Wyoming Athletics' events may be purchased through the UW Athletics Ticket Office. Tickets may be ordered over the phone by calling 307-766-7220, or online at www.gowyo.com, and go to the ticket links on the front page.

Postgame Procedures

Members of the Media Relations staff will escort media representatives to the respective team interview areas with two minutes remaining in the game. Requested Cowboy players and Head Coach Craig Bohl will be escorted to the Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) War Room following the 10-minute cooling off period. Opponent players and head coach will meet with media members in War Memorial Fieldhouse following the cooling off period.

Practice

Media members are required to check with the Wyoming Media Relations Office prior to attending a practice session.

Craig Bohl Press Conference and Interviews

Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl will be available on a weekly press conference each Monday during the season from Noon-12:30 p.m. The press conference will be held in the Rochelle Athletics Center. Bohl will also be available via teleconference during the press conference. Contact the UW Media Relations Office for details regarding the weekly press conference.

Player and Assistant Coach Interviews

Wyoming football players and assistant coaches will be available to the media for individual interviews each Monday following Coach Bohl's press conference.

Media need to submit specific player and assistant coach interview requests to Tim Harkins of the UW Media Relations Office by phone or e-mail no later than 1 p.m. on Sundays for the Monday interviews.

It is requested that media conduct their interviews on Mondays. If there are student-athletes and assistant coaches unable to meet an interview request on Monday due to a scheduling conflict, those student-athletes and coaches will be made available Tuesday.

Video Services

Media in need of assistance with video may contact the UW Athletics Media Relations Office.

Media Teleconferences

A teleconference will be included as a part of Craig Bohl's Monday press conferences during the season, giving those media, unable to attend, an opportunity to phone in and ask questions of the Cowboy head coach.

For detailed information on teleconferences and how to connect to the calls, contact the UW Media Relations Office at (307) 766-2256

Real Time Data Rights Policy

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgment of the University of Wyoming's rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and your agreement to abide by any restrictions the University of Wyoming may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by the University of Wyoming may result in revocation of press credentials. The University of Wyoming reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real time play-by-play, game-related statistics and information through the Internet.

Media Relations Office

The Wyoming Media Relations Office is located at the north end of the Intercollegiate Athletics Building in the Fieldhouse North Addition. The office is located on the second floor, Room 206. The phone number is 307-766-2256.

If you are looking for a wonderful college environment, look no further than the University of Wyoming. From its' beautiful mountain setting in Laramie, to its wide range of academic offerings and its nationally-respected football program, UW offers a memorable college experience to its students.

UW provides an atmosphere that allows you to achieve both your academic and athletic goals.

The University was founded in 1886. It opened with one building, five professors, two tutors and 42 students. Programs of study included philosophy, arts, literature and science. We've come a long way since then.

Today, UW offers approximately 180 undergraduate, graduate and professional degree programs through the colleges of Agriculture, Arts and Sciences, Business, Education, Engineering, Health Sciences and Law, as well as through the Graduate School and the Outreach School, including the University of Wyoming/Casper College Center. This wide range of choices allows each student to explore many options to find his or her career niche. Another way we contribute to the success of our students is by offering a large number of courses each semester, making it possible for most to graduate in four years.

The Marian H. Rochelle Gateway Center

Opened in the fall of 2014, the Marian H. Rochelle Gateway Center was built to be a "Gateway" to the University of Wyoming. It houses the UW Foundation, Alumni Association, Admissions Office and Career Services Center. The Gateway Center serves as a fantastic recruiting tool for UW Athletics. The Cowboy Football team hosts recruiting functions in the Gateway Center, and the President's Room in the Gateway Center serves as the location for the Craig Bohl TV Show that airs on ROOT SPORTS Rocky Mountain during the football season.

At UW, we encourage students to develop their full potential by becoming involved as active members of the university, local community and the world. Opportunities for involvement in some 200 recognized student organizations include student government, publications, the speech and debate team and religious and cultural organizations. Many of our students also take advantage of exceptional international opportunities to become part of the world community through Study Abroad and International Programs. With so many choices, our students enjoy the benefits of meeting new people, making good friends, developing leadership skills and gaining invaluable life experiences.

UW offers a true college-town atmosphere. Laramie has a population of approximately 30,000 with a student enrollment of 13,551. The Laramie campus is composed of 80 major buildings on 785 beautifully landscaped acres. There is a pleasant mix of modern and traditional structures, many built of native Wyoming sandstone quarried northeast of Laramie. At the heart of the campus is the Wyoming Student Union. Fresh from a new multi-million dollar renovation, the Union is where students can kick back between classes, have a sandwich, meet friends, check out an art exhibit or study.

UW is the perfect place for learning in a friendly yet achievement-oriented environment.

As the state's sole four-year educational institution, the university receives strong support from the state and its residents. There is a dedication to making UW the best it can be in terms of its facilities, programs, people and aesthetics. Capital improvements on campus are a high priority, reflecting a commitment to maintaining UW's world-class stature.

In May of 2012, '13, '14 and '15, several University of Wyoming Football players, along with student-athletes from other UW sports teams and other UW students traveled to Haiti to honor the memory of fallen football teammate Ruben Narcisse.

The 2010 college football season started on a sad note for the Wyoming Cowboys when the Monday following their season opener linebacker Narcisse was killed in an early morning car accident on Labor Day, Sept. 6, 2010. Narcisse was a 19-year old freshman from Miami, Fla.

Ruben Narcisse Takes the Field as a Cowboy in 2010

While Narcisse played his high school football at Chaminade-Madonna Prep in Miami, his family is originally from Haiti. His father Lyonel continues to return to his native country to help in the rebuilding efforts following the tragic 2010 earthquake in Haiti that left 200,000 people dead and 1.6 million homeless.

It was decided in the winter of 2012, that the Cowboy football team would go to Haiti to aid in the ongoing relief efforts. The Wyoming Chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes organized the "Wyoming in Haiti" trips for four consecutive years.

The Cowboys and Cowgirls have conducted sports camps and assisted the local church of Lyonel Narcisse in rebuilding efforts. The Wyoming group also worked with another ministry, Love a Child, which reaches out to Haiti's most vulnerable youth through a variety of ministries including an orphanage, rural outreach programs, food distribution, medical care and a soccer league ministry.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

On May 30, 2014, approximately 60 University of Wyoming football student-athletes accompanied by several other university employees and students traveled over the Snowy Range to help the community of Saratoga, Wyo., fight off flooding from the North Platte River.

Spring runoff from melting snow and rainstorms had swelled the North Platte River that runs through downtown Saratoga. Wyoming National Guard units had already been in town for several days working to assist the community in its battle against the river.

One of the Cowboy volunteers who traveled to Saratoga to help was former Cowboy Darren White.

"The reason we came is to help out the people in this community," White said. "We want to support them. I'm really enjoying it, and I'm glad to help out any way we can."

Wyoming hosted the No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns before a sellout crowd in War Memorial Stadium in 2009. Texas made its first-ever appearance in Laramie, and went on to finish the '09 season as the national runnerup.

In 2008, Wyoming defeated the Tennessee Volunteers, 13-7, in Knoxville's Neyland Stadium, becoming the first team from a non-automatic qualifying BCS conference to win there since 1986.

SUCCESS

VS. THE FBS

In 2007, Devin Moore ran away from #91 Chris Long and the Virginia defense as the Cowboys defeated the Cavaliers, 23-3, before a sellout crowd in Laramie.

The biggest home game in University of Wyoming school history was played in 2011, as Wyoming hosted Nebraska for the first time before a sellout crowd.

In the 2009 season, Wyoming hosted the then No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns. It was the Longhorns' first-ever appearance in Laramie, Wyo. Wyoming led the Longhorns 10-6 late in the first half before losing to the eventual national runnerup in front of a sellout crowd in War Memorial Stadium.

Not only have the Cowboys played the best in the nation, but over the past 12 seasons, Wyoming has enjoyed success against those teams, recording victories over:

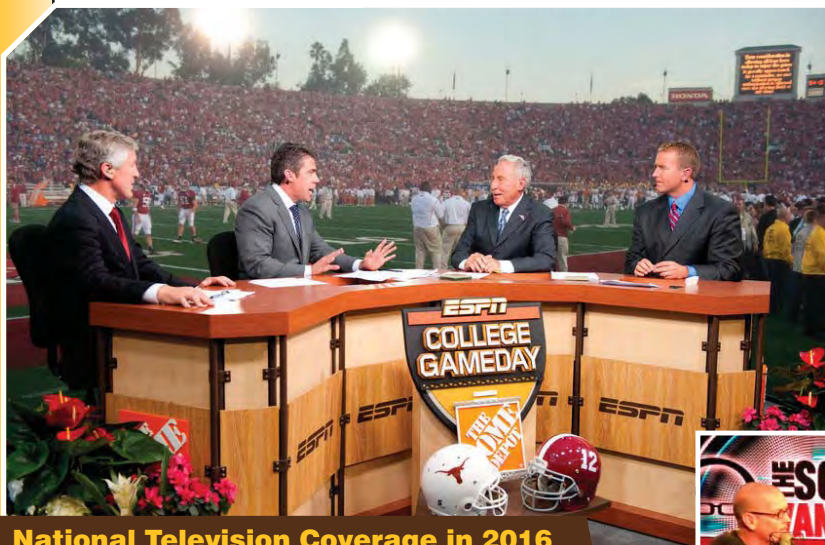

- Tennessee of the Southeastern Conference (13-7 in Knoxville, Tenn., in 2008);
- Virginia of the Atlantic Coast Conference (23-3 in Laramie, Wyo., in 2007);
- Ole Miss of the Southeastern Conference (37-32 in Laramie, in 2004, and 24-14 in Oxford, Miss., in 2005) and
- UCLA of the Pacific-10 Conference (24-21 in the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl in 2004).

UW has faced numerous Top 25 ranked programs over the past 19 years, including: Ohio State (1997); Colorado (1997); Georgia (1998); Tennessee (1999, 2002 and 2008); Auburn (2000); Texas A&M (2000, 2001, 2004); Kansas (2001, 2003); Washington (2002); Oklahoma State (2003); Ole Miss (2004, 2005); Florida (2005); Virginia (2006, 2007), Texas (2009 and 2010), Nebraska (2011, 2013), Michigan State (2014) and Oregon (2014).

Looking to the future, Wyoming has upcoming games with: Washington State (2015, 2018); Nebraska (2016); Iowa (2017); Oregon (2017); Missouri (2018, 2019); Texas Tech (2020, 2023); Clemson (2021); and Illinois (2022). Oregon (2017), Washington State (2018), Missouri (2019) and Texas Tech (2023) are scheduled to appear once each in Laramie.

IN THE NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

National Television Coverage in 2016

The Wyoming Cowboys will be featured in a minimum of five Mountain West regular-season ESPN network telecasts in 2016. Wyoming will also be featured on four CBS Sports Network games in 2016.

National Radio Coverage

The Wyoming Cowboys became a favorite of the SVP and Russillo Show on ESPN Radio. Scott Van Pelt and Ryan Russillo highlighted Wyoming Football helmets on their set throughout the past several years.

Wyoming vs. Nebraska

The Biggest Event in the History of War Memorial Stadium

On Sept. 24, 2011, Wyoming hosted Nebraska in the Cornhuskers' first-ever appearance in Wyoming's War Memorial Stadium. The sellout crowd and regional appeal of the game made it the biggest event in the history of War Memorial Stadium.

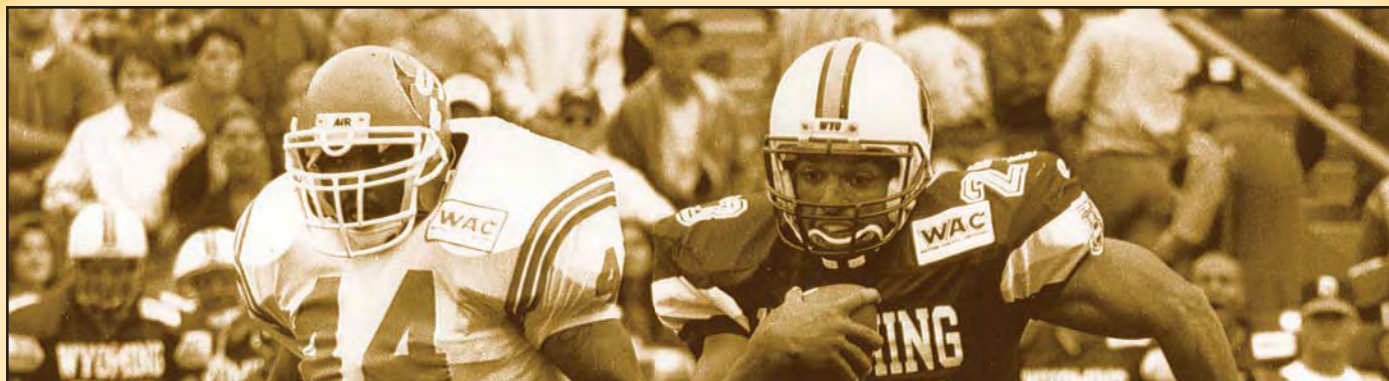

Wyoming Cowboy Football is accustomed to playing on national television and against some of the top college football programs in the country — and they've enjoyed success against the best in the country.

The Cowboys kicked off the 2009 bowl season in an ESPN nationally-televised game that was one of the most exciting of the college bowl season. In double overtime, Wyoming defeated Fresno State, 35-28. The Cowboys and Temple Owls once again began the college bowl season in 2011 on ESPN in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

The Mountain West Conference's television package includes partnerships with CBS Sports Network, ESPN and ROOT SPORTS.

In addition to more wide-ranging television coverage of University of Wyoming football games, in 2010, CBS Sports Network aired a special on Wyoming Football entitled "College Football Confidential".

EXCELLENCE PRIDE TRADITION GAMEDAY

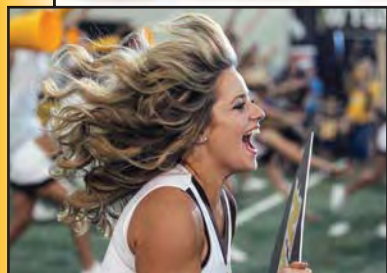

ATMOSPHERE

Gameday at War Memorial Stadium is the place to be in the state of Wyoming on Saturdays. As the only NCAA Division I university in Wyoming, everyone is a Cowboy fan.

There is nothing like a college football gameday. From pregame tailgating to the pageantry of bands, cheerleaders and mascots entertaining loyal fans, college football is unmatched in the excitement it generates.

Sharing the day with a group of close friends makes the experience that much more exciting.

And when the game is over and another Wyoming home victory is a reality, the team and Cowboy fans celebrate together by singing the traditional victory song — Ragtime Cowboy Joe.

GAMEDAY

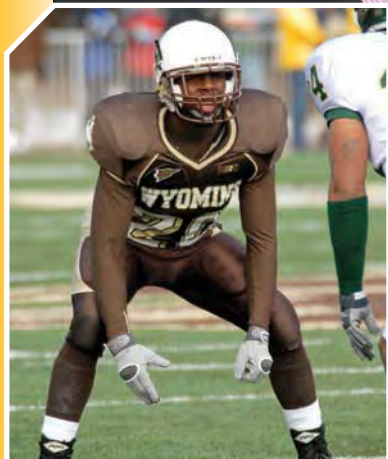

TRADITIONS

There are many traditions associated with Wyoming Football gamedays. From Pistol Pete to the Cowboy Joe Pony and a new tradition, the Cowboy Walk.

The Cowboy Walk sees fans lineup to wish the Cowboys well as they make their way to the locker room prior to each home game.

And of course prior to the game plenty of tailgating activities can be found centered around Wyoming's Tailgate Park.

WYOMING BOWL HISTORY

1968 Sugar Bowl

Wyoming had posted a perfect 10-0 record in 1967 entering its game versus LSU in the 1968 Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1, 1968. While Wyoming lost to the Tigers, 13-20, the Cowboys appearance in the Sugar Bowl is still remembered by Cowboy fans as one of the greatest moments in school history.

1987 Holiday Bowl

The Wyoming defense, seen swarming an Iowa ballcarrier here, played an outstanding game in the 1987 Holiday Bowl. UW's defense held the Hawkeyes to only one offensive touchdown. But Iowa returned a blocked punt for a TD and returned an interception for another score to give the Hawkeyes a one-point, 20-19, victory.

Quarterback of 1990 Copper Bowl Team

Tom Corontzos threw for 226 yards against the California Bears in the 1990 Copper Bowl. The game came down to the last 49 seconds, but Wyoming lost a 15-17 heartbreaker.

Jim Kiick

MVP of the 1966 Sun Bowl

Wyoming running back Jim Kiick scored two touchdowns, including one on a 43-yard run in leading Wyoming to a 28-20 victory over Florida State in the 1966 Sun Bowl to earn Most Valuable Player honors.

EXCELLENCE PRIDE TRADITION WYOMING GREATS

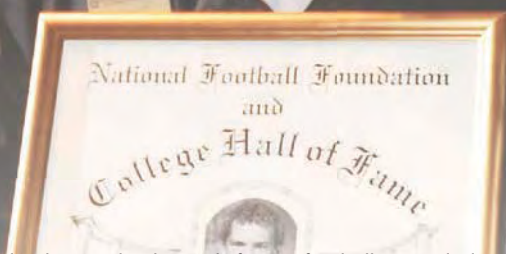

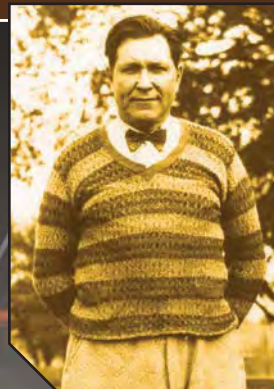

IN THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Jay Novacek

receives his Hall of Fame Award from NFF Board of Director and 1974 and '75 Heisman Trophy Winner Archie Griffin

William H. "Lone Star" Dietz

Head Coach at Wyoming from 1924-26, became the most recent Wyoming inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame. He was inducted in ceremonies held in July 2012.

The University of Wyoming is proud to have six former football greats inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame. Former Cowboy head coaches Bob Devaney, Pat Dye, Bowden Wyatt and William H. "Lone Star" Dietz, and former Wyoming All-Americans Eddie "Boom Boom" Talboom and Jay Novacek have all been elected to the distinguished Hall.

Dietz became the most recent Wyoming inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame as he was inducted during ceremonies in July of 2012 as a part of the Hall's 2012 Divisional Class. Dietz coached the Cowboys for three seasons from 1924-26. During his career which spanned from 1915-42, he also served as the head coach at Washington State, Purdue, Louisiana Tech, Haskell Indian Institute and Albright (Pa.), building a career record of 96-62-7 (.603).

The mission of the National Football Foundation is to promote the power of amateur football in developing the qualities of leadership, sportsmanship, competitive zeal and the drive for academic excellence in America's young people. The NFF was founded in 1947.

The Wyoming Chapter of the National Football Foundation (NFF) was founded in 1993 by former UW head coach and athletics director Paul Roach when he gathered a group of interested ex-players, businessmen, coaches, athletic administrators, educators and football fans together.

Two scholar-athletes from each of the five Wyoming high school classifications and the University of Wyoming are honored each year at the Wyoming Chapter's annual banquet.

The Wyoming Chapter has had three West Regional Winners and three Regional Runners-up, competing against 25 other chapters in the West. That speaks volumes for the outstanding young men in Wyoming. Former Cowboy Football player Justin Hopkin from Burlington, Wyo., won the West Region High School Award in 1996. Another former Cowboy, Chris Prosinski of Buffalo, Wyo., was the NFF West Regional High School winner in 2006. Gavin Mills from Powell, Wyo., won the NFF West Regional High School Award in 2009.

Former Cowboy, John Wendling, was one of only 17 national finalists for the 2006 Draddy Trophy. The Draddy Trophy, which was renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is often called the "Academic Heisman". It is awarded annually to the top college football scholar-athlete in the nation. By being named one of the Draddy finalists in '06, Wendling received an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship from the NFF.

Wendling was also the first individual to be both a Wyoming NFF Chapter High School scholarship winner, as well as a Wyoming Chapter College scholarship winner. Jake Edmunds a UW graduate in 2009 and Chris Prosinski in 2010 were the second and third individuals to be honored as both a Wyoming high school and University of Wyoming Scholar-Athlete Finalist.

The Wyoming Chapter is currently the largest in the nation out of 121 chapters. If you would like to become a member or help support the Wyoming Chapter as it strives to be No. 1 please contact former Cowboy Football letterman and current Wyoming NFF Chapter Membership Chairman, Mike Schutte at 3608 Green Spring Drive, Fort Collins, CO 80528 or email him at MShootee@gmail.com.

Some of the greatest names in college football have held the position of head coach of the Wyoming Cowboys. Bowden Wyatt, Phil Dickens, Bob Devaney, Lloyd Eaton, Fred Akers, Paul Roach and Joe Tiller have all led the Cowboy Football program to exciting victories, conference championships and bowl games as head coach of the Cowboys.

Four former Wyoming head coaches have been enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame. Those four are; Wyatt, who was inducted in 1997; Devaney, inducted in 1981; Pat Dye, who went on to great success at Auburn and was inducted in 2005; and Lone Star Dietz in 2012.

EXCELLENCE PRIDE TRADITION ACADEMIC

ALL-AMERICANS

Trenton Franz was a First Team Academic All-American in 2004, and earned a prestigious Postgraduate Fellowship from the National Football Foundation. After completing his bachelor's degree in civil engineering, he pursued his graduate studies at Princeton where he earned his master's degree in civil and environmental engineering in June 2007 and his Ph.D. in January 2011. Franz was also a team captain of Wyoming's 2004 Las Vegas Bowl Championship Team.

Luke Ruff

Wyoming's Most Recent First Team Academic All-American, 2012

Luke Ruff, a civil engineering major with a 3.66 cumulative grade-point average was named First Team Capital One Academic All-American in 2012.

The University of Wyoming Football program has enjoyed a rich tradition of attracting outstanding student-athletes to UW. The quality of these young men is perhaps best represented by the number of Academic All-Americans who have worn the Cowboy colors.

Since 1952, when the College Sports Information Directors of America began selecting Academic All-America teams, the University of Wyoming has produced 18 First Team Academic All-Americans.

In both 1996 and 1997, Wyoming's football program led the nation in First Team honorees with two First Team selections in 1996 and three in 1997.

The most recent honoree was senior free safety Luke Ruff in 2012. Ruff graduated from UW in 2013, earning a bachelor's degree in civil engineering with a 3.66 cumulative grade-point average. He chose to continue his graduate studies at the University of Wyoming, where he completed his master's degree in environmental engineering in December 2014.

At the conclusion of his undergraduate studies, Ruff was chosen to receive an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship, helping him to pursue his graduate studies in engineering at Wyoming.

Among his other honors were: being named a semifinalist for the National Football Foundation's William V. Campbell Trophy, also referred to as the "Academic Heisman"; being selected as one of 30 football national finalists for the Senior CLASS Award; and being honored by the National Football Foundation as a 2013 Hampshire Honor Society member. He was a 2012 Preseason First Team All-Mountain West Conference selection by conference media members. His junior season, Ruff earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors for his achievements on the football field.

Cory Wedel and Jay Korth

Two-Time Academic All-Americans

Teammates Jay Korth and Cory Wedel share the distinction of being the only two Wyoming Cowboys to earn First Team Academic All-America honors twice. Wedel and Korth were both named to the Academic All-America First Team in 1996 and 1997.

Brian Lee

First Team Academic All-American and Consensus All-American

In 1997, Brian Lee accomplished a very rare feat as he earned First Team Academic All-America honors and Consensus All-America honors in the same season. He is the only Cowboy in school history to achieve both those honors.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

John Wendling was one of only 17 national finalists for the National Football Foundation's Draddy Trophy in 2006. The Draddy Trophy, renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is often referred to as the "Academic Heisman". It is awarded each year to the top football scholar-athlete in the country. Here Wendling is pictured with 2006 NFF College Football Hall of Fame Inductee Emmitt Smith at the annual NFF & College Hall of Fame Awards Dinner.

Each year since 1959, the National Football Foundation (NFF) has honored the nation's best all-around college football players with its National Scholar-Athlete program. The top college football student-athletes have been recognized by the NFF for their athletic ability, academic prowess and civic leadership.

Through the years, four Wyoming Cowboys have received this prestigious honor. Pat Smyth in 1959, Marty Eliopoulos in 1986, Trenton Franz in 2004 and John Wendling in 2006 were chosen by the National Football Foundation for this elite honor.

Wyoming's most recent honoree, John Wendling, was named one of only 17 national finalists for the NFF's Draddy Trophy in 2006. The Draddy Trophy, renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is presented annually by the NFF to the top football scholar-athlete in the country. It is often referred to as the "Academic Heisman". By being named a finalist, Wendling was also named to the NFF's National Scholar-Athlete team, and he was awarded an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship.

Former Cowboy center Trenton Franz earned the honor in 2004. Franz went on to pursue his graduate studies in engineering at Princeton University, where he earned master's degree in civil and environmental engineering in June 2007 and then received his Ph.D. in January 2011.

Former Wyoming Cowboy Chris Prosinski joined some very elite company when the National Football Foundation (NFF) selected him as one of only five high school student-athletes in the nation to be honored in its 2006 NFF High School Scholar-Athlete Class. Prosinski was the West Region honoree.

Over one million high school student-athletes play football each season. The NFF, through its 120 chapters nationwide, honor approximately 2,500 of these high school student-athletes with over $800,000 in annual scholarships.

From that group of 2,500 scholarship recipients, the NFF chooses only five for the distinct honor of National High School Scholar-Athlete.

Hampshire Honor Society

Beginning in 2007, the National Football Foundation created the Hampshire Honor Society to honor college football players across the country who achieved both on and off the football field.

Wyoming has had players receive the honor in nine of the first 10 years of the award's existence. Those former Cowboy honorees are listed below.

2007	Mike Groover, Defensive End Tyler Holden, Wide Receiver John Wendling, Strong Safety

SUCCESSFUL COWBOYS

RETURN HOME TO LARAMIE

The wonderful college experience that is offered by attending the University of Wyoming is one that remains with student-athletes long after they complete their eligibility as Wyoming Cowboys. The University, the Laramie community and the beauty of the Rocky Mountains draw UW alumni back to the region.

Included among the many former Cowboys who have returned to Wyoming to make their homes is the Cowboys' all-time leading tackler, Galand Thaxton. Thaxton was an Associated Press All-American in 1987 as a middle linebacker. He was part of the Cowboys' 1987 WAC Championship season. Thaxton returned to Laramie in 1999 to manage his own State Farm Insurance agency. He is a native of Denver, Colo.

Randy Welniak returned to Laramie in the summer of 2007. The 1988 WAC Offensive Player of the Year as a quarterback, Welniak led the Cowboys to the 1988 WAC Championship. A native of Ord, Neb., he is currently a Senior Associate Athletics Director at UW.

Eric Worden, a four-year letterwinner from 1988 through 1991, is an engineer for the TriHydro Corporation, an environmental engineering firm located in Laramie. A native of Loveland, Colo., Worden was an outstanding offensive linemen for the Cowboys during that era. He was a member of the 1988 WAC Championship team.

Matt Lehning, retail manager for Brown 'N Gold Outlet, a retail apparel company in Laramie, was a standout player for the Cowboys. Lehning, who lettered in 1998 and 1999, was a First Team All-MWC free safety in 1999. Lehning's hometown is Sublette, Kan.

Julius Stinson was a First Team All-Conference cornerback in 2007, and was one of 12 semifinalists for the 2007 Jim Thorpe award, which honors the top defensive back in the nation each season. Stinson currently works for Cathedral Home for Children in Laramie.

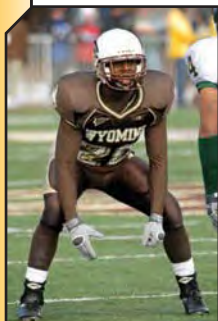

These individuals are only a few of the former Cowboys who make Wyoming their home.

EXCELLENCE PRIDE TRADITION JONAH FIELD

AT WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM

The words Jonah Field are displayed prominently on the playing surface in War Memorial Stadium to recognize the generous gift of the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families.

Martin and McMurry Gift Makes Jonah Field Surface Possible

The University of Wyoming named the playing surface at War Memorial Stadium, "Jonah Field" following a $5 million gift from the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families. Pictured at the press conference are left to right: UW's former NCAA 400-meter hurdle champion Shauna Smith, Senator Alan K. Simpson, Susie McMurry, the late Mick McMurry, John Martin, Mari Ann Martin and former UW quarterback Corey Bramlet.

For the 2013 college football season, a brand new FieldTurf Revolution playing surface with a distinctive Wyoming design was unveiled on Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium. The new surface was installed in June 2013, and was selected by Wyoming Athletics due to its elite-level playability. FieldTurf has been installed at many of the top NCAA and NFL football stadiums in the country for its grass-like performance and safety.

Jonah Field will continue as the name of Wyoming Football's playing surface to commemorate the generous donations to UW Athletics by Casper entrepreneurs Susie and the late Mick McMurry and John and Mari Ann Martin and their families.

Sporting one of the finest grass gridirons for its first 55 seasons, the initial switch to artificial turf was completed in August of 2005.

The Martin and McMurry families donated $5 million to UW Athletics in May 2005. That gift was matched by the state of Wyoming for a total of $10 million. The new surface was originally named Jonah Field to recognize not only the prolific natural gas field in Sublette County (Wyoming) that made the Martin-McMurry gift possible, but also to recognize the financial contributions to state funding projects, including higher education, made over time by Wyoming's extractive industries.

Gifts totalling $2 million by George and Dianna Archuleta of La Barge and Ron and Linda Flack of Cheyenne, launched UW's Intercollegiate Athletics capital campaign for facilities. Their gifts were made in March of 2004. Many other alumni, friends and Cowboy supporters also contributed through the Strategic Plan for Intercollegiate Athletics,

The new elements of the 2013 design include the words "Jonah Field" prominently displayed on both sidelines. A depiction of Wyoming's iconic Teton Mountains are prevalent in both end zones along with the traditional words "WYOMING" and "COWBOYS" in brown on a gameday gold background in opposite end zones. Those words appear in a new western-style font. Also new is the lettering "7220 Feet" on both sidelines, indicating the elevation of War Memorial Stadium as the highest NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision field in the nation. Wyoming's traditional "Steamboat" symbol of a bucking horse and rider will remain at midfield in brown, outlined in white and gameday gold.

The field design was provided by award-winning graphic designer David Coleman, who is a Wyoming native and UW graduate.

The project was supervised by the Mountain West Regional Manager for FieldTurf, Jed Easterbrook, who is also a UW graduate and Cowboy baseball letterwinner.

THE “BORDER WAR” AND THE “BRONZE BOOT”

The annual Wyoming-Colorado State “Border War” football game has evolved into one of the most bitterly contested rivalries in college football.

The series began in 1899, and has been played in three different centuries. Wyoming and CSU have waged the “Border War” every year but six since the schools began playing, and the 2016 season will mark the 71st consecutive season the two border rivals will meet, dating back to 1946. In fact, this is one of the oldest rivalries west of the Mississippi River. This year will mark the 108th meeting.

In 1968, the ROTC detachments of the respective schools initiated the “Bronze Boot”, traveling trophy awarded to the winner of the contest each year. The Boot was originally worn in Vietnam by Dan Romero, a CSU ROTC instructor. The boot has rested in UW’s possession in 24 of the 48 years since its inception.

The “Bronze Boot” has become one of the most famous traveling trophies in college football. This year’s 2016 meeting will be the 49th time the trophy has been fought over.

The Bronze Boot Series

Wyoming 24 Wins, CSU 24 Wins

The statue “Fanning a Twister”, depicting the great Wyoming bucking horse Steamboat was erected in 1991 north of War Memorial Stadium to welcome visitors to the University of Wyoming Athletics complex. Sculptor Peter Fillerup from Cody, Wyo., created “Fanning a Twister”.

BUCKING HORSE AND RIDER — SYMBOL OF WYOMING

Cowboy Tough Statue

The sculpture “Cowboy Tough” was added to the UW Athletics facilities in the early 2000s. Casper, Wyo., artist Chris Navarro created this new bucking horse and rider sculpture.

There are two full-size originals of the statue that are located in the UW Athletics Department — one is on the second floor of the Rochelle Athletics Center and the second sits at the north endzone of War Memorial Stadium. It has become a tradition for the Wyoming Cowboy players and coaches to touch “Cowboy Tough” as they enter and exit the field at War Memorial Stadium on gamedays.

The symbol on the Wyoming Cowboy football helmet depicts a Cowboy riding a bucking horse. That symbol has been a part of the University of Wyoming Athletics Department since the early 1920s, when UW equipment manager Deane Hunton obtained a photograph of cowboy Guy Holt riding the world famous bucking horse “Steamboat” at the Albany County fairgrounds in 1903. Hunton traced the photo of Steamboat and Holt and turned it into a logo for use on athletics equipment. Steamboat was born on a ranch between Laramie and Bosler, Wyo., in 1901, and is regarded as one of the greatest bucking horses in history.

In later years, the symbol used by Wyoming Athletics more closely resembled the logo on the state’s automobile license plates., which depicted another famous bucking horse “Deadman” with a rider by the name of “Stub” Farlow atop it. “Deadman” was owned by the Jackson Hole Frontier Association. The license plate design was developed by the then Secretary of State, Lester C. Hunt, who later became the Governor of Wyoming and a United States Senator in 1935. Hunt utilized a photograph of “Deadman” and Farlow for the design of the state’s license plates, which first appeared in 1936.

While there are differing opinions on exactly which horse and rider are depicted on all of UW’s athletics uniforms today, it is the symbol that is important. The bucking horse and rider represents the toughness, and the never-say-die spirit that is Wyoming. Whether it is “Steamboat” or “Deadman”, the bucking horse and rider logo is without a doubt one of the best and most distinctive symbols in college sports.

War Memorial Stadium was dedicated on Sept. 23, 1950, in a game versus Baylor. The Bears came to Laramie nationally ranked. They were led by quarterback Hayden Fry, who later went on to a College Hall of Fame career as head coach at SMU and Iowa. But Wyoming recorded a 7-0 victory over the Bears led by single-wing tailback Eddie "Boom Boom" Talboom, who would also later be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as a player. Wyoming went on to achieve an undefeated season, 10-0-0, and earned the school's first bowl bid to the 1951 Gator Bowl.

In 2005, artificial turf was installed in War Memorial Stadium for the first time after 55 seasons of featuring a natural grass surface in the stadium. This photo from the 2005 TCU game shows the artificial surface that was installed in the summer of 2005 at a cost of slightly more than $1 million.

In conjunction with the installation of the artificial surface, the field at War Memorial Stadium was named Jonah Field to recognize a very generous gift of $5 million by the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families to the UW Athletics Department. The Martin and McMurry families developed the Jonah Field natural gas field in western Wyoming.

War Memorial Stadium is the only state-and privately-funded memorial to Wyoming veterans, but when it was dedicated it honored only those who served in World War II. The Veterans' Memorial Plaza honors the veterans of all other wars, thereby making the entire stadium truly a Wyoming veterans' memorial.

THE VETERANS' MEMORIAL PLAZA

Gen. Pete Schoomaker, former U.S. Army Chief of Staff who lettered for the Cowboys from 1966 to 1968, spoke to the team prior to a recent game.

Cowboy fans have witnessed the glory of Wyoming Football in the beautiful confines of War Memorial Stadium since 1950. However, the magnificent football venue, along with its fieldhouse counterpart, had very humble beginnings. The very thought of the two structures started out as just a dream by the UW Board of Trustees at the end of World War II in 1946.

The 'War to End All Wars' hit the University of Wyoming hard, as many of its students left school to serve their country. But at the conclusion of the war, UW President George 'Duke' Humphrey, Athletics Director Glenn 'Red' Jacoby and the UW Board of Trustees started a state-wide campaign to help raise additional money for the construction of a new football stadium and basketball fieldhouse for the Cowboys. The two structures would be living memorials to honor those Wyoming natives who served in World War II. The Board of Trustees believed that such facilities would serve an important role in the physical development of Wyoming's future generations.

On September 16, 1950, the Cowboys downed Montana State 61-13 in their new stadium. A week later, September 23, 1950, President Humphrey, along with Athletics Director Jacoby, dedicated War Memorial Stadium to over thirty-thousand Wyoming veterans who bravely served in World War II. The Pokes went on to win their second home game in the stadium, 7-0 over Baylor.

"War Memorial Stadium is a state memorial to our war heroes. Surely, there could be no better way the people of Wyoming could memorialize the men and women of our state who served so bravely in World War II," said Jacoby in 1950.

Since World War II, many citizens of Wyoming have served their country during times of conflict.

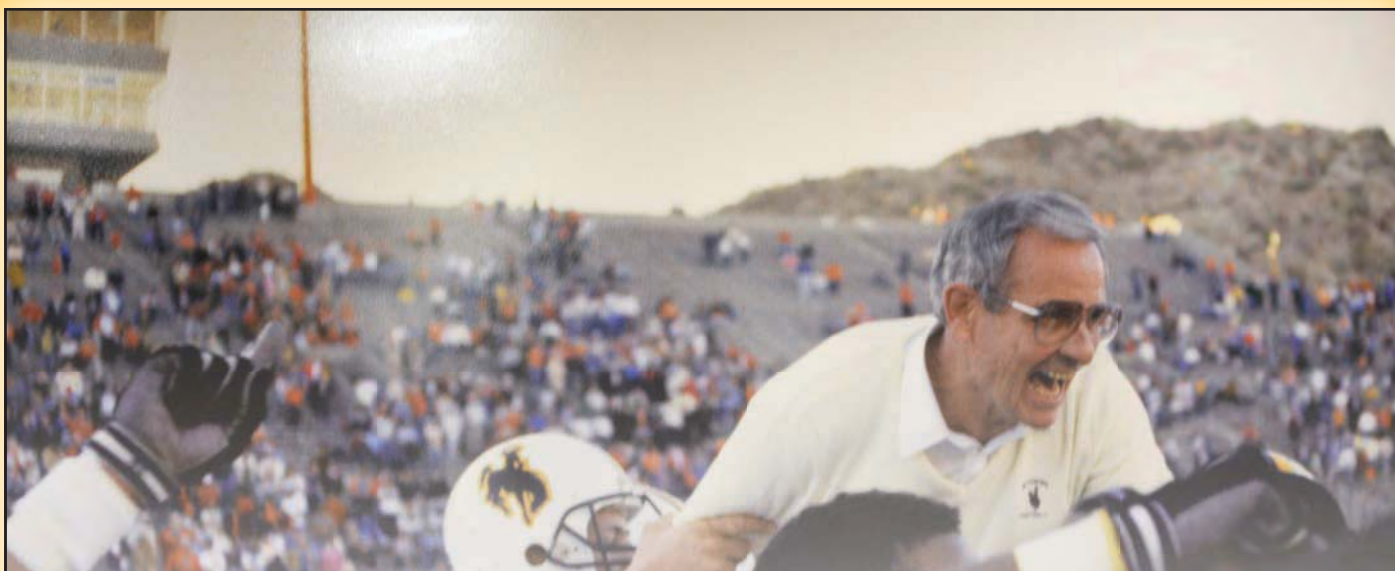

Some even gave the ultimate sacrifice for the values of freedom, independence and liberty — values every person in Wyoming holds close to their heart.

The University of Wyoming, along with the Veterans' Memorial Plaza committee dedicated an addition to this beautiful stadium in 2003. The Veterans' Memorial Plaza recognizes all Wyoming veterans who have bravely and faithfully served their country in any time of armed conflict. This dedication makes true to the title "War Memorial Stadium".

The Veterans' Memorial Plaza was funded almost identically to how the stadium was funded. The committee received funds from the Wyoming State Legislature, University of Wyoming, the Wyoming Governor's Office, along with veterans, corporations and general public donations. War Memorial Stadium was funded in the same manner as the Wyoming State Legislature and public donations footed much of the cost of its construction.

The Plaza is separated into two sections in the north end zone. As you look north, the section on the right displays flags of every military branch; Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, Coast Guard and Merchant Marines. That structure also features a dedication plaque to all Wyoming veterans as well as two plaques listing all contributors to the memorial funding. The section to the left proudly displays the United States flag and Wyoming's state flag along with the P.O.W./M.I.A. banner. The original plaque that dedicated War Memorial Stadium to the veterans of World War II on September 23, 1950, also is located there, as is a plaque presented to UW by Vice President Dick Cheney on Veterans Day 1999 (during the 20th Century Commemorative of Veterans' celebration).

The Veterans' Memorial Plaza honors the bravery and faithful service Wyoming veterans have given our country for over half a century. A nation, along with the state of Wyoming, will forever be indebted.

The photo of Roach being carried off the field was taken in the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas, following Wyoming's 37-13 regular-season win over UTEP that clinched the 1987 Western Athletic Conference Championship.

"This state, the University, and the intercollegiate athletics program have always been very special to my family," said Roach at the dedication of Roach Hall. "We will always cherish our association with the great fans of Wyoming."

Paul Roach Highlights

As an assistant coach, head coach and athletics director at the University of Wyoming, Paul Roach was a part of six of Wyoming's 13 bowl teams and six of seven Western Athletic Conference Championships. Among his other accomplishments was establishment of the UW Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1993.

A look inside one of the 12 suites contained in the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites.

An exciting new facility, offering University of Wyoming Football fans the advantages of indoor, luxury seating, began construction in the spring of 2009 and was named the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium. The new facility project was completed for the start of the 2010 football season.

A total of 12 individual suites along with a stadium-club area that contains 256 indoor seats is located on the upper east side of War Memorial Stadium and is named after the many successful "Wildcatters" of Wyoming. A Wildcatter is a person who displays the strength and courage to risk drilling oil or gas wells in areas where there is no guarantee that oil or gas will be found.

The project was funded with private donations and matching funds appropriated by the Wyoming State Legislature.

The world-renown architecture and design firm Populous served as designer for the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium. Populous has designed athletic facilities around the world for the past 25 years. Included in its recent projects are: the University of Phoenix Stadium, home of the Arizona Cardinals of the NFL; Heinz Field, home of the Pittsburgh Steelers; a renovation of the University of Oklahoma Stadium; the new Busch Stadium, home of the St. Louis Cardinals; AT&T Park, home of the San Francisco Giants; the new Yankee Stadium; and the London 2012 Olympic Stadium.

In connection with the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium, the new War Memorial Stadium east side renovation was completed at the same time. The renovation of the east side of War Memorial included improved seating, enhanced concession areas and improved and expanded restroom facilities for fans.

Wyoming's War Memorial Stadium, “The War”, is the highest NCAA Football stadium in the country at 7,220 feet. It has gone through extensive renovations and new construction over the past decade. The new Wildcatter Stadium Club and Suites, pictured above, were completed in 2010. An extensive renovation of the east side seating, bathroom and concession areas was completed at the same time the Wildcatter addition was constructed.

The Indoor Practice Facility was built at a cost of $11 million.

ROCHELLE

ATHLETICS CENTER

The Rochelle Athletics Center as Seen From War Memorial Stadium

The proximity of the Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) and Indoor Practice Facility to War Memorial Stadium make the UW Football Complex one of the finest in the country. The RAC and Indoor Practice Facility are pictured here in a photo taken from the west upper deck of War Memorial Stadium.

The University of Wyoming has experienced remarkable success nationally through the years on the field and in the classroom. The Curtis and Marian Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) ensures a continuation of that success, as well as enhancing the Cowboys' reputation across the country. The Rochelle Athletics Center has allowed UW to continue its tradition of providing quality academic programs side-by-side with a quality football program.

Thanks to a $4.2 million gift from the Rochelles, the largest in school history at the time, the facility began construction in May of 2000. It was completed in August of 2001 at a total cost of $9.4 million. The project was funded totally by private donations.

Located just north of War Memorial Stadium, the RAC occupies 46,140 square feet. It includes a state-of-the-art sports medicine and treatment center, a strength and conditioning center, an academic and counseling area and large meeting rooms.

The expanded academic support area provides a full range of services for student-athletes. Included are networked computer stations, a student counseling area and study tables.

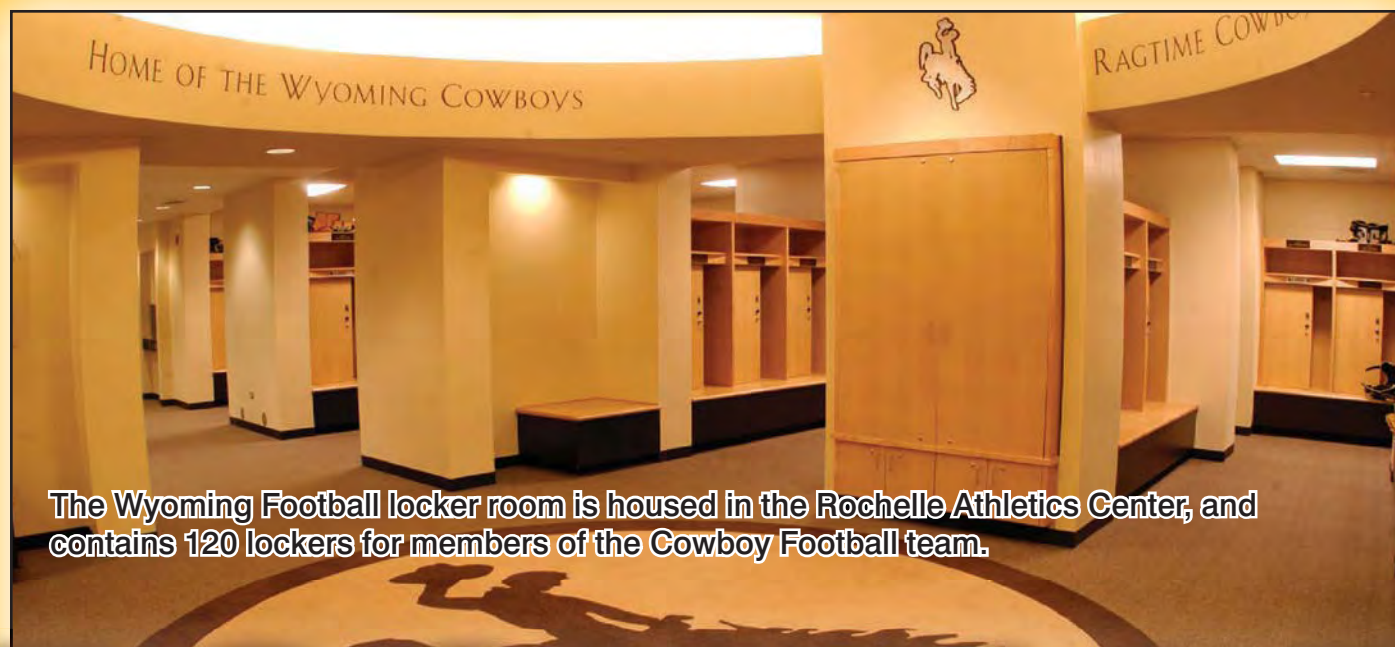

A broader scope and greater availability of sports medicine services includes space for treatment, practice preparation, examination/diagnosis and hydrotherapy. The strength and conditioning center allows improved weight and agility training for the Cowboys.

"We wanted our gift to help create a lasting athletic legacy for the University and for the State of Wyoming," Rochelle said after presenting the gift. "The University of Wyoming has had a major influence in our lives. We are proud to be a part of the tradition of academic and athletic excellence at the University of Wyoming."

Born in Lusk, Wyo., Rochelle received a B.S. degree in animal science from UW in 1941. While a student, he was president of his senior class.

Rochelle served as a UW Trustee from 1983 through 1989, and received a UW Trustee Award of Merit. In 1994, he was awarded the UW Medallion Service Award recognizing his outstanding service and dedication to the University. Marian, a native of Denver, is a graduate of Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., and Colorado College in Colorado Springs.

Curtis Rochelle passed away in the spring of 2005.

The Wyoming Football locker room is housed in the Rochelle Athletics Center, and contains 120 lockers for members of the Cowboy Football team.

EXCELLENCE PRIDE TRADITION STRENGTH TRAINING & NUTRITION

Russell Dennison, Director of Sports Performance

Russell Dennison was hired as the Director of Sport Performance and Head Football Strength and Conditioning Coach for Wyoming Athletics in January 2016. He came to Wyoming from the University of Oklahoma where he served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for five years, following his playing career for the Sooners.

The new Nutrition Center within the Rochelle Athletics Center Strength and Conditioning Area allows for all UW student-athletes to optimize their physical performance for workouts and competition and maintain their minds and bodies at peak condition.

Wyoming's strength and conditioning program is led by Director of Sport Performance Russell Dennison. Dennison became Wyoming's new Director of Sport Performance and Head Football Strength Coach in 2016 after serving as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the University of Oklahoma football program for five seasons from 2011-15. Dennison will also oversee the strength and conditioning staff for all of Wyoming's sports teams.

While at Oklahoma, Dennison was responsible for designing speed, strength and conditioning programs for the Sooner Football team, working with Jerry Schmidt, Head of Sports Enhancement at OU. Dennison implemented and instructed football student-athletes on specific speed and strength workouts tailored to their positions. He monitored student-athletes' recovery periods and focused on maximizing recovery sessions. Dennison also worked closely with the OU Sports Science Director in gathering and evaluating data on student-athlete workouts.

During his time coaching with the Sooners, Oklahoma won Big XII Championships in 2012 and 2015. At the conclusion of the 2015 season, OU played in the College Football Playoff Semifinals versus Clemson in the Orange Bowl. The Sooners recorded bowl wins over Iowa in the 2011 Insight Bowl and over Alabama in the Sugar Bowl following the 2013 season. They also made appearances in the Cotton Bowl vs. Texas A&M following the 2012 season and vs. Clemson in the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl. The Sooners combined record over the five-year span from 2011-15 was 50-15 (.769).

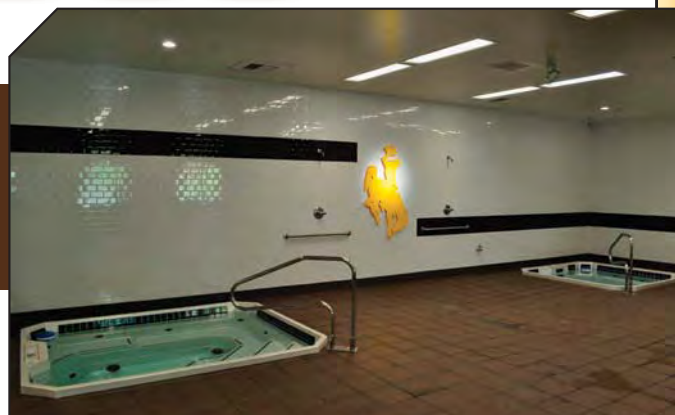

A former Sooner football player, Dennison lettered four years at OU from 2002-05 as a linebacker and fullback. He was part of OU teams that earned their way to three consecutive Big XII Championship games in 2002, 2003 and 2004, winning the Big XII title game in 2002 and 2004. The Sooners played in two consecutive BCS National Championship Games following the 2003 and 2004 seasons, playing LSU in the Sugar Bowl following the 2003 campaign and playing USC in the Orange Bowl following the 2004 season. Dennison was also part of OU teams that defeated Washington State in the Rose Bowl at the conclusion of the 2002 season and defeated Oregon in the 2005 Holiday Bowl. The Sooners compiled a record of 44-9 (.830) during that four-year span. As a freshman at Oklahoma, Dennison won the Freshman Iron Man Award for outstanding performance in strength and conditioning at OU.

Hydrotherapy Area

During the 2012-13 season, the Bruce Pivic Family made a generous donation to enhance the RAC athletic training center, including a complete renovation of Wyoming's hydrotherapy area. The hydrotherapy area, contained within the sports medicine center, assists student-athletes in prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of injuries.

Underwater Treadmill

In 2014, a new underwater treadmill pool was added to the hydrotherapy area to further aid all UW student-athletes in injury treatment and rehabilitation. This new pool also features an underwater camera system that allows the athletic-training staff to evaluate and monitor rehab sessions on the treadmill.

The Premier Bone & Joint Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center, located in Wyoming's Rochelle Athletics Center, contains 4,829 square feet.

The University of Wyoming athletic-training staff utilize the most current preventive and rehabilitative techniques in treating UW student-athletes.

The physicians of Premier Bone & Joint Centers are the team orthopedic doctors for UW Athletics. Premier Bone & Joint Centers offer seven surgeons who are on call for Wyoming sports injury management. Should injuries occur, the staff at Premier also is able to provide expertise in treatment and rehabilitation through their main clinic located in Laramie, Wyo.

In addition to the seven physicians, the main clinic in Laramie contains over 33,000 square feet and employs a staff of over 120 administrative and clinical personnel.

The clinic was founded in 1973 by Dr. David A. Kieffer. In 1976, Dr. Robert J. Curnow joined Kieffer in the practice, which they renamed "Gem City Bone & Joint." Kieffer and Curnow served as the team physicians for University of Wyoming athletics teams for many years. Following Kieffer's and Curnow's retirements as senior team physicians, Dr. Jay Carson and Dr. Ryan Aukerman assumed those duties in August 2008. Carson stepped down as a team physician in 2011. Aukerman now serves as the Head Team Physician. He is joined by Dr. Mark McKenna in treating University of Wyoming student-athletes.

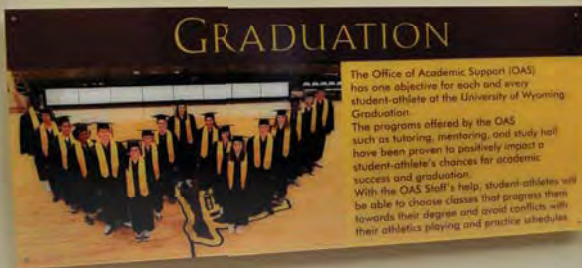

Premier Bone & Joint Centers serves patients throughout the state of Wyoming, western Nebraska, western South Dakota and northeastern Colorado through nine locations in: Laramie, Casper, Cheyenne, Gillette, Rawlins, Riverton, Rock Springs, Torrington and Wheatland.

Premier's staff of orthopedic physicians specialize in treatment of virtually every area of the body, including: elbow; foot and ankle; hand; wrist; knee; shoulder; neck; and spine.

As a demonstration of its support of UW Athletics, Premier Bone & Joint Centers made a major commitment of support to the Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) at the University of Wyoming for a medical treatment facility. In recognition of that support, the medical area of the RAC is named the "Premier Bone & Joint Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center." The financial arrangement with Premier benefitted UW Athletics in the amount of $750,000.

WYOMING FOOTBALL FANS

“Pepsi Pregame Zone” and “Tailgate Alley” Featured at All Cowboy Home Games

Wyoming football fans were offered a new tailgating experience in 2014 as the “Pepsi Pregame Zone” kicked off a new era of Cowboy Football. The “Pepsi Pregame Zone” shifted the pregame tailgating area to the Indoor Practice Facility and Ford Stadium Lot, and incorporated a new “Tailgate Alley” adjacent to the Indoor Practice Facility.

The “Pepsi Pregame Zone” is open to all fans, and kicks off three hours prior to each home football game in the Indoor Practice Facility. Food and drink vendors, WYO merchandise sales, kids’ games and activities, live music and televised national football games are featured for fans’ enjoyment.

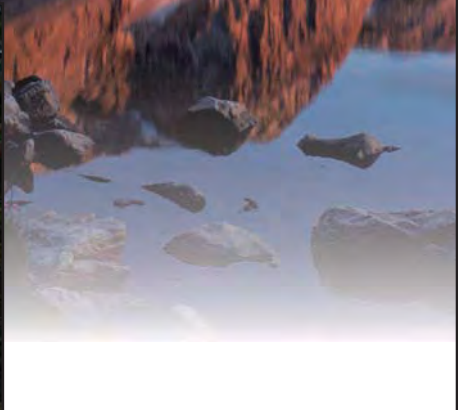

“Tailgate Alley”, adjacent to the south side of the Indoor Practice Facility and at the north end of the Ford Stadium Lot, is a reserved area for the truest of tailgaters. Reserved spots in “Tailgate Alley” are limited, so make your reservations with the Cowboy Joe Club now for the coming season.

The “Pepsi Pregame Zone” provides a fun, family atmosphere for Wyoming fans -- many of whom drive several hours from every corner of the Equality State to come cheer on their Pokes.

Fans can share some food and drink as they talk about the day’s upcoming game, while their kids play a game of catch. Others listen to a local band, or wait to see Wyoming’s marching band, “Western Thunder”, make their regular appearance prior to every home game.

EXCELLENCE PRIDE TRADITION LARAMIE

...BEAUTIFUL COLLEGE TOWN

One of the best things about Laramie is its location between two beautiful mountain ranges — the Snowy Range to the west and the Laramie Range to the east. It's a place of blue skies and clean air. Much of the area surrounding Laramie is public National Forest land. That means great access! You can head for the nearby mountains and find yourself on a hiking, biking or skiing trail within 15 minutes. There's also nearby rock climbing at the impressive Vedauwoo formations. You can be downhill skiing in the Snowy Range within 45 minutes. Laramie is convenient to the world-class skiing offered in Steamboat Springs and other nearby resorts.

For a different kind of fun, you can be in Denver within two and a half hours. There is an amazing array of culture throughout the area, plus the tremendous sports heritage of the Rockies, Broncos, Nuggets and Avalanche.

With its colorful Western heritage, cultural activities and outstanding outdoor recreation, the Laramie area captivates visitors from all over the world.

WYOMING

...THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE IT

They say it's beauty is like no other, and you fall in love with its people.

Wyoming, it is like no place on earth. Within it's boundaries is America's first and largest national park, Yellowstone. The unbounding beauty there includes "Old Faithful" geyser and Yellowstone Lake, the world's largest high-mountain lake. There is Yellowstone Falls, so awe-inspiring, it'll take your breath away. There are over 260 different species of animals and birds located there.

Wyoming's wonders seem to be unending. There is Grand Teton National Park, whose centerpiece is the spectacular Teton Mountain Range. There is Devil's Tower, America's first national monument. There is the world's largest mineral hot springs located in Thermopolis. There is the beauty of Ten Sleep Canyon and a hundred other places.

For breathtaking beauty, Wyoming is unmatched. Its reputation brings millions of visitors to its borders each year. Plus, some of the best skiing in America can be found in Wyoming. Tourists and sportsmen can't wait to get here to enjoy the clean mountain air and limitless outdoor attractions.

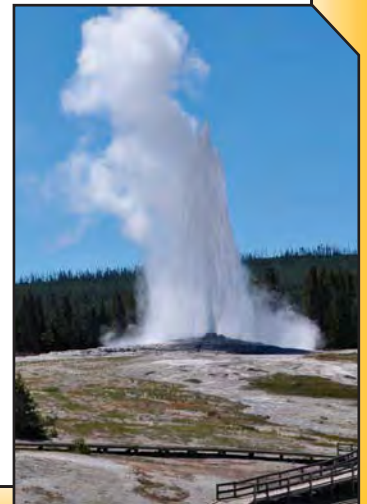

The history of the great American West can be heard whistling through the trees of Wyoming. Wyoming had an historic place in the taming of the West in the late 1800's. Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid were two of Wyoming's most famous citizens during the era of lawlessness. There remain plenty of reminders of an age that will live forever in American lore.

People are Wyoming's strongest resource. These folks are down to earth, friendly and helpful. And, oh how proud they are of their Cowboys. Wyoming has some of the best fans in America. As their only four-year university, Wyoming folks are tremendously supportive of their teams.

Yet, as down to earth as they are, many Wyomingites are on the cutting edge of politics, entertainment and business. Among some of the most famous are: former Vice President of the United States Dick Cheney; Dr. Jerry Buss, owner of the Los Angeles Lakers; Dean Conger, former chief photographer of the National Geographic Society; Curt Gowdy, the most decorated national sportscaster in history; Alan Simpson, former United States Senator; Gerry Spence, attorney and television personality; and General Pete Schoomaker, former U.S. Army Chief of Staff.

For great people, great scenery and a great education, there is no place quite like Wyoming.

SEASON OUTLOOK

A DYNAMIC GROUP OF VETERAN PLAYERS RETURN TO LEAD WYOMING COWBOYS IN 2016

A Total of 45 Letterman and 18 Starters Return From Last Season

The Wyoming Cowboys will enter the 2016 season with a group of dynamic players returning that should be among the best at their positions in the Mountain West Conference and nationally. Third-year Cowboy head coach Craig Bohl will also welcome back a larger number of experienced players and starters in 2016. A total of 45 lettermen and 18 starters will return for the Cowboys this coming season compared to 37 returning lettermen and 10 returning starters in 2015, however, many of those returners are still relatively young players. The Cowboys ranked seventh in the nation for the most freshmen played in 2015, with 26, including 16 true freshmen and 10 redshirt freshmen. That led to a number of young Cowboys gaining valuable experience, but also meant many were learning under fire.

Among the group of dynamic Cowboys that emerged in 2015 who will return in 2016 are: junior running back Brian Hill, senior offensive guard Chase Roullier and senior wide receiver Tanner Gentry on offense; and senior outside linebacker and kick returner D.J. May, senior middle linebacker Lucas Wacha and sophomore free safety Andrew Wingard on defense.

Hill will return for his junior season in 2016 after breaking onto the national scene a year ago. He ranked No. 8 in the nation in average rushing yards per game (135.9 yards per game), ranked No. 9 in total rushing yards (1,631) and was No. 13 in the NCAA in all-purpose yards (146.9 per game). Hill was one of only 11 national semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award, presented to the premier running back in the nation each season, and he was the only semifinalist from a non-Power Five conference. His 1,631 yards and 135.9 yards per game set new UW school records, breaking the previous records of 1,455 yards and 121.3 yards per game originally set by Ryan Christopherson in 1994.

Hill has amassed 2,427 rushing yards his first two seasons as a Cowboy. He enters his junior season ranked fifth in school history in rushing yards and needs only 537 yards to break the UW career record. Hill was voted by Mountain West head coaches and media to the All-Mountain West Second Team in 2015 as a sophomore.

Hill was joined on the Second Team by Roullier, who was the Cowboys' top offensive lineman at left guard, and Wingard, who as a true freshman earned both Second Team All-MW recognition and First Team Freshman All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

BRIAN HILL
RUNNING BACK

Gentry, who was leading the Mountain West in receiving yards when he suffered a season-ending shoulder injury in week seven, came back stronger than ever during spring practice.

On defense, Wacha, Wingard and May will all play critical roles on the field, as well as play key leadership roles on the field and in the locker room. Wacha and May each had productive junior seasons a year ago, despite both of them moving to new positions. Wacha moved to the middle linebacker spot after playing weak-side linebacker his previous two seasons as a Cowboy. May shifted to strong-side linebacker and nickel back in 2015. He previously played running back for the Pokes.

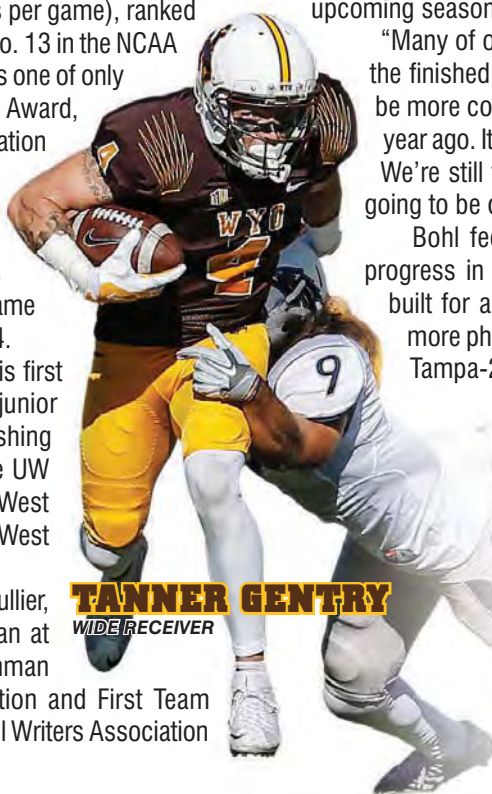

In terms of the number of young players that the Cowboys played in 2015, Bohl is excited about their potential but realizes that many of them are still relatively inexperienced.

"There is no way to replicate game experience," said Bohl. "Last year, we knew coming into the season there were several freshmen who were going to play a significant role, and as a result there were growing pains with that. I believe we will benefit in the long term from all those young guys playing last year. It is certainly going to be beneficial as we lay a foundation for the upcoming season."

"Many of our returners are still young, so they are not the finished product yet, but we would expect them to be more competitive with the experience they gained a year ago. It should also allow us to develop more depth. We're still thin at some positions, but we're certainly going to be deeper this season than we were last year."

Bohl feels he and his staff are starting to make progress in transitioning the Cowboy roster from one built for a spread offense, prior to their arrival, to a more physical, pro-style offense and an aggressive, Tampa-2 defense that they brought with them to Wyoming.

"It was a 180-degree change philosophically when we came to Wyoming in terms of the type of players who were in the program when we arrived and the type of players we needed to run our offensive and defensive systems," said Bohl. "Some of those players we've brought into the program, others we've developed like Jake Hollister for instance, who's now a very capable tight end. We had very few tight ends when we arrived here."

"Along with that, for our system to be successful you need a good tailback, you need a really good safety. In our system you need a wide receiver, who's going to be able to stretch the field, and you need an effective quarterback. We're now starting to see those key players emerge who are dynamic and can have an impact on the game. I believe we've recruited well, and those players we've recruited and developed are starting to have an impact."

When the Wyoming Cowboys began spring football last March, Bohl had some clear questions to be answered about his football team. Among those questions were how would key veterans like senior wide receiver Gentry, redshirt senior running back Shaun Wick and senior nose tackle Chase Appleby return from injury? Who would emerge in the quarterback competition between sophomores Josh Allen and Nick Smith? What young players would emerge in spring?

After the 15 spring practices concluded with the Spring Game on April 23, Bohl was pleased with the answers he received on many of those questions.

Wick, who suffered a concussion in the fourth game of 2015 that ended his season, was granted a medical hardship by the NCAA that gave him a year of eligibility back for this coming season. He took full advantage of his return to football as coaches saw his performance improve dramatically throughout 2016 spring camp. Wick capped off the spring by rushing for 126 yards in the Spring Game.

The competition at the quarterback position saw both Allen and Smith make strides, with Allen earning the No. 1 spot coming out of spring drills and Smith showing consistent improvement, as well. In the Spring Game, both quarterbacks completed over 60 percent of their passes. Allen connected on 13 of 21 pass attempts (61.9 percent) for 267 yards and two touchdowns. Smith completed 12 of 19 passes (63.2 percent) for 216 yards and also threw two TD passes in the Spring Game.

Appleby, who was coming off an injury that caused him to miss the final five games of last season, began spring drills strong, but did suffer an MCL sprain to his injured knee during spring practice. He is hoping to be back at full strength when fall camp opens in August.

"We made good progress in the spring," said Bohl. "I thought Josh (Allen) continued to progress as a quarterback. He established himself as the No. 1 quarterback, and we will go into fall camp that way."

He's certainly not a finished product, but his numbers indicated his progress. I also thought Nick (Smith) improved throughout spring practice."

There were a number of young players who emerged during spring. One of those young players was redshirt freshman C.J. Johnson at wide receiver. Johnson was the leading receiver for the Pokes in the Spring Game, catching four passes for 118 yards, including a 62-yard TD reception.

"We had a number of guys who really took to the competition in the spring," said Bohl. "At the receiver spot, C.J. Johnson not only played well in the spring game, but he had some good performances throughout spring practice. He was a young man who had a lot of promise coming in last year. We redshirted him as a freshman, but C.J. is developing into our third receiver right now behind Tanner (Gentry) and Jake (Maulhardt) and it is key that we have a third receiver."

"We also need to continue to develop more depth within the linebacker corps and at defensive end. We feel like we have good starters at those positions, but developing depth is going to be important."

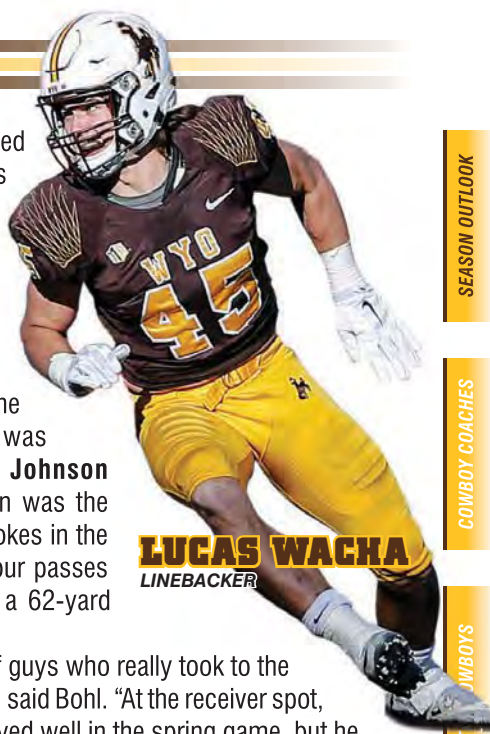

Not only are the 2016 Cowboys a more experienced group than a year ago, but they have continued to develop physically through winter and summer conditioning programs.

"We're pleased with the added weight that some of our players have been able to put on during the offseason," said Bohl. "We need to continue that progress. Typically when we've had success, our defensive tackles are about 6'4", 300 pounds and can move. We're not there yet in terms of size. We have guys who can move well, but they're not 300 pounds. Another good summer in the weight room leading up to this season is going to be helpful for those young guys."

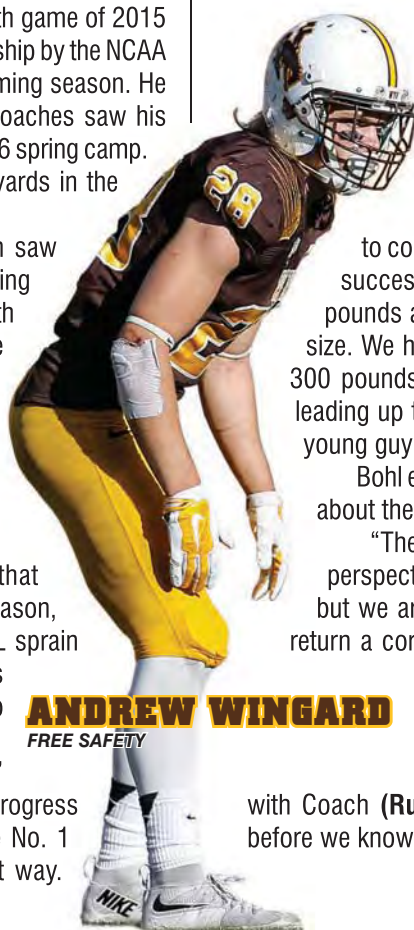

Bohl enters his third season at Wyoming feeling good about the direction his program is headed.

"The trajectory of our team is pleasing from my perspective," said Bohl. "That trajectory is still building, but we are further along than what we have been. We return a core of good players and good leaders, and we are very much looking forward to the 2016 season."

"Our players continued to work hard to improve their strength and speed this summer with Coach (Russell) Dennison and his strength staff, and before we know it we'll be getting ready to open fall camp."

Quarterbacks

Sophomores Josh Allen and Nick Smith battled throughout 2016 spring practice, with Allen earning the No. 1 position on the depth chart entering fall camp.

For Allen, his 2015 season ended with a broken collarbone in the second game of the season. He started that game against Eastern Michigan for injured senior Cameron Coffman, and Allen was productive. He led the Cowboys on an eight-play, 84-yard touchdown drive on UW's first possession against Eastern Michigan, giving the Pokes a 7-0 lead. Allen was 3 for 3 passing on that drive for 32 yards. On Wyoming's second possession of the game, Allen utilized his legs to drive the Cowboys down the field once again, running for 11 yards and five yards. Then on the fifth play of the possession, he took off on a 24-yard scamper that resulted in him suffering a broken collarbone and his season was over. Allen did receive a medical hardship from the NCAA, getting a season of eligibility back, and he showed no ill affects of the broken collarbone in spring practice, throwing the ball with the same trademark velocity that he displayed since arriving at Wyoming from Reedley Community College in California.

Smith's redshirt freshman season of 2015 saw him play in five games and start two -- at Utah State and against Colorado State. His first appearance of his career came in relief of Allen in the Eastern Michigan game. He served as the backup to Coffman for much of the rest of the season, before earning his two starts late in the season when Coffman again was out with an injury. Smith completed 10 of 18 passes for 83 yards and threw two touchdown passes, while rushing for 53 yards and another TD against Utah State. Against Colorado State, he completed 10 of 21 passes for 109 yards and added 20 yards rushing.

Both sophomores benefitted from another spring under their belt and concluded spring practice with their best performances -- each completing over 60 percent of their passes for over 200 yards and each throwing two TD passes in the 2015 Spring Game.

"Offensively, we saw progress at the quarterback position in spring," said Bohl. "While Josh (Allen) only played a quarter of one game last year, we thought he made good progress this spring. He certainly is blessed with a strong arm. We think his understanding of our offense is moving forward well, and the repetitions he received in practice during the spring were helpful. The ability is there, with Josh, but he is not completely game tested. Our assessment coming out of spring is he is going to play well.

"Nick (Smith) is a very intelligent player. He is a big, strong quarterback and showed last year that he could be an effective runner. He improved his passing skills in the spring, and I was pleased with the progress he showed."

Running Backs and Fullbacks

When talking about the Wyoming running backs, you are talking about a group that is one of the most productive and explosive groups in the history of Wyoming Cowboy Football.

Junior Brian Hill has already made his mark on Cowboy Football. He set the UW single-season rushing records for total rushing yards (1,631) and average yards rushing per game (135.9) in 2015. He was one of 11 semifinalists for the 2015 Doak Walker Award, presented to the premier running back in college football each season. He enters his junior season with 2,427 career rushing yards, and needs only 537 yards to break the Wyoming career rushing record.

Redshirt senior Shaun Wick began the 2015 season on the Doak Walker Award Watch List before suffering a season-ending concussion in the fourth game of the season. He received a medical hardship from the NCAA in the offseason, giving him his senior season back. He will begin the 2016 season ranked No. 9 on the UW career rushing list, with 2,179 rushing yards.

Together, Hill and Wick will provide the Cowboys one of the most dynamic running-back tandems in the nation. They could surpass the former Cowboy tandem of Devin Moore and Wynel Seldon as the most productive set of running backs in Wyoming history. Moore holds the Wyoming career rushing record (2,963 yards) and Seldon ranks No. 3 all-time (2,672) yards. That duo played together from 2005-08.

SHAUN WICK

"Running back is an area that we are excited about and is probably our strongest position offensively," said Bohl. "When you have two veteran players who have proven that they can not just compete in this league but excel, it gives you a real sense of optimism. Brian (Hill) had a record-breaking season last year, and combined with Shaun (Wick), who has been a very productive back during his career at Wyoming, gives us two guys for us to feed the ball to that we have a lot of confidence in."

The fullback position also has a veteran tandem. Returning for his third season as the starting fullback will be junior Drew Van Maanen, who has improved every season in Wyoming's pro-style offense and is a tenacious blocker. He has played in all 24 games for the Pokes over the past two years. Senior Jordan Ellis also has seen a lot of playing time the past two seasons, playing in 20 games at fullback and on special teams. Both are smart players, who have an excellent understanding of Wyoming's offense.

Wide Receivers

Wyoming's receiving corps is led by seniors Tanner Gentry and Jake Maulhardt. Gentry was having an outstanding season in 2015. He was leading the Mountain West and ranked No. 16 in the nation in receiving yards (98.7 yards per game) entering a Week 7 game versus Nevada before suffering a season-ending injury in that contest. Gentry was also named to the Biletnikoff Award Watch List for the first time in 2015. He bounced back during 2016 spring practice to participate fully and performed well throughout spring. Despite missing the final five games of 2015, Gentry led UW and ranked No. 7 in the MW in total receiving yards, with 678. He had 37 receptions and four touchdown catches on the season. While he didn't play in enough games to qualify for NCAA rankings, he averaged 96.9 receiving yards per game.

Maulhardt returns for his senior season after enjoying the best year of his career in 2015. His eight touchdown catches ranked him No. 2 in the league and No. 37 in the nation. He led Wyoming in receptions, with 57, ranked No. 6 in the Mountain West in receptions per game (4.75 per game) and No. 7 in receiving yards (54.4 yards per game).

"Tanner (Gentry) and Jake (Maulhardt) are two seasoned receivers," said Bohl. "Tanner is a physical receiver with good speed, who can stretch the field for us. Jake's size makes him a difficult receiver to cover and gives our quarterbacks a big target to throw to. It is important we have a couple young receivers step up this year and provide us an additional threat."

Joining Gentry and Maulhardt at wide receiver are sophomores Joseph Parker and James Price, who both saw playing time as true freshmen last year. Redshirt freshman C.J. Johnson had an exceptional spring practice in 2016. He came to Wyoming as a record-setting high school receiver from Omaha, Neb. Redshirt freshman Austin Conway, joined the Cowboy football team for 2016 spring drills after coming to Wyoming on a basketball scholarship a year ago. Conway was an outstanding dual-threat quarterback in high school at Overland High in Aurora, Colo. It was announced after the conclusion of spring football that he would go on football scholarship at Wyoming beginning in the summer of 2016 and would no longer play college basketball.

JACOB HOLLISTER
TIGHT END

Tight Ends

A talented trio of tight ends return for the Cowboys in 2016. Senior Jacob Hollister was the Cowboys' third leading receiver last season, catching 26 passes for 355 yards and three touchdowns. He finished his junior season with the best game of his career, grabbing five passes for 119 yards and scored the winning touchdown on a 64-yard catch and run in a 35-28 home win over UNLV. Sophomore Tyree Mayfield and sophomore Josh Harshman round out the corps of experienced tight ends. Mayfield played in all 12 games as a redshirt freshman in 2015, and started eight as Wyoming utilized a double tight end set to start several games.

He caught four passes for 21 yards and had a TD reception in the season opener vs. North Dakota. Harshman played in 11 of 12 games as a true freshman after being converted to tight end in fall camp. He was an outstanding high school quarterback and linebacker at Natrona County High School in Casper, Wyo. Harshman caught two passes for 39 yards in 2015, including a 26-yard touchdown reception against New Mexico.

"The tight end position has come a long way for us over the past two seasons," said Bohl. "Jake (Hollister), Tyree (Mayfield) and Josh (Harshman) have all developed into good tight ends for us. We are now in a position to utilize the tight end more in our offensive scheme."

Offensive Line

Blocking for Hill and Wick will be an offensive line that features senior left guard Chase Roullier, who earned Second Team All-Mountain West honors in 2015. Roullier enters his senior season having started 28 of 34 career games. Junior Ryan Cummings and sophomore Zach Wallace switched offensive tackle spots during spring practice, with Cummings moving to right tackle and Wallace moving to left. Cummings has started the last 19 consecutive games for the Pokes. Wallace started 10 games as a true freshman in 2015. Sophomore Kaden Jackson is slotted to start at right guard, after playing in 11 games and starting two his true freshman season. At center, junior Charlie Renfree started 11 of 12 games in 2015, but missed all of spring practice with a back issue. He and senior Du'Ryan Ebbesen will compete for the starting spot there.

"An area of our team where we've seen significant improvement is in our offensive line," said Bohl. "Those guys have played a lot of football for us. The offensive line position requires a combination of strength, size and explosion, coupled with experience. When you have a guy like Zach Wallace, who as a freshman was 265 pounds and had been a tight end in high school, thrust into battle last year as an offensive tackle it took time for him to adapt. Now he's 297 pounds and has had a year of experience. When you combine him with Chase (Roullier), Ryan Cummings and Kaden Jackson we feel better about our offensive line. We still need to figure out the center position. We have a returner in Charlie Renfree, who was hampered by injury last spring, and a senior in Du'Ryan (Ebbesen) who did a nice job during spring ball."

"It is critical to our offense to have an effective offensive line. While we have two talented tailbacks, if you don't have any movement up front -- and I'm talking about getting off the ball and knocking people back -- then you can't have a productive running game. I was very encouraged by that in the spring."

"Our offensive line, from a run-blocking standpoint, is significantly better. And it was great to see Shaun Wick come up with some big plays in the spring. We of course believe Brian (Hill) will have that same big-play capacity that he displayed last year."

DEFENSE

Secondary

A perfect example of Wyoming's relative youth among its returning starters is in the defensive secondary.

While the Cowboys return all four starters in the secondary, three of those returning starters are sophomores and one is a junior. Those returners are led by sophomore free safety Andrew Wingard, who was one of only 29 freshmen in the nation named to the 2015 Freshman

All-American Team by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

The other returning starters include junior cornerback Robert Priest, sophomore strong safety Marcus Epps and sophomore cornerback Antonio Hull.

Wingard and Hull started as true freshmen last season, Epps was a redshirt freshman and Priest was a true sophomore. The group combined for 15 pass breakups, four interceptions and three forced fumbles in 2015. Wingard led the team in tackles (122), becoming the first freshman in school history to record 100 tackles for a season. He led all MW defensive backs in tackles, ranked No. 2 in the MW and No. 12 in the nation among all defensive players in tackles per game (10.2) and was No. 1 in the conference and No. 4 nationally in solo tackles per game (6.9). Epps was third on the team in tackles (83), led the team in interceptions (2) and had four pass breakups. He ranked No. 5 in the MW and No. 39 in the NCAA in solo tackles (5.4 per game), and was No. 12 in the conference in tackles per game (7.5). Priest ranked sixth among the Cowboys in tackles (50), had one interception, three pass breakups, forced one fumble and recovered a fumble. Hull was credited with 33 tackles as a true freshman and led the Poke defensive backs in pass breakups with six.

Sophomore safeties Anthony Makransky and Chavez Pownell Jr., redshirt junior safety Jalen Ortiz, redshirt freshman cornerback Davion Freeman and junior college transfer cornerback Rico Gafford should all compete for playing time.

"On defense, I think we challenged our secondary," said Bohl. "Last year, we played with an extremely young secondary. You see a player like Andrew Wingard, and you wonder is he going to experience a quote 'sophomore slump', but I'm not seeing any signs of that. In the Spring Game, he had two interceptions, and that doesn't happen by accident.

"We now have more guys on the back end who have the ability to run. Last year, we gave up way too many big plays. Much of that can be attributed to an inexperienced secondary and not enough speed and athleticism. We are deeper now in the secondary, although we are still young."

Linebackers

At linebacker, seniors Lucas Wach and D.J. May return as starters at the middle linebacker and the strong-side linebacker/nickel position, respectively. They are joined by redshirt freshman Logan Wilson, who was moved from safety to the weak-side linebacker position during 2016 spring practice and earned the No. 1 spot on the depth chart at that position.

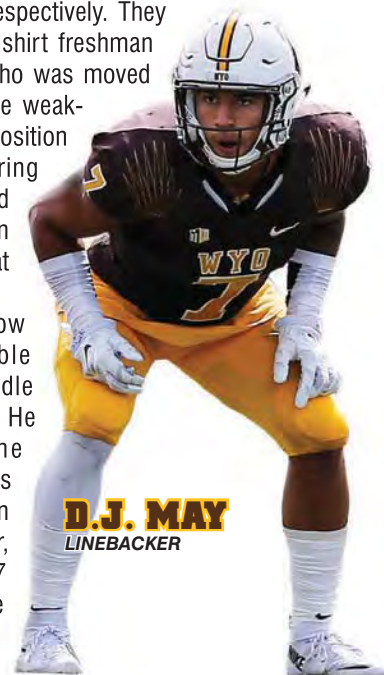

Wacha is now very comfortable playing the middle linebacker spot. He was one of the leading tacklers in the Mountain West as a junior, averaging 8.7 tackles per game to rank fifth in the conference and 44th nationally.

He has also bulked up since last season. He should enter the 2016 season around 230 pounds, after playing at about 215 a year ago.

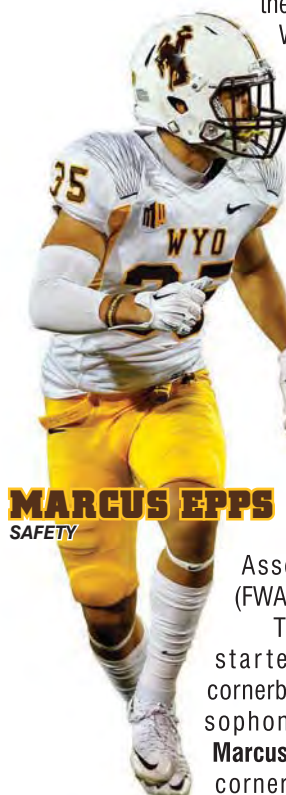

May's move from running back to strong-side linebacker/nickel was made to bring more speed to the defensive side of the football. He started the last 10 games of 2015 at that position, finished fourth on the team in tackles (69 total tackles) and led the Cowboys in pass breakups, with 10.

"We have a very steady MIKE linebacker in Lucas Wach, which in the Tampa-2 defense is critical," said Bohl. "Lucas really has a good understanding of our defense, and gets us in and out of the right calls. D.J. did an excellent job playing on the defensive side of the ball last season for the first time in his career, and Logan (Wilson) responded very well to his position shift during spring drills."

Backing up those three will be senior Eric Nzeocha in the middle, junior Tim Kamana on the strong side and sophomore Adam Pilapil at the weak-side position. Both Nzeocha and Kamana have starting experience. Nzeocha started the first four games at middle linebacker last season, prior to Wach moving over from his weak-side spot. Kamana started a total of eight games last season, including the first two games of 2015 at the strong-side linebacker/nickel position and the final six games at weak-side linebacker. He also started eight games

Defensive Line

Veteran Chase Appleby will be joined on the defensive line by sophomore defensive ends Carl Granderson and Kevin Prosser, who both saw significant time as true freshmen in 2015. Both added size during winter-conditioning and are looking to continue to put more weight on prior to the start of their sophomore seasons. Among the returning defensive linemen, Granderson was the most productive last year. He totalled 36 tackles as a true freshman in 2015, had 6.0 tackles for loss and 1.0 sack.

Another sophomore, Conner Cain, and redshirt freshman Youhanna Ghaifan are listed No. 1 and No. 2 at the defensive tackle position. Sophomore Sidney Malauulu, who missed spring practice following off season shoulder surgery, will team with Appleby at nose tackle. All but Ghaifan have game experience for the Cowboys, but gaining maturity and adding weight will be key for the development of the defensive line.

"We have some ability up front on our defensive line, but that is one area that we are concerned about because of our youth and our size," commented Bohl. "We have worked on fortifying that over the course of the summer in terms of trying to get guys bigger and stronger and by bringing in a couple junior-college players."

The junior-college players that Bohl referred to are: Taniela Lolohea, a 6-1, 245-pound defensive end from El Camino Community College in California; and Hunter Van Emmerik, a 6-4, 281-pound defensive tackle from College of the Redwoods in California.

SPECIAL TEAMS

On special teams, senior punter Ethan Wood returns after starting every game the past three seasons -- 36 straight. He also handled the kickoff duties in 2015. Senior long snapper Brendan Turelli returns for his fourth year as a starter, and, like Wood, has started 36 consecutive games.

The competition for the place-kicking duties will be handled by either freshman Cooper Rothe from Longmont, Colo., or senior Justin Martin, who will also serve as Wyoming's back-up punter.

Linebacker/nickel back May was one of the conference's and the nation's top kick-off returners in 2015, averaging 26.2 yards per return to rank fourth in the MW and 24th nationally. At punt returner, there are a number of experienced Cowboys returning, including wide receiver Gentry, May and free safety Wingard all returning after handling those duties a year ago.

There are also a couple young players who may be asked to return punts in order to limit the number of plays that Gentry, May and Wingard are asked to play.

"In the kicking game, I feel good about our punting," said Bohl. "Ethan (Wood) has proven to be a capable punter. Our snapper, Brendan (Turelli), is an extremely consistent snapper, and that is an area that people don't appreciate as much as they should. Last year, our place-kicking was a liability. We went out and recruited a young man who we believe is really an outstanding kicker in Cooper Rothe. He is going to be a little raw, but he has good ability, so our kicking game should be further along, and I think our coverage units will be better."

"D.J. May was excellent as a kickoff returner last season. We'll continue to look at someone to pair with him on kickoffs. In terms of our punt returner, there certainly are some qualified candidates. Last year, we probably taxed some of our starters in Tanner Gentry, Andrew Wingard and D.J. May a little bit too much by asking them to return punts. We'll look at those three. Davion Freeman has some good ability, and Austin Conway has some good ability. You want someone in that position who has sure hands, but who can also turn the field over for you."

The Cowboys are scheduled to report for fall camp on Sunday, Aug. 7, giving them a little less than a month to prepare for their season opener at home on Saturday, Sept. 3 versus Northern Illinois of the Mid-American Conference.

COWBOY COACHES

CRAIG BOHL

(Nebraska '82)

Head Coach, University of Wyoming

The 2016 season marks the third season Craig Bohl will lead the Wyoming Football program as head coach and marks his 14th year as a college head coach. Over the past two years, Bohl has focused on building Cowboy Football for the long term.

Bohl, who was part of building National Championship teams at North Dakota State and Nebraska, was introduced by University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman as the new head football coach of the Wyoming Cowboys on Sunday, Dec. 8, 2013. Bohl became the 32nd head football coach in University of Wyoming history.

He came to Wyoming after building a national power at North Dakota State as a head coach for 11 seasons from 2003-13. His teams won three consecutive National Championships at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 2011, '12 and '13. NDSU became only the second FCS school in NCAA history to win three consecutive national football titles, tied the FCS record for consecutive wins (24 from 2011-13) and became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since 1996.

"Rarely do you get an opportunity to hire a head coach who has won multiple National Championships and has a reputation as a program builder," said Burman.

"I am absolutely confident we hired one of the best football coaches in the country. All you have to do is look at Craig's record."

"I understand the awesome responsibility to lead this football team," said Bohl. "I also understand how important football is in the fabric of this institution and not only this institution but around the state. Whether you're in Sheridan, Casper or Thermopolis, this is the state team, and I embrace that."

"I'm looking forward to getting to know the people of our great state of Wyoming. It will be an exciting time for us. We understand that the bar is high. I also appreciate the vision that Tom (Burman) has, and I want to thank him for having faith in me to lead this football program. He was able to articulate to me where our football program needs to go and the resources that are going to be provided to allow us to experience success.

"I can't tell you how excited I am to embrace the Cowboy tradition."

Not only has Bohl won three national titles at the FCS level, but he was the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, when the Huskers won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

Bohl concluded his career as head coach of the NDSU Bison, with a 104-32 (.765) record. He guided the Bison to the FCS Playoffs each of his final four seasons, posting a 14-1 record in the FCS Playoffs. His last three teams posted records of 14-1 (2011), 14-1 (2012) and 15-0 (2013) for a combined record of 43-2 (.956) on way to their three consecutive FCS national titles.

By winning the 2013 FCS National Championship, North Dakota State extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games, which tied both the NDSU and FCS records for consecutive victories. The Bison teams from 1964-66 originally set the school record with 24 straight victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. That record was later tied by Montana from 2001-02.

The 2013 NDSU team also set a North Dakota State single-season record for wins, posting a perfect 15-0 record. The Bison became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 FCS title.

The Bison had great success against FBS teams to go with their elite status at the FCS level. In each of his last four seasons at NDSU, Bohl's Bison defeated all four of the FBS teams they faced, and captured all of those wins on the road. NDSU won at Kansas in 2010 (by a score of 6-3), at Minnesota in 2011 (37-24), at Colorado State in 2012 (22-7), and at Kansas State in 2013 (24-21). Overall during his 11 years at North Dakota State, Bohl's teams built a 7-3 record against FBS teams.

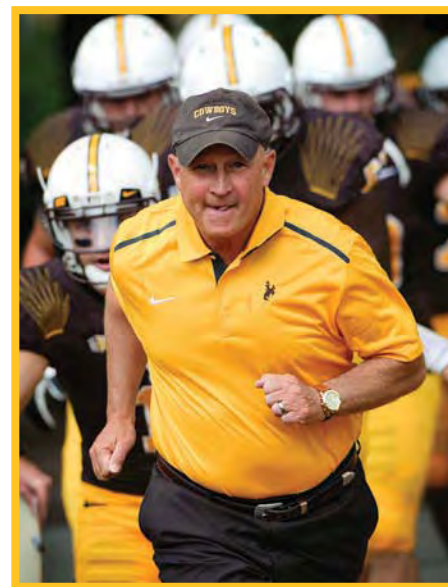

In 2012 and '13, Bohl received both The Sports Network Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year Award and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS National Coach of the Year Award. He became the first coach in the first 27 years of the Eddie Robinson Award to win it in consecutive seasons. In 2013, he also received the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year Award, which is presented in partnership with the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. His other National Coach of the Year honor came in 2006, when he was recognized by the Football Gazette as the FCS National Coach of the Year and the Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

He was also a finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson Award in 2011, 2007 and 2006, and was the 2011 and 2013 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year. Bohl was selected to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees by a vote of the membership at the 2012 AFCA national convention.

His North Dakota State teams were built on an exciting West Coast offense and a physical, aggressive defense. In the 2013 season, North Dakota State's offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 10 in scoring offense (38.7 points per game) and No. 14 in total offense (457.5 ypg). The Bison defense ranked No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense (11.3 points allowed per game), No. 2 in the nation in pass defense efficiency (97.59 rating), No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game) and were No. 3 in total defense (255.9 yards allowed per game). The Bison led all FCS teams in scoring defense three consecutive seasons (2011-13).

In addition to his 14 years of experience as a head coach, Bohl has 19 years of experience as a full-time assistant coach at the collegiate level and three seasons as a graduate assistant. His last eight years as an assistant coach were spent at Nebraska. He was the linebackers coach under head coach Tom Osborne for five of those seasons and was part of the 1995 and '97 Nebraska National Championship teams. Bohl's final three seasons (2000-02) at Nebraska, he served as the Cornhuskers' defensive coordinator under head coach Frank Solich, before accepting the head-coaching job at North Dakota State in 2003. Bohl was part of 11 bowl-game appearances while at Nebraska -- eight as an assistant coach from 1995 to 2002 and three as a graduate assistant coach for the Huskers from 1981-83.

As the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Duke in 1994, he helped coach the Blue Devils to the Hall of Fame Bowl in his only season at Duke.

Bohl's North Dakota State teams were ranked in The Sports Network or FCS Coaches Top 25 polls for 107 weeks since beginning FCS play in 2004, and earned the No. 1 ranking in both the final 2011, 2012 and 2013 polls, including being named a unanimous No. 1 following the 2013 campaign. The Bison's record versus FCS Top 25 ranked teams under Bohl's direction was 30-8.

From 2004-2007, Bohl helped lead North Dakota State through its transition to the NCAA FCS level. During that transition period, his teams posted back-to-back 10-1 seasons in 2006 and 2007, but weren't eligible for postseason play due to NCAA rules regarding teams moving up a division.

During his time in Fargo, N.D., Bohl coached 10 Academic All-Americans and 37 All-Americans, while six student-athletes in the last 10 years were named to the Allstate/AFCA Good Works team. He added a seventh Allstate/AFCA Good Works team member in 2014 at Wyoming, when senior wide receiver Dominic Ruffan earned that honor.

Bohl grew up in Lincoln, Neb., and went on to attend the University of Nebraska where he was a reserve defensive back from 1977 to 1979 under head coach Tom Osborne. Bohl was part of Nebraska's 1979 Orange Bowl and 1980 Cotton Bowl teams.

The 2016 season will be Bohl's 36th year coaching at the college level. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1981, assisting with the Nebraska linebackers and defensive backs for three seasons from 1981-83. His first full-time coaching position came at North Dakota State in 1984, coaching the defensive backs. He moved on to coach the linebackers at the University of Tulsa for the 1985 and '86 seasons. In 1987 and '88, Bohl was the linebackers coach at the University of Wisconsin. He earned his first defensive coordinator position in 1989 at Rice, where he served as the defensive coordinator for five seasons from 1989-93. In 1994, Bohl accepted the defensive coordinator position at Duke. The following season in 1995, he had the opportunity to return to Nebraska as the linebackers coach, and in his first season back in Lincoln the Huskers won the National Championship. Two seasons later, they captured their second National Championship during Bohl's time as an assistant coach.

Born July 27, 1958, Bohl will be 58 years old when the 2016 season kicks off. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1982. Bohl's family includes wife Leia, and children Mallory and Morgan, Aaron and Elijah.

STEVE STANARD

(Nebraska '89)

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

Steve Stanard will enter his 29th year of coaching at the college level in 2016 and will begin his 20th year as a defensive coordinator. Stanard will be the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the Wyoming Cowboys for the third consecutive season. In 2015, Stanard's defense had two individuals earn All-Conference honors as senior defensive end Eddie Yarbrough and freshman free safety Andrew Wingard both earned Second Team All-Mountain West honors. Yarbrough was named to both the Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List and the Ted Hendricks Award Watch List as a junior and senior. Wingard was named a First Team Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) in 2015. Yarbrough signed as a free agent with the Denver Broncos following the 2016 NFL Draft. The 2015 Cowboy defense ranked No. 5 in the MW and No. 26 in the nation in fewest passing yards allowed (196.9 per game). In his first year coaching the Wyoming defense, Stanard coached linebacker Mark Nzeocha, who was the 19th pick in the seventh round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. Stanard's 2014 Cowboy defense also featured First Team All-Mountain West defensive end Yarbrough.

Stanard was the linebackers coach at North Dakota State in 2012 and '13, helping the Bison capture NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) National Titles after each of those two seasons. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66. In Stanard's two years on the North Dakota State staff, the Bison posted a combined overall record of 29-1 and a Missouri Valley Football Conference record of 15-1.

Stanard has been a part of five bowl games and three national playoff appearances as a college coach.

As the linebackers coach at North Dakota State in 2012 and '13, Stanard helped the Bison rank No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense each of those two seasons, holding opponents to only 11.5 points per game in 2012 and only 11.3 points per game in 2013.

The 2013 Bison defense also ranked: No. 3 in the FCS in total defense (255.9 yards per game); No. 2 in the nation in pass efficiency defense (97.59 rating); No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game); and No. 8 in passing yards allowed (164.6 yards per game).

In addition to leading the nation in scoring defense in 2012, NDSU led the nation in total defense (234.5 yards allowed per game), was No. 1 in fewest first downs allowed (12.67 per game), ranked No. 2 in pass defense (140.6 yards allowed per game) and ranked No. 4 in rushing defense (93.9 yards allowed per game).

In 2013, Stanard coached Third Team All-America linebacker Grant Olson, who was honored as an All-American by the Associated Press. Olson set a school record with 29 tackles in NDSU's 14-7 win over Wofford College in the 2012 NCAA FCS quarterfinals.

Stanard's experience as a defensive coordinator includes three seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Tulane (2009-11), five years as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Colorado State (2003-07) under former head coach Sonny Lubick, three years as the defensive coordinator at New Mexico State (2000-02), one season as the D-coordinator at South Dakota (1996) and five years as the defensive coordinator at Nebraska Wesleyan (1991-95) where he was also the head coach his final two seasons.

His defenses at Tulane led Conference USA in pass defense two of three seasons, and he coached seven All-Conference performers and two All-Freshman honorees.

Prior to Tulane, Stanard served as the defensive line coach at Ohio in 2008 for head coach Frank Solich. The Bobcats ranked in the top six of the Mid-American Conference (MAC) in: total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, pass defense and pass efficiency defense. He coached Second Team All-MAC defensive tackle Jameson Hartke, who also earned Academic All-MAC and Academic All-District honors.

Stanard is very familiar with the Mountain West Conference, having served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Colorado State for five seasons from 2003-07. Stanard helped lead CSU to two bowl appearances, the 2003 San Francisco Bowl and 2005 Poinsettia Bowl. Four of Stanard's CSU defenders earned First or Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors, and another 24 earned Honorable Mention All-MW recognition. Linebacker Eric Pauly was an All-Mountain West selection at linebacker and was a three-time Academic All-American.

Stanard's 2006 defense ranked in the MW's top four in scoring defense, pass defense, pass defense efficiency, sacks, fewest opponent first downs allowed and opponent third-down conversions. CSU was the only team in the MW in 2006 that had three defenders ranked among the league's top individual tacklers. Stanard's 2004 and '05 defenses led the conference in pass defense.

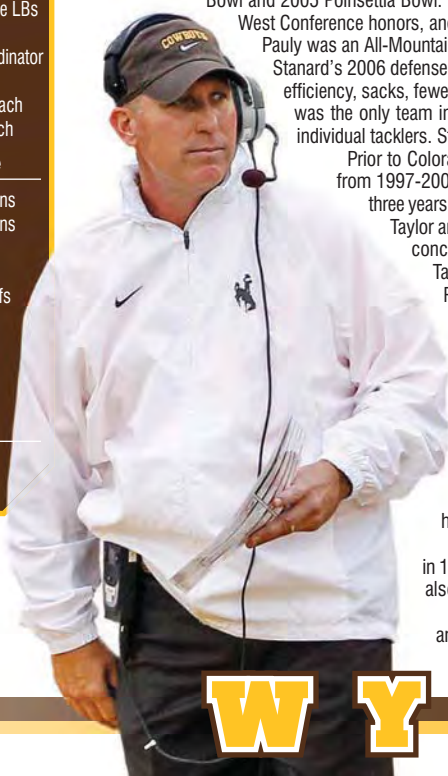

Prior to Colorado State, Stanard coached at New Mexico State University for six seasons from 1997-2002 where he served as the defensive ends/outside linebackers coach the first three years and defensive coordinator the final three. Stanard coached linebackers Dwayne Taylor and Jimmy Cottrell at NMSU. Taylor was a three-time All-Conference selection, concluded his career with 364 tackles, 40 tackles for loss and four interceptions.

Taylor went on to play in the Canadian Football League for the Saskatchewan Roughriders and Montreal Alouettes. Cottrell set a Western Athletic Conference single-season record in 2005 with 179 tackles. He went on to earn Honorable Mention All-America honors from SI.com and became the first player in New Mexico State history to lead his team in tackles all four seasons.

Stanard began his college coaching career in 1988 as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, the University of Nebraska, under head coach Tom Osborne. At Nebraska, Stanard saw the Huskers earn seven bowl bids during his time as a student-athlete or coach. After beginning his coaching career at his alma mater, Stanard coached at Nebraska Wesleyan University for five years, serving as the school's defensive coordinator, head coach and an assistant athletic director during that five-year span.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1989 and completed his master's degree in business administration in 1995, also from Nebraska.

Stanard and his wife, Jennifer, have four children, Austin, Paige, Max and Madison.

BRENT VIGEN

(North Dakota State '98)

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Brent Vigen took over as Wyoming's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2014 and will enter his third season in that role in 2016. He will be entering his 19th year as a college coach and his eighth as an offensive coordinator. A year ago, his offense had two individuals earn All-Mountain West honors as sophomore running back Brian Hill and junior offensive guard Chase Roullier both earned Second Team All-Conference honors. Hill was one of 11 semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award in 2015 and was the only semifinalist from a non-Power Five conference. Junior wide receiver Tanner Gentry was also named to the Biletnikoff Award Watch List in 2015. The 2015 Wyoming offense ranked sixth in the Mountain West in passing efficiency, with a rating of 135.0. Vigen's 2014 Cowboy offense ranked fifth in the Mountain West in passing offense, averaging 227.8 yards per game, and featured Biletnikoff Award Watch List receiver Dominic Ruffan, who was invited to a free-agent camp by the Atlanta Falcons following his senior season. Another Cowboy senior, offensive tackle Connor Rains, signed as a free agent with the Denver Broncos following the 2014 season. Vigen's Wyoming offense was very effective at protecting the ball in 2014, committing only 18 turnovers to rank No. 4 in the MW and No. 33 in the nation.

Vigen served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Dakota State under current Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl from 2009-13. He began his college coaching career at his alma mater, NDSU, in 1998.

Vigen was the offensive coordinator for each of North Dakota State's three consecutive FCS National Championships in 2011, '12 and '13. In 2013, Vigen's offense at North Dakota State ranked No. 10 in the nation in scoring offense (38.7 points per game), No. 7 in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 14 in total offense (457.5 yards per game), No. 1 in third-down efficiency (55.4%), No. 3 in passing efficiency (164.9) and No. 6 in red-zone offense (89.2%). The 2013 NDSU offense also was one of only 12 FCS teams to average 200+ yards rushing and 200+ yards passing per game. The 2012 Bison offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in third-down efficiency (50.7%) and No. 16 in red-zone offense (89.2%). Vigen's 2011 offense ranked No. 5 in the country in red-zone offense (91.1%).

From 2011 through 2013, Vigen helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

Vigen coached quarterback Brock Jensen, who earned Third Team All-America honors from the Associated Press in 2013 and went on to sign a free-agent contract with the Miami Dolphins in the Spring of 2014. Jensen was named the Missouri Valley Football Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 2013. He also was named the 2012 and 2013 NCAA Division I Championship Game MVP; the 2012 and 2013 College Sporting News FCS Playoff MVP; and the 2013 College Sports Journal FCS Playoff MVP. Jensen ranked: No. 4 in the country in points responsible for in 2013 (264 points); No. 5 in the nation in passing efficiency (167.4 rating); No. 5 in passing TDs (34); No. 9 in the nation in completion percentage (66.3 percent); and No. 23 in passing yards (2,793). Jensen set North Dakota State single-season passing records in 2011, throwing for 2,524 yards and broke that record with 2,793 passing yards in 2013. He concluded his career as North Dakota State's career passing leader, with 8,598 passing yards.

The 2013 Bison offense featured three All-Americans. In addition to Jensen earning Third Team AP All-America honors, offensive tackle Billy Turner was named a Consensus All-American and fullback Andrew Grothmann earned First Team All-America recognition from The Sports Network.

In 2011, '12 and '13, the NDSU offense featured a pair of 1,000-yard rushers. The 2011 season was the first time in NDSU school history that the Bison offense featured two 1,000-yard rushers and a 1,000-yard receiver in the same season. Sam Ojuri rushed for 1,105 yards, and DJ McNorton tallied 1,020, while receiver Warren Holloway had 1,003 receiving yards. In 2012, Ojuri (1,047 yards) and John Crockett (1,038) each rushed for 1,000 yards. The 2013 season saw Ojuri (1,398) and Crockett (1,277) duplicate their 1,000-yard seasons of the previous year, while Vigen's 2013 offense also featured 1,000-yard receiver Zach Vraa (1,191 receiving yards).

Vigen began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Bison from 1998-2000. He became a full-time coach in 2001, coaching the NDSU tight ends in 2001 and the quarterbacks in 2002. He remained at his alma mater as the running backs coach in 2003 when Craig Bohl became head coach of the Bison. From 2004-08, Vigen was elevated to passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach, and in 2009 he was named offensive coordinator and continued to coach the Bison QBs.

He coached two-time All-America tight end Jared Peck in 2000 and 2001. Peck went on to sign a free-agent contract with the Denver Broncos.

Vigen helped to develop two-time Great West Football Conference Player of the Year, quarterback Steve Walker, who earned the honor in 2006 and 2007. North Dakota State was 8th in rushing offense (219.82 ypg) and 19th in total offense (400.09 ypg) in the 2009 NCAA Division I FCS statistics. Running back Pat Paschall led the FCS in rushing yards per game (139.7) in 2009.

As a player, Vigen was a tight end for the Bison from 1993-97. He was part of three NCAA Division II Playoff squads in 1994, '95 and '97. In 1994, he helped lead NDSU to the North Central Conference (NCC) Championship. The Bison advanced to the NCAA Division II Quarterfinals in 1994 and '95 and the First Round of the 1997 Playoffs.

A native of Buxton, N.D., Vigen earned his bachelor's degree from NDSU in 1998 and completed his master's degree, also from North Dakota State in 2000. He and his wife, Molly, have three boys, Jake, Grant and Luke. Molly played basketball at NDSU and was a member of the 1996 NCAA Division II National Championship team and three NCC title squads.

Mike Bath joined the Wyoming Football program from Miami University (Ohio) in 2014. He is entering his 13th season as a coach at the college level. He will coach the Wyoming running backs and fullbacks for the third consecutive season in 2016. The 2015 season saw Cowboy running back Shaun Wick named to the Doak Walker Award Preseason Watch List. Later in the season, UW sophomore running back Brian Hill was added to the Doak Walker Watch List, and he went on to be named one of only 11 semifinalists for the award and was the only semifinalist from a non-Power Five conference. Hill earned Second Team All-Mountain West honors in 2015, and ranked No. 8 in the nation in average rushing yards per game (135.9) and No. 9 in total rushing yards (1,631). His 1,631 rushing yards and 135.9 yards per game broke the Wyoming school records originally set by Ryan Christopherson in 1994. Redshirt senior Wick and junior Hill both return in 2016.

Hill has rushed for a combined 2,427 yards during his Wyoming career and will enter the 2016 season ranked No. 5 in school history in career rushing yards. He needs only 537 yards to break the UW school record. Wick enters his final season with 2,179 career rushing yards to rank ninth on the Wyoming career Top 10 list.

In 2014, Bath coached Wick and Hill who combined for 1,589 rushing yards and eight 100-yard rushing games. Hill was selected the Walter Camp Football Foundation National Offensive Player of the Week for his performance at Fresno State in 2014. He accounted for 387 all-purpose yards against the Bulldogs -- 281 rushing yards and 106 receiving yards. Hill became only the fifth player in NCAA history to rush for at least 200 yards and have at least 100 yards receiving in a single game. His 387 all-purpose yards was the best single-game performance in the nation for the 2014 season and set a new University of Wyoming single-game record and a Mountain West Conference single-game record. His 281 rushing yards was the second best single-game performance in Wyoming school history.

Prior to coming to Wyoming, Bath served as the interim head coach at Miami, his alma mater, in 2013. He was named interim head coach on Oct. 6, 2013, and also assumed the role as offensive coordinator at that time after beginning the season coaching the quarterbacks and wide receivers.

Bath returned to his alma mater in 2011 to coach the wide receivers and tight ends. In 2012, he moved into the role of quarterbacks coach, and coached Miami QB Zac Dysert, who set school records for career total offense (12,678) and career passing yards (12,013). Dysert was drafted by the Denver Broncos in 2013, and was part of a Bronco team that made a run to the Super Bowl his rookie season. Bath also coached wide receiver Andy Cruse at Miami. Cruse signed a free-agent contract with the Houston Texans in 2013 and was on the Texans' practice squad his rookie year.

Bath began his college coaching career in 2004 as a graduate assistant coach for his alma mater. After serving as a graduate assistant in 2004 and 2005, he was named a full-time assistant in 2006 and coached the RedHawk tight ends for three seasons from 2006-08. Two of his tight ends, Tom Crabtree and Jake O'Connell, went on to play in the NFL.

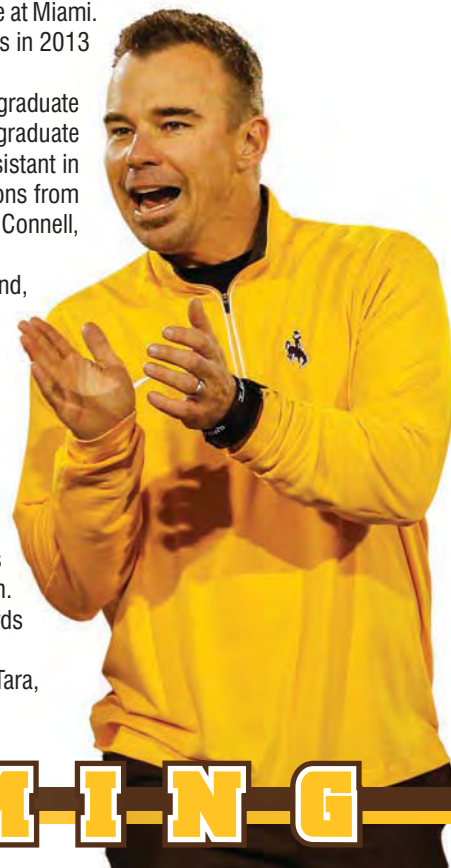

In 2009, Bath accepted the opportunity to become an offensive coordinator at Ashland University in Ashland, Ohio. After serving as the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and wide receivers coach for two seasons (2009-10), he returned to Miami in 2011.

During his time as an assistant coach at Miami, the RedHawks captured three Mid-American Conference (MAC) East Division Championships (2004, '05 and '07) and made an Independence Bowl appearance in 2004.

A three-year starter at quarterback for Miami from 1998-2000, he compiled a record of 23-10 as a starter and led the RedHawks to the MAC East Division Co-Championship as a sophomore in 1998. That team posted a 10-1 record overall and a 7-1 conference mark. Among those 10 wins in '98 was a 13-10 upset victory over No. 12 ranked North Carolina and a 14-13 non-conference victory over Army. His junior season, Miami upset Northwestern of the Big Ten by a score of 28-3 on the road, and his senior season, the RedHawks defeated Vanderbilt of the SEC 33-30 in Nashville, Tenn. Bath was named his team's Co-MVP his senior season.

At the conclusion of his college playing career, Bath had set then Miami career records of 6,524 yards passing and 49 passing touchdowns.

He earned a double major at Miami in marketing and organizational behavior in 2001. Bath and his wife, Tara, have three children, Colton, Savannah and Case.

AJ COOPER

(North Dakota State '06)

Special Teams Coordinator/Defensive Ends

AJ Cooper enters his third season at Wyoming as the Cowboys' defensive ends coach and special teams coordinator. He came to Wyoming after serving as a member of the North Dakota State coaching staff the previous eight seasons. His coaching career followed an outstanding playing career for the Bison.

The 2015 season saw Wyoming senior defensive end Eddie Yarbrough earn Second Team All-Mountain West honors. Yarbrough was named to both the Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List and the Ted Hendricks Award Watch List as a junior and senior. He concluded his UW playing career as the all-time leader in tackles for loss, with 39, and ranked ninth all-time in career sacks at Wyoming, with 21.5. Yarbrough signed as a free agent with the Denver Broncos following the 2016 NFL Draft. Junior punter Ethan Wood was named to the 2015 Ray Guy Award Watch List for the first time in his college career. Several special teams' units also performed well in 2015. The kickoff coverage team ranked No. 1 in the MW, allowing opponents 21.3 yards per kickoff return, and the punt coverage team ranked No. 2 in the conference and No. 21 nationally, giving up only 4.6 yards per punt return. The Cowboys averaged 23.5 yards per kick return to rank No. 5 in the league and No. 29 in the nation, and the Pokes averaged 38.6 yards as a team in net punting to rank No. 5 in the MW and No. 40 in the country. Junior kick returner D.J. May averaged 26.2 yards per kickoff return to rank No. 4 in the conference and No. 24 in the NCAA. In 2014, Cooper also coached defensive end Yarbrough, who earned First Team All-Mountain West Conference honors as a junior.

From 2009 through 2013, Cooper coached the Bison defensive ends. In 2013, he added special teams to his coaching responsibilities. He helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

As the defensive ends coach at North Dakota State, Cooper helped the Bison rank No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense for three consecutive seasons (2011-13), holding opponents to only 12.7 points per game in 2011, 11.5 points per game in 2012 and only 11.3 points per game in 2013.

The 2013 Bison defense also ranked: No. 3 in the FCS in total defense (255.9 yards per game); No. 2 in the nation in pass efficiency defense (97.59 rating); No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game); and No. 8 in passing yards allowed (164.6 yards per game).

In addition to leading the nation in scoring defense in 2012, NDSU: led the nation in total defense (234.5 yards allowed per game); was No. 1 in fewest first downs allowed (12.67 per game); ranked No. 2 in pass defense (140.6 yards allowed per game); and ranked No. 4 in rushing defense (93.9 yards allowed per game).

Cooper served as NDSU's football camp and clinic director in addition to coaching the defensive ends for the Bison.

Prior to becoming the defensive ends coach in 2009, Cooper worked with the offensive line and tight ends as a student assistant and graduate assistant with the program from 2006-08.

Prominent players who Cooper coached at North Dakota State included: Coulter Boyer, who in 2011 earned Third Team All-America honors as a defensive end from Beyond Sports College Network and Honorable Mention All-America honors from College Sports Journal. Boyer was also an All-MVFC First Team honoree in 2011 and was a Second Team selection in 2010. He finished his career ranked No. 4 in school history in career sacks, with 27.5. Cooper coached defensive end

Cole Jirik, who was a Second Team All-America selection by College Sports Madness in 2012. Jirik also earned Second Team All-MVFC honors in 2012, and concluded his career ranked No. 5 in Bison history in career sacks (26.0). A third NDSU defensive end who Cooper coached and went on to earn All-Conference recognition was Kyle Emanuel, who was a Second Team All-MVFC selection in 2013 and an Honorable Mention All-MVFC honoree in 2012.

An outstanding tight end for the Bison in the 2004 and 2005 seasons, Cooper earned Honorable Mention All-America honors from the Football Gazette in '05. He caught 24 passes for 473 yards (19.7 yards per catch) and scored four touchdowns as a senior. He was selected First Team All-Great West Football Conference as a senior, and also earned All-Northwest Region honors.

Following his college playing career, Cooper signed a free-agent contract with the Green Bay Packers in 2006.

Originally from Phoenix, Ariz., Cooper began his college playing career at Glendale Community College. His final season of junior college, he led all junior college tight ends in three different categories -- receptions (44), receiving yards (578) and touchdown receptions (8).

Cooper earned his bachelor's degree from NDSU in criminal justice in 2006. He and his wife, Amanda, who is a former NDSU women's basketball player, were married in July 2011. They have two sons, Carter Johnson and Cameron Myles.

SCOTT FUCHS

(North Dakota State '95)

Offensive Line

Scott Fuchs will begin his 23rd season as a college coach in 2016. He brings a great deal of knowledge coaching offensive linemen with him to Wyoming as 21 of his previous 22 years of coaching experience have been as an offensive line coach. In 10 of his previous 22 seasons as a college coach, Fuchs has helped coach his teams to postseason play.

The 2015 season saw Fuchs coach junior offensive guard Chase Roullier, who earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors. Roullier will return for his senior season in 2016 as one of the top offensive linemen in the Mountain West Conference. Fuchs offensive line played a key role in blocking for Cowboy junior running back Brian Hill, who set a new Wyoming single-season rushing record in 2015, with 1,631 yards. Hill ranked No. 8 in the nation in average rushing yards per game (135.9) and No. 9 in total rushing yards (1,631). Hill was named one of 11 semifinalists for the 2015 Doak Walker Award, which honors the premier college running back in the nation each season.

In 2014, Fuchs coached senior offensive tackle Connor Rains, who signed as a free agent with the Denver Broncos following his senior season. Fuchs also coached 2014 Honorable Mention All-Conference offensive guard Roullier.

An outstanding offensive lineman himself, Fuchs was named to the 1993 Kodak/American Football Coaches Association First Team All-America squad as a senior offensive guard at North Dakota State. NDSU won three consecutive North Central Conference rushing titles during his three years as a starter. He was part of three North Central Conference Championship teams at NDSU in 1990, '91 and '92. The 1990 Bison captured the NCAA Division II National Championship.

Fuchs coached the offensive line at North Dakota State, his alma mater, the previous five seasons (2009-13) before coming to Wyoming.

From 2011 through 2013, Fuchs helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

In 2012 and 2013, Fuchs coached Consensus First Team All-America offensive tackle Billy Turner. Turner was selected in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins. In 2011, Fuchs coached Consensus All-America offensive tackle Paul Cornick, and center Joe Lund, who was selected as the FCS Rimington Award winner, which is presented to the top center in the nation each season. All total, Fuchs has coached nine All-Americans and 32 All-Conference performers during his career.

Fuchs has been on coaching staffs that have won nine conference titles during his college coaching career.

In 2013, the North Dakota State offense ranked No. 10 in the nation in scoring offense (38.7 points per game), No. 7 in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 14 in total offense (457.5 yards per game), No. 1 in third-down efficiency (55.4%), No. 3 in passing efficiency (164.9) and No. 6 in red-zone offense (89.2%). The 2013 NDSU offense also was one of only 12 FCS teams to average 200+ yards rushing and 200+ yards passing per game. The 2012 Bison offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in third-down efficiency (50.7%) and No. 16 in red-zone offense (89.2%).

Fuchs offensive lines helped pave the way for North Dakota State to have a 1,000-yard rusher for 11 consecutive seasons. In 2011, '12 and '13, the NDSU offense featured a pair of 1,000-yard rushers each season. The 2011 season was the first time in NDSU school history that the Bison offense featured two 1,000-yard rushers and a 1,000-yard receiver in the same season. Sam Ojuri rushed for 1,105 yards, and DJ McNorton tallied 1,020, while receiver Warren Holloway had 1,003 receiving yards. In 2012, Ojuri (1,047 yards) and John Crockett (1,038) each rushed for 1,000 yards. The 2013 season saw Ojuri (1,398) and Crockett (1,277) duplicate their 1,000-yard seasons of the previous year, while the 2013 offense also featured 1,000-yard receiver Zach Vraa (1,191 receiving yards).

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Fuchs coached one season at Southern Illinois in 2008. That team tied for the conference title and advanced to the First Round of the FCS Playoffs. He also coached at Grand Valley State (2007), Nebraska-Omaha (2003-06), Minnesota-Crookston (2000-02), Wisconsin-Eau Claire (1999) and Valley City State (1997-98). The only school he did not coach the offensive line was his one season at Wisconsin-Eau Claire when he coached the defensive line.

Fuchs' first position as a college coach was as a graduate assistant at NDSU working with the tight ends from 1994-96.

Fuchs earned his bachelor of science degree from North Dakota State in physical education and social science education in 1995 and his master of education degree with a specialization in physical education and athletic administration in 1997.

Scott and his wife, Emily, have three boys, Hank, Jack and Gus.

MIKE GRANT

(Nebraska '93)
Wide Receivers

Mike Grant will enter his 23rd season as a college coach in 2016. He will coach the Cowboy wide receivers. Grant spent the last five years at the University of North Texas where he coached the wide receivers, the running backs and served as recruiting coordinator during his time there.

Grant has been part of 17 bowl teams -- 12 as a coach and five as a player. In his four seasons (1993-96) as a recruiting assistant and graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Nebraska, he was part of Husker teams that won National Championships in 1994 and '95. Nebraska posted back-to-back undefeated seasons in 1994 (13-0) and '95 (12-0), and posted an 11-2 record in 1996, finishing that season ranked No. 6 in the national polls. Grant helped coach the tight ends and offensive tackles at NU. He was on the same staff at Nebraska in 1995 and '96 as current Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl.

Grant earned his first full-time coaching position in 1997, coaching the wide receivers and tight ends at James Madison University. Grant has coached at the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level for the past 19 seasons, including: nine seasons at Iowa State (1998-06), one season at Southern Miss (2007), three at Western Michigan (2008-10), five seasons at North Texas (2011-15) and now at Wyoming (2016).

While at North Texas, Grant started out as the running backs coach for two seasons in 2011 and '12. As the running backs coach, Grant coached Lance Dunbar, who became the career rushing leader in North Texas history and earned All-Sun Belt Conference honors. Grant took over as the wide receivers coach from 2013-15 and added recruiting coordinator responsibilities in 2014 and '15. Among the top receivers he coached at North Texas were Brelan Chancellor, who in 2013 became the first player in Conference USA history to earn First Team All-Conference honors as both a punt returner and kickoff returner. Chancellor also earned Second Team All-Conference honors at wide receiver. Wide receiver Darnell Smith was an Honorable Mention All-Conference honoree in 2013. In 2015, wide receiver Carlos Harris finished his career No. 2 in North Texas school history in career receptions, No. 5 in career receiving yards and No. 9 in career all-purpose yards.

While coaching the wide receivers at Western Michigan from 2008-10, Grant coached four All-Mid-American Conference receivers. In 2010, he had two receivers, Jordan White and Juan Nunez, record 1,000-yard receiving seasons and each caught over 90 passes. White set a school single-season record with 1,378 receiving yards in 2010 on way to earning Honorable Mention All-America honors from CNN/SI and First Team All-MAC honors. He also concluded his career as Western Michigan's career record holder for receiving yards. Nunez had 1,032 yards receiving in 2010 and also earned First Team All-MAC honors. In 2008, Grant coached wide receiver Jamarko Simmons, who led the MAC in receptions (98) and receiving yards (1,100). Simmons ranked No. 3 in the NCAA in receptions in 2008 and earned Second Team All-America honors.

Grant's time at Iowa State included him coaching two receivers who would break the Iowa State career receiving record. In 2002, Lane Danielson became the Cyclones' all-time leading receiver and earned All-Big 12 recognition. Then three years later in 2005, Todd Blythe broke Danielson's record on way to earning First Team All-Big 12 honors. Grant also coached First Team All-Big 12 running back Ennis Haywood in 2000.

Of the 17 bowl teams Grant has been a part of nine came during his time at Nebraska, five came at Iowa State and one each came during his time at Southern Miss, Western Michigan and North Texas.

Grant has continued to develop his coaching skills throughout his career. He participated in the 2009 NCAA Football Coach's Academy, the 2013 NCAA/NFL Coach's Academy and the Bill Walsh NFL Minority Internship Program, serving an internship in 2013 with the Buffalo Bills.

A quarterback at Nebraska from 1988-92, he was a three-year letterwinner and was named to the Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll. He earned his bachelor's degree in communication studies from Nebraska in 1993, added a second bachelor's degree in journalism with a concentration in advertising in 1995 and has completed his course work for his master's degree in mass communication.

He and his wife, Nina, have one daughter, Mireia.

Pete Kaligis will coach the Wyoming defensive tackles and nose tackles for the third straight year in 2016. Kaligis is the longest serving assistant coach on the current Cowboy coaching staff. He is entering his eighth consecutive year at Wyoming this season. The 2016 season will mark Kaligis' 22nd season as a college coach. In his first season coaching the Cowboys' interior defensive line in 2014, he coached senior defensive tackle Patrick Mertens. Mertens signed as a free agent with the Baltimore Ravens of the NFL following his senior year.

Kaligis served as Wyoming's assistant head coach, co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach in 2013. Sophomore running back Shaun Wick nearly reached the 1,000-yard plateau in 2013, rushing for 979 yards. For the 2012 season, Kaligis was promoted to assistant head coach and coached both the Cowboy offensive line and running backs. Kaligis' first three years at Wyoming (2009-11) he coached the Cowboy offensive line.

In 2013, Wyoming ranked 22nd in the nation in total offense (472.8 yards per game) and 26th in passing offense (282.4 yards per game). The Wyoming offense ranked second in the Mountain West Conference and 38th in the nation in passing offense in 2012, averaging 265.4 yards per game.

The 2012 season saw Kaligis coach First Team All-Mountain West center Nick Carlson. Carlson was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List for the second time his senior season. The Rimington Trophy honors the nation's top center each season. Carlson was also named to the 2012 Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List, and was one of only 10 national finalists for the ARA Sportsmanship Award as a senior. Carlson (Tampa Bay Buccaneers) and senior offensive tackles Josh Leonard (Oakland Raiders) and Kyle Magnuson (Oakland Raiders) each were invited to NFL camps as free agents following their senior seasons.

In 2011, the Cowboy offense ranked No. 11 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed, allowing only 12 sacks in 13 games. Three UW offensive linemen earned Mountain West All-Conference honors in 2011. Senior tackle Clayton Kirven and junior center Nick Carlson were named Second Team All-Mountain West. Sophomore offensive guard Tyler Strong earned Honorable Mention All-Conference recognition. Carlson was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List for the first time in 2011.

Kaligis coached sophomore center Carlson in 2010. Carlson went on to earn Honorable Mention All-Mountain West Conference honors. One of Kaligis' 2009 Cowboys, offensive tackle Ryan Otterson, signed a free-agent contract with the San Diego Chargers following the 2010 NFL Draft.

During his previous years coaching at the college level, Kaligis has been a part of 12 teams that advanced to postseason play, including five bowl appearances with NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision teams. In addition to the Cowboys' appearance in the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl and UW's win in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl, Kaligis was a strength and conditioning coach at Washington when the Huskies played in the 1999 Holiday Bowl (losing to Kansas State, 24-20), won the 2000 Rose Bowl (defeating Purdue, 34-24) and played in the 2002 Sun Bowl (losing to Purdue, 34-24).

An outstanding college football player and track and field athlete, Kaligis started all 12 games at offensive guard for the Washington Huskies and former head football coach Don James when they captured the 1991 National Championship. The Huskies posted a perfect 12-0 record and defeated Michigan, 34-14, in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1, 1992, to win the national title. Kaligis was a member of the Husky Football team from 1990-94.

He was an All-American in track and field in the shot put. He won the gold medal at the 1995 U.S. Olympic Festival, and placed third in the 1995 University Games. He participated in the 1996 Olympic Trials in track and field in the shot put.

Kaligis earned his B.A. degree in sociology and law enforcement at Washington in 1994. He and his wife, Kristine, have a daughter, Harlie Grace, and a son, Cooper.

CURT MALLORY

(Michigan '92)

Defensive Pass Game Coordinator/Secondary

Curt Mallory enters his second season as a member of the Wyoming coaching staff in 2016 and 25th year overall as a college coach. He came to Wyoming in the spring of 2015 after coaching the Michigan secondary from 2011-14. Mallory serves as the Cowboys defensive pass game coordinator and secondary coach. In the 2015 season, Mallory coached freshman free safety Andrew Wingard, who earned First Team Freshman All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA). Wingard was one of only 29 freshman in the nation to earn the honor. He was also named Second Team All-Mountain West Conference as a true freshman. Wingard ranked second in the Mountain West and No. 12 in the nation in tackles in 2015, averaging 10.2 per game. He became the first Wyoming freshman to record 100+ tackles in a single season (122). The Wyoming defense ranked 26th in the nation in fewest passing yards allowed in 2015, giving up only 196.9 passing yards per game to opponents.

As the secondary coach at Michigan in 2014, the Wolverine defense ranked No. 7 in the nation in total defense, allowing only 311.3 yards per game. Michigan also ranked 15th in rushing defense (117.7 yards per game), tied for 19th in pass defense (193.7 yards per game) and 27th in scoring defense (22.4 points per game).

During his time in Ann Arbor, he coached Michigan defenses that ranked in the Top 15 in the NCAA in pass defense in 2011 and 2012. Four Wolverine secondary members earned All-Big Ten honors from 2011-13. The Wolverines defeated Virginia Tech in the Allstate Sugar Bowl to conclude the 2011 season and posted an 11-2 record. They appeared in the Outback Bowl at the conclusion of the 2012 season and the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl in 2013. Mallory was also involved in working with all aspects of Michigan's special teams.

Prior to his four-years at Michigan, Mallory was the defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach at the University of Akron for the 2010 season. He also assisted with the special teams at Akron.

For five seasons from 2005-09, Mallory coached at the University of Illinois where he was the defensive secondary coach the first two seasons (2005-06) and was elevated to co-defensive coordinator for his final three seasons from 2007-09. The Illini earned a spot in the Rose Bowl versus USC following the 2007 season. His Illinois defense led the Big Ten in sacks and tackles for loss in 2008. In 2007 on way to the Rose Bowl, the Illini held opponents to under 20 points per game, and in 2006 his secondary ranked second in the Big Ten in fewest passing yards allowed (182.2 yards per game). The '06 secondary also limited opponents to only 11 passing touchdowns on the season and only 6.5 yards per pass attempt. He coached Illinois cornerback Vontae Davis, who earned All-America honors and was a two-time semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award given to the top defensive back in the nation each season.

Mallory's five years at Illinois were preceded by three seasons as the secondary coach at another Big Ten school, Indiana University, from 2002-04. He spent the 2001 season as the secondary coach at Central Michigan. He earned his first full-time coaching position at Ball State in 1995, and coached there for the next six seasons, from 1995-2000. Mallory coached the linebackers his first five years at Ball State, and took over the secondary for his final season in 2000. The Cardinals most successful season during that span was 1996 when they earned a berth in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Mallory began his coaching career as a student assistant at Michigan in 1992, and was part of a team that earned a Rose Bowl berth. He then worked for two seasons (1993-94) as a graduate assistant at Indiana for his father, Bill Mallory, who was the head coach of the Hoosiers. The '93 Indiana squad played in the Independence Bowl.

Over the span of his coaching career, Mallory has helped guide seven teams to bowl games.

Curt Mallory played linebacker at the University of Michigan from 1988-91, earning two letters. He played his first two seasons for legendary Michigan coach Bo Schembechler and his final two under Gary Moeller. The Wolverines won four consecutive Big Ten titles during that time span, appeared in three Rose Bowls and one Gator Bowl and ended the 1988 season ranked No. 4 in the nation and defeated USC, 22-14, in the Rose Bowl.

Part of a football family, his father, Bill Mallory, was an NCAA Division I head coach for 27 seasons from 1969-96. He was the head coach at Miami of Ohio (1969-73), Colorado (1974-78), Northern Illinois (1980-83) and spent the final 13 seasons of his career at Indiana (1984-96). Curt's two brothers, Mike and Doug, also both played at Michigan and are in the coaching profession.

Mike is the special teams coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars of the NFL, and Doug is currently a defensive assistant coach for the Atlanta Falcons, working with the linebackers.

Born May 9, 1969, Curt Mallory earned his bachelor's degree in sport management and communications from Michigan in 1992, and completed his master's degree in outdoor recreation at Indiana in 1999. Mallory and his wife, Lori, have three children -- sons James and Sam and daughter Margo.

John Richardson begins his third season as cornerbacks coach for the Wyoming Cowboys in 2016. He originally joined the Cowboy coaching staff in 2014. A year ago, Richardson coached a Wyoming defense that ranked 26th in the nation in fewest passing yards allowed, giving up only 196.9 passing yards per game to opponents.

Prior to coming to Wyoming, Richardson coached the North Dakota State cornerbacks in 2012 and '13. He was a member of the NDSU staff from 2009-13, spending the 2009 and '10 seasons as a student assistant before becoming a graduate assistant coach in 2011. During his time on the NDSU coaching staff, the Bison won three consecutive national titles in 2011, '12 and '13.

From 2011 through 2013, Richardson helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

As a coach at North Dakota State in 2011, '12 and '13, Richardson helped the Bison rank No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense for three consecutive seasons, holding opponents to only 12.7 points per game in 2011, 11.5 points per game in 2012 and only 11.3 points per game in 2013.

The 2013 Bison defense also ranked: No. 3 in the FCS in total defense (255.9 yards per game); No. 2 in the nation in pass efficiency defense (97.59 rating); No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game); and No. 8 in passing yards allowed (164.6 yards per game).

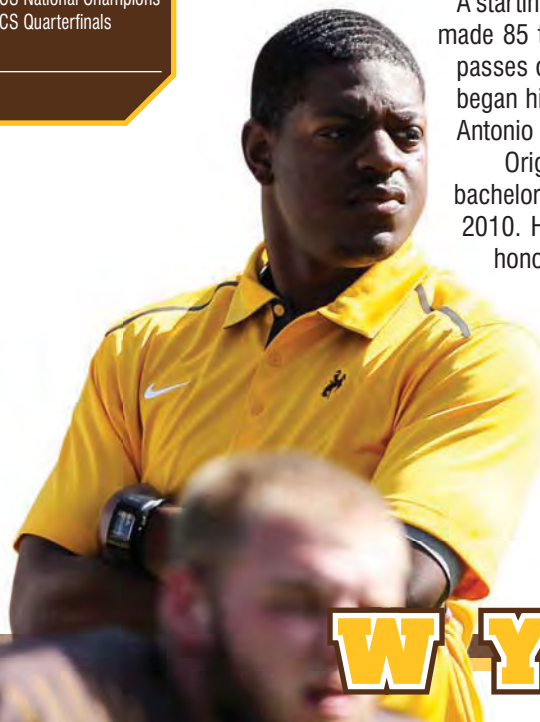

In addition to leading the nation in scoring defense in 2012, NDSU: led the nation in total defense (234.5 yards allowed per game); was No. 1 in fewest first downs allowed (12.67 per game); ranked No. 2 in pass defense (140.6 yards allowed per game); and ranked No. 4 in rushing defense (93.9 yards allowed per game).

In 2012 and '13, Richardson coached Consensus First Team All-America cornerback Marcus Williams. Williams signed a free-agent contract with the Houston Texans following the 2014 NFL Draft. NDSU defensive back Bryan Shepherd also signed as a free agent with the Washington Redskins following the 2014 NFL Draft.

A starting cornerback, himself, at NDSU in 2007 and '08, Richardson made 85 tackles over his two-year career, with 57 solo tackles, 19 passes defended, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries. He began his college career in his home state of California at Mt. San Antonio Community College.

Originally from Compton, Calif., Richardson completed his bachelor's degree in sports and recreation leadership in December 2010. He earned Missouri Valley Football Conference Honor Roll honors his senior year of 2008.

He and his wife, Sahfiya, have one son, John Michael, and one daughter, Simone Faith.

RUSSELL DENNISON

(Oklahoma '06)

Director of Sports Performance/Head Football Strength and Conditioning Coach

Russell Dennison was named the new Director of Sports Performance for the University of Wyoming Athletics Department in January of 2016. Prior to coming to Wyoming, he was the assistant strength and conditioning coach for the University of Oklahoma Football program the past five years (2011-15). Dennison directs the strength and conditioning program for the Cowboy Football team and also oversees the strength and conditioning staff for all of Wyoming's sports teams.

While at Oklahoma, Dennison was responsible for designing speed, strength and conditioning programs for the Sooners Football team, working with Jerry Schmidt, Head of Sports Enhancement at OU. Dennison implemented and instructed football student-athletes on specific speed and strength workouts tailored to their positions. He monitored student-athletes' recovery periods and focused on maximizing recovery sessions. Dennison also worked closely with the OU Sports Science Director in gathering and evaluating data on student-athlete workouts.

During his time coaching with the Sooners, Oklahoma won Big XII Championships in 2012 and 2015. At the conclusion of the 2015 season, OU played in the College Football Playoff Semifinals versus Clemson in the Orange Bowl. The Sooners recorded bowl wins over Iowa in the 2011 Insight Bowl and over Alabama in the Sugar Bowl following the 2013 season. They also made appearances in the Cotton Bowl vs. Texas A&M following the 2012 season and vs. Clemson in the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl. The Sooners combined record over the five-year span from 2011-15 was 50-15 (.769).

A former Sooner football player, Dennison was signed by OU out of Weatherford High School in Weatherford, Okla. Dennison lettered four years at OU from 2002-05 as a linebacker and fullback. He was part of OU teams that earned their way to three consecutive Big XII Championship games in 2002, 2003 and 2004, winning the Big XII title game in 2002 and 2004. The Sooners played in two consecutive BCS National Championship Games following the 2003 and 2004 seasons, playing LSU in the Sugar Bowl following the 2003 campaign and playing USC in the Orange Bowl following the 2004 season.

Dennison was also part of OU teams that defeated Washington State in the Rose Bowl at the conclusion of the 2002 season and defeated Oregon in the 2005 Holiday Bowl. The Sooners compiled a record of 44-9 (.830) during that four-year span. As a freshman at Oklahoma, Dennison won the Freshman Iron Man Award for outstanding performance in strength and conditioning at OU.

He began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant strength and conditioning coach for football at the Air Force Academy in 2007-08. He returned to his home state of Oklahoma in 2008 to establish the strength and conditioning program at Tulsa Union High School. In 2010, Dennison was nominated for the National Strength and Conditioning Association's (NSCA) National High School Strength Coach of the Year. The next year, he accepted the assistant strength and conditioning position at his alma mater, OU.

He was elected into the Tulsa Union High School Sports Hall of Fame in 2016.

The Weatherford, Okla., native was named the 2001 Oklahoma Class 4A Defensive Player of the Year at Weatherford High School. He was an outstanding track and field athlete in high school, earning High School All-America honors in the 400 meters. He was the Oklahoma state champion in the indoor and outdoor 400 meters in 2001. He anchored the gold medal Great Southwest Classic mile-relay team and won an individual 400-meter championship at the 2001 Great Southwest Classic. He was also a three-year starter in basketball.

Dennison became a National Strength and Conditioning Association (N.S.C.A) Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist in August of 2007. He received his bachelor's degree from Oklahoma in May of 2006.

Gordie Haug will serve as the director of recruiting for the Wyoming Football program for his third consecutive year in 2016. In 2015 while maintaining his duties as director of recruiting, Haug also coached the Wyoming wide receivers. Junior wide receiver Tanner Gentry was named to the Biletnikoff Award Watch List in 2015.

Haug came to Wyoming from North Dakota State where he was a member of head coach Craig Bohl's coaching staff for the 2012 and 2013 seasons, working as an offensive assistant.

Haug has been very innovative in directing all recruiting efforts for the Cowboy coaching staff. He also coordinates all summer camps for Wyoming Football, and has built a very extensive and productive summer satellite camp program.

In Haug's two years on the NDSU staff, the Bison posted a combined overall record of 29-1 and a Missouri Valley Football Conference record of 15-1, while capturing back-to-back Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) National Championships.

The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

Haug coached the running backs at North Dakota State in 2012 and '13. Each of those two seasons, NDSU had two individuals rush for over 1,000 yards. In 2013, Sam Ojuri rushed for 1,398 yards and John Crockett rushed for 1,277 yards. The 2012 season saw Ojuri rush for 1,047 yards and Crockett rush for 1,038.

In 2013, the North Dakota State offense ranked No. 10 in the nation in scoring offense (38.7 points per game), No. 7 in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 14 in total offense (457.5 yards per game), No. 1 in third-down efficiency (55.4%), No. 3 in passing efficiency (164.9) and No. 6 in red-zone offense (89.2%). The 2013 NDSU offense also was one of only 12 FCS teams to average 200+ yards rushing and 200+ yards passing per game. The 2012 Bison offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in third-down efficiency (50.7%) and No. 16 in red-zone offense (89.2%).

Before joining the North Dakota State staff, Haug spent five years (2007-11) coaching at his alma mater, Bemidji State University in Minnesota. He began as a student assistant for two years (2007-08), working with the linebackers. Haug then moved into a graduate assistant role for two seasons (2009-10), working with the running backs. He became a full-time assistant coach on the staff his final season (2011), coaching the defensive line.

At Bemidji State, Haug was also involved in recruiting and assisted with the strength and conditioning program.

He earned his bachelor's degree in community health in 2009 and master's degree in sports science in 2011 both from Bemidji State.

Brent Vernon enters his fourth year as Director of Football Operations for Wyoming Football in 2016 and his eighth year overall at Wyoming. He previously served in the roles of Executive Assistant to the Head Coach and Assistant Director of Football Operations in 2012. In 2011, Vernon served as Wyoming's Director of Recruiting, being promoted from his previous position as the Cowboys' offensive graduate assistant in 2009 and '10.

In his current role, Vernon coordinates a variety of administrative duties for Cowboy Football, including: planning team travel, monitoring the football budget and helping coordinate team functions.

While serving as the Director of Recruiting in 2011, Vernon was responsible for coordinating all recruiting efforts for Cowboy Football, including: implementing Wyoming's recruiting plan for the year, scheduling recruiting travel, organizing recruiting weekends, assuring compliance with NCAA rules relative to recruiting and managing the recruiting budget.

Vernon was Wyoming's offensive graduate assistant in 2009 and 2010. He assisted with practice preparation, scout team coordination and a variety of other administrative and coaching duties for the Cowboy Offense. He also was involved in signaling plays from the sideline on game days.

Wyoming's appearance in the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl was the sixth bowl game that Vernon had been a part of in his young career. He of course shared in Wyoming's 2009 New Mexico Bowl Championship, as the Cowboys defeated Fresno State 35-28 in double overtime. While a student assistant at Missouri, the Tigers appeared in four consecutive bowl games from 2005-08.

He came to Wyoming in the winter of 2009 from the University of Missouri where he was a student assistant with the Mizzou Football program for five seasons from August 2004 to December 2008. At Missouri, he assisted the tight ends' coach, broke down practice and game film and prepared scouting reports. During that five-year span, Missouri enjoyed unprecedented success. The Tigers won the 2005 Independence Bowl over South Carolina, played Oregon State in the 2006 Sun Bowl, won the Cotton Bowl over Arkansas at the conclusion of the 2007 season and defeated Northwestern in the 2008 Alamo Bowl.

Vernon completed his bachelor of science degree in business administration, with an emphasis in management, at Missouri in December of 2008. Vernon achieved Dean's List honors all four years of college. He was also named the University of Missouri Athletics' Student Assistant of the Year in 2008.

UW ADMINISTRATION

MATT GAYNOR

(Metropolitan State '12)
Director of Player Personnel

Matt Gaynor was named Wyoming's new Director of Player Personnel in June 2015. Prior to being hired into Wyoming's new position of Director of Player Personnel, Gaynor had served as a recruiting and operations assistant with Wyoming Football since July of 2013.

A native of Denver, Colo., he assisted the Wyoming coaching staff with many administrative tasks the past two years. He assisted in organizing recruiting efforts for Cowboy football, including: maintaining the recruiting database, organizing recruiting video for later evaluation by the coaching staff, helping host official recruit visits and helping develop and execute marketing and social media campaigns directed at potential recruits. He also assisted in football operations on Wyoming Football road trips.

Gaynor's new responsibilities will include: developing, implementing and directing the strategic planning process for recruiting prospective student-athletes; assisting the Director of Recruiting with recruiting travel of UW coaches and prospective student-athletes; helping organize on-campus recruiting activities; and assisting with recruiting correspondence.

He graduated from Metropolitan State University in Denver in May 2012 with a bachelor's degree in sport industry operations and a minor in management.

After graduation, Gaynor served internships with the Denver Outlaws professional lacrosse team in 2012 and the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League in 2013, prior to coming to Wyoming in July 2013. With the Rattlers, Gaynor worked in the scouting and football operations departments

HALEY WALSH

Cowboy Football Office Manager

Haley Walsh is entering her sixth year as office manager for the Wyoming Football program, having joined the athletic department in June of 2011.

As one of the first staff members that visitors to the Wyoming Football program meet, Walsh is an important contributor in projecting a positive image for Cowboy Football. Included in her responsibilities are: helping coordinate coaches' travel, assisting with practice preparation, maintaining coaches' schedules, aiding with recruiting, maintaining information on players and coaches and helping coordinate summer camps.

Walsh came to the Cowboy Football program from the University of Wyoming Foundation where she worked from October of 2009 until June 2011. While at the UW Foundation, she was an administrative assistant to the major gift officers. Prior to that, she worked for the City Engineer in Sheridan, Wyo. for one year, and worked at the Albany County Clerk's Office in Laramie, Wyo., from 2003-08 as an election clerk.

A 2001 graduate of Laramie High School, Walsh grew up on her family's ranch west of Laramie.

JAKE CHAPMAN

Video Coordinator for Cowboy Football

Jake Chapman joined the Wyoming Athletics Department in January of 2014 as video coordinator for Cowboy Football. Chapman coordinates filming of all practice and game footage for Wyoming Football, and supervises a group of student filers. He is proficient in utilizing XOS Thunder and DragonFly Software for editing practice footage. He posts edited video footage with the use of XOS ThunderCloud iPad software and makes that footage available to members of the Wyoming Football coaching staff and players for film study. Chapman also coordinates recruiting video on potential recruits, which is utilized by the Cowboy coaching staff in all recruiting efforts. He provides video content for a variety of recruiting events during the year. Management of UW Football meeting rooms is one of Chapman's other responsibilities. He also assists television networks when they arrive on campus by providing video footage for review by TV announce crews.

Prior to Wyoming, Chapman served as the football video coordinator at North Dakota State from 2012 through 2013. His responsibilities at NDSU mirrored those he performs as video coordinator at Wyoming. In addition, Chapman helped conduct facility and campus tours and assisted with coordinating recruit visit schedules for coaches. He supervised student assistant filers.

Chapman's first video coordinator position came while he was a student at Ohio University. He served as the football video coordinator from 2009-12.

In 2011, Chapman served as a ballpark operations intern at Goodyear Ballpark in Goodyear, Ariz. His initial work in minor-league baseball came as director of player operations and equipment manager for the Southern Ohio Copperheads from 2009-10.

He earned his bachelor's degree in sport management with minors in business administration and economics from Ohio U. in 2012.

RYAN MCGINN

Academic Coordinator for Cowboy Football

Ryan McGinn joined the Office of Academic Support in January of 2012. After working as a graduate assistant for a year, he became an Academic Coordinator for the football team in 2013. McGinn received an undergraduate degree from Southern Virginia University in History with a minor in Business Management and Leadership. While at Southern Virginia, McGinn competed in football as a receiver, was a member of the Phi Alpha Theta History Honors Society and the Chi Epsilon Omega Business Honors Society and was an Academic All-American. He earned a Master of Arts degree in Educational Administration from the University of Wyoming. McGinn and his wife Brynn have one daughter, Raegan.

JOSH FIRM

Offensive Graduate Assistant

Josh Firm moved into the role of offensive graduate assistant for Wyoming Football in the spring of 2016, after previously serving as the Cowboys' recruiting graduate assistant during the 2015 season. As an offensive graduate assistant, Firm will assist in practice preparation and preparing scouting reports, as well as assisting the Cowboy coaching staff on game days. As UW's recruiting graduate assistant, he assisted the director of recruiting with all facets of the recruiting process, including: collecting recruiting information for review by the Cowboy coaching staff, assisting with recruit visits, helping produce recruiting materials and assisting in scheduling recruiting trips by Wyoming coaches. He began his coaching career in the spring and summer of 2013 as a player/coach for the Calanda Broncos in Chur, Switzerland, where he was the starting QB and co-offensive coordinator. In August of 2013, he returned to his alma mater, Missouri University of Science and Technology as an assistant coach for the running backs. From January 2014 to June 2014, Firm served as the offensive coordinator for the Bron-Villeurbanne Falcons in Lyon, France. Firm came to Wyoming in July 2014 to serve as an intern with Cowboy Football. Firm played his college football at Missouri S&T where he was the Miners' starting quarterback in 2011 and 2012, earning Great Lakes Football Conference All-Academic honors in 2011. Before transferring to Missouri S&T, Firm began his college playing career at Antelope Valley Community College in California. He earned his bachelor's degree in business management and information systems from Missouri S&T in 2013, and is currently working on his master's degree in instructional technology at Wyoming. He is originally from Lancaster, Calif.

GRANT OLSON

Defensive Graduate Assistant

Grant Olson will once again assist in coaching the Wyoming linebackers as a defensive graduate assistant in 2016. He is directly involved as a member of the defensive coaching staff in all practice and game preparation for the Wyoming Football team. Olson also plays a key role on game days in assisting the Cowboy coaching staff. He came to Wyoming in the spring of 2015 from North Dakota State where he was a student assistant coach in 2014. His one year serving as a student assistant coach at NDSU in 2014 followed an outstanding college playing career for the Bison from 2010 to 2013. Olson helped coach the Bison linebackers on way to NDSU's fourth consecutive NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) National Championship in '14. He was an outstanding linebacker himself at North Dakota State, highlighted by earning Third Team All-America honors from the Associated Press his senior season of 2013. As a junior, the College Sports Journal named him an Honorable Mention FCS All-American. Olson was selected All-Conference both his junior and senior seasons, and was also selected a team captain both seasons. During his four-year playing career, he helped lead NDSU to a 52-7 record and three FCS National Titles in 2011, '12 and '13. He played in 55 career games for the Bison, and set a school record with 29 tackles in a single game in NDSU's 14-7 win over Wofford College in the 2012 NCAA FCS quarterfinals. The 2011, '12 and '13 Bison defenses led the nation in scoring defense for three consecutive seasons. Olson's hometown is Plymouth, Minn.

BLAKE ANDERSEN

Defensive Graduate Assistant

Blake Andersen joined the Cowboy Football program in the spring of 2016 as a defensive graduate assistant. Andersen was a defensive graduate assistant at Northwest Missouri State for the 2015 season, working with the defensive tackles and special teams. Northwest captured the 2015 NCAA Division II National Championship -- its fifth in school history -- with a perfect 15-0 record in 2015. He coached one NCAA Division II All-American and two All-Conference players at Northwest Missouri. In 2014, Andersen was a defensive intern at Montana Tech for one season. He began his college coaching career in 2013 as a defensive graduate assistant at Black Hills State. Andersen played linebacker and defensive end at the University of Sioux Falls from 2006-10 where he was part of one of the most successful programs at the NAIA level. Sioux Falls won the NAIA National Championship in 2006 (Andersen's redshirt year), 2008 and 2009. The Cougars were NAIA National Runners-up his other two seasons of 2007 and 2010. Sioux Falls compiled a record of 55-2 during the four years (2007-10) that Andersen played. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration with a minor in economics from the University of Sioux Falls in 2011, and is on schedule to complete his master's degree in applied health and sports science with an emphasis in sports administration from Northwest Missouri State in July 2016. His hometown is Marion, S.D.

JACOB CLABORN

Offensive Graduate Assistant/Tight Ends

Jacob Claborn is in his first season as an offensive graduate assistant at the University of Wyoming. He will work directly with the Cowboy tight ends in 2016. Claborn came to Wyoming in the spring of 2016 after coaching the offensive line as a full-time assistant coach at Central Washington University in Ellensburg, Wash., for the 2014 and 2015 seasons. Prior to that, Claborn spent two seasons as an offensive graduate assistant at St. Cloud State in St. Cloud, Minn., in 2012 and 2013. He served as the run-game coordinator, offensive line coach and tight ends coach at his alma mater, California Lutheran, for the 2011 season after coaching the O-Line and tight ends there in 2009 and 2010. He was originally a student assistant at Cal Lutheran in 2007 and '08. During his time in college coaching, Claborn has coached five NCAA Division II All-Conference players, an NCAA Division III All-American and 12 Division III All-Conference performers. He participated in the NCAA Future Football Coaches Academy in 2013. Claborn achieved his bachelor's degree in exercise science and sports medicine from Cal Lutheran in 2009. He completed his master's degree in educational administration and leadership from St. Cloud State in 2014. He will be studying instructional technology at Wyoming. Claborn is originally from Santa Maria, Calif. He and his wife, Brett, have one daughter, Harper, and one son, Collin.

IAN MCGREW

Recruiting Graduate Assistant

Ian McGrew is entering his first season as Wyoming's recruiting graduate assistant in 2016 after serving as an intern with the Cowboy Football program in 2015. Among his duties as Wyoming's recruiting GA will be: updating Wyoming's recruiting database, organizing and assisting in evaluation of potential recruits' videotape for review by the Cowboy coaching staff, helping coordinate campus visits by recruits and overseeing recruiting materials that are sent to potential recruits. McGrew interned with the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League prior to coming to Wyoming. He assisted with scouting and football operations with the Rattlers. McGrew earned his bachelor's degree in sport business from the University of Tennessee-Martin in 2015. He is originally from Union City, Tenn.

BRIAN HILL

ALL-AMERICA CANDIDATE

Running back
6-1, 219, Junior
Belleville, Ill. (Belleville West)

UW This Season: Brian Hill will be one of the nation's top returning running backs in 2016. He was one of 11 semifinalists for the 2015 Doak Walker Award, honoring the nation's premier college running back, and was the only player from a non-Power Five conference to be named a semifinalist last season. Hill will enter his junior season ranked fifth in career rushing yards at UW, with 2,427 career rushing yards. He needs only 536 more yards to tie former Cowboy Devin Moore for the Wyoming career mark of 2,963 rushing yards. 2015: Hill proved to be one of the most effective running backs in the nation last season. He led the Mountain West Conference in average yards rushing per game (135.9) and ranked second in total rushing yards (1,631). He ranked No. 8 in the nation in average yards rushing and No. 9 in total rushing yards. His 1,631 rushing yards and 135.9 yards per game set new UW single-season rushing records, breaking the former records of 1,455 yards and 121.3 yards per game originally set by Ryan Christopherson in 1994. He rushed for 200 or more yards four times last season. Hill ran for a season-high 242 yards on 21 carries against Eastern Michigan. He rushed for 208 yards on 30 carries at Appalachian State, and had 232 yards on a career-high 35 carries with one touchdown against UNLV. His 35 carries was the most for a Cowboy since Wyoming joined the MW Conference. He rushed for 201 yards on 26 carries with a touchdown at Utah State. 2014: Hill appeared in all 12 games for the Cowboys, including four starts as a true freshman. He finished the season with 796 rushing yards on 145 carries with seven touchdowns. He also caught 13 passes out of the backfield for 204 yards. Hill ranked No. 12 in the MW and No. 87 in the NCAA in rushing yards per game (66.3) and was No. 7 in the MW and No. 44 in the nation in rushing yards per carry (5.49). He was named the Football Bowl Subdivision National Offensive Player of the Week by the Walter Camp Football Foundation after his record-breaking contest at Fresno State. Against the Bulldogs, Hill became only the fifth player in NCAA history to rush for at least 200 yards and have at least 100 yards receiving in a single game. Hill's 387 all-purpose yards was the best single-game performance in the nation for the 2014 season and set a new University of Wyoming single-game record and a Mountain West Conference single-game record. His 281 rushing yards was the second best single-game performance in Wyoming school history. He scored on runs of 32-yards, 66-yards and 89-yards. He rushed for at least 100 yards in four of the Cowboys' last five games. High School: Hill was a very versatile athlete in high school, playing both ways for his Belleville West High team in Belleville, Ill., located just outside St. Louis, Mo. Hill played in Class 7A at Belleville West, which is the second-largest classification in the state of Illinois. His senior season, he was named an All-City running back in a combined vote by the Belleville News-Democrat staff and city head coaches. He earned First Team All-Southwestern Conference as a running back and Second Team All-SWC as a safety. His teammates voted him the Belleville West "Team" Award. On offense, he rushed for 778 yards on 88 carries for an 8.8 yard average per rush, and he scored 15 rushing touchdowns. Hill caught 10 passes for 332 yards and six receiving TDs, and he completed 5 of 8 passes for 95 yards. His senior season, Hill also had 135 yards in kickoff returns and 73 yards on punt returns, accounting for 1,433 all-purpose yards. As a safety, he was credited with 59 tackles (41 solo tackles and 18 assists), three interceptions which he returned for 115 yards, two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and one sack for five yards. As a junior, Hill rushed for 614 yards on 84 carries and scored seven rushing touchdowns. He made 57 tackles (40 solos and 17 assists) and recorded three sacks on defense. For his career, Hill totalled 1,395 rushing yards,

KELLEN OVERSTREET

Running Back
5-11, 196, Sophomore
Hamilton, Mo.
(Penney)

29

UW This Season: Kellen Overstreet was an effective running back as a true freshman, averaging 5.2 yards per carry as a back-up to Brian Hill. Overstreet will likely redshirt the 2016 season as he recovers from offseason surgery.

2015: Overstreet made an immediate impact in the backfield and on special teams during his freshman season. He appeared in all 12 games for the Pokes. He rushed for 84 yards on 16 carries with one touchdown. Overstreet hauled in three passes for 33 yards. He averaged 5.2 yards per carry on the season. He also returned two kickoffs for 51 yards. Overstreet had a big day against Nevada, as he rushed for 27 yards on eight carries with a touchdown. He also had two catches for 22 yards with a career-high 21-yard reception against the Wolf Pack. His first career touchdown came against New Mexico grabbing an 11-yard reception. He was named to the Academic All-Conference team as a freshman.

High School: Kellen Overstreet was named to the 2015 Parade All-American First Team. He is the first University of Wyoming recruit in history to be named to the Parade All-American Team. Overstreet was one of only three running backs and one of only 27 high school football players in the nation named to the team. He was also named to the 2014 MaxPreps Small Schools All-America Team. Overstreet was rated a three-star recruit and ranked as the 18th top recruit in the state of Missouri by 247Sports.com. ESPN.com also rated him a three-star recruit and the No. 22 overall recruit in the state of Missouri. He ranked No. 2 in the nation in rushing yards in 2014, with 4,259 yards on 401 carries. His 4,259 rushing yards ranked as the fourth best all-time single-season total in national high school football history and set a state of Missouri single-season record. Overstreet also fell just one touchdown shy of tying the national record of 71 touchdowns in a single season. His 70 touchdowns in 2014 set a Missouri state single-season record. He led the nation in scoring (426 points) in 2014, rushing for 65 touchdowns, catching four TD passes and returning one kickoff for a TD, as well as scoring three, two-point conversions. He set a new career rushing record for the state of Missouri, concluding his four-year career with 9,475 career rushing yards on 955 rushing attempts, and he scored 135 rushing touchdowns and 168 total touchdowns during his four seasons of high school. He rushed for 3,327 yards as a junior, 1,070 as a sophomore and 819 as a freshman. Overstreet was a unanimous selection to the 2014 Class 1 All-State Team by the Missouri Football Coaches Association, who also named him the Class 1 Offensive Player of the Year. He was named to the First Team Class 1 All-State Team by the Missouri Sportswriters and Sportscasters, and was also selected to the 2014 American Family Insurance All-USA Missouri Football Team. Overstreet helped lead Penney High to an 11-3 record and the Semifinals of the 2014 Class 1 State Playoffs. He played for head football coach Dave Fairchild. Overstreet was also recruited by Air Force, Boston College, North Dakota State and Tulsa.

UW This Season: Joseph Parker finished spring football second on the depth chart at Z receiver behind senior Tanner Gentry. Parker will look to build on the experience he gained playing as a true freshman last season. 2015: Parker appeared in all 12 games at wide receiver during his freshman season. He caught seven passes for 68 yards during the season, and averaged 9.7 yards per catch. He recorded one catch in seven different games, versus: North Dakota, Washington State, Appalachian State, Air Force, Boise State, Utah State and UNLV. His 16-yard reception at Utah State was a career-high. High School: Parker was named Second Team All-State Class 5A as a senior as presented by the Colorado High School Activities Association (CHSAANow.com), ColoradoPreps.com and MaxPreps.com. The team was selected by Colorado high school coaches. He was also an Honorable Mention All-State Class 5A selection by The Denver Post. Class 5A is the largest classification in the state of Colorado. He was ranked as the 14th best overall recruit in the state of Colorado by 247Sports.com. Parker led Cherry Creek High in receptions (45), receiving yards (715) and touchdown receptions (5) in 2014. He also had eight rushing attempts for 140 yards, and returned punts. In the 2014 Class 5A State Championship Game, Parker made two critical plays as Cherry Creek captured a 25-24 victory over defending state champion Valor Christian. With his Cherry Creek Bruins trailing 17-10, Parker caught a 53-yard pass that put the Bruins on the six-yard line and led to a game-tying touchdown two plays later. After his Cherry Creek team fell behind by a score of 24-17, Parker again made a key play rushing 29 yards on a reverse to set up the Bruins inside Valor Christian's 30-yard line. Cherry Creek went on to score a touchdown and successfully converted a two-point conversion to win the state title 25-24. In addition to football, Parker ran track and qualified for the 2014 5A State Championships in the 100-meter dash. Parker played for head coach Dave Logan at Cherry Creek High School. Former Wyoming Cowboy linebacker Guy Tuell also served as an assistant coach for that Cherry Creek High team. Personal: Born on July 24, 1996, Parker is majoring in business at UW.

LUCAS WACHA

Linebacker
6-1, 230, Senior
Texarkana, Texas
(Pleasant Grove)

45

Pronunciation: WALK-uh

UW This Season: Lucas Wacha will be a leader of the Cowboy defense again in 2016, and will be one of the top returning linebackers in the Mountain West. As a junior in 2015, Wacha ranked No. 4 among league linebackers in tackles, averaging 8.7 tackles per game. He also ranked fifth in the MW in tackles among all players at all positions and ranked No. 44 in the nation. The senior moved to the middle linebacker position in the fifth game of the 2015 season, after playing weak-side linebacker his first two seasons at Wyoming. With last season's experience of playing in the middle, he has developed into an outstanding middle linebacker.

2015: Wacha started all 11 games he played during the 2015 season. He missed the Nevada game due to injury, but was the Pokes' premier linebacker. He finished the season second on the team in tackles with 96, which was a single-season high for Wacha. He recorded 46 solo tackles and 50 assisted tackles. He added six tackles for loss for 18 yards while forcing one fumble. Wacha recorded double-digit tackles in three contests. He recorded a career-high 13 tackles against New Mexico. He also made 12 tackles against Colorado State and 10 tackles against Eastern Michigan. Wacha recorded nine tackles and two tackles for loss at Air Force and at San Diego State. He also forced a fumble at San Diego State. 2014: Wacha appeared in all 12 games making four starts on the season. He finished the season with 52 total tackles with 31 solo stops and 21 assisted tackles. He recorded a season-high 12 tackles against Boise State including two tackles for loss, and was credited with nine tackles at Michigan State with a tackle for loss.

2013: Wacha had a great season as an 11-game starter at the linebacker spot for UW. He posted 88 tackles for the season, including two TFLs and one sack. He added one pass breakup, two fumble recoveries and a forced fumble. Wacha racked up a career-high 13 tackles versus Colorado State. Against New Mexico, he finished with seven tackles, one tackle for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass breakup. He led the UW defense versus Idaho with 11 stops and a fumble recovery. 2012: Redshirted. High School: Wacha came to Wyoming from Texarkana, Texas, where he earned First Team All-Northeast Texas and First Team All-District 15-3A honors as a linebacker. His senior season, he recorded 97 tackles, four sacks and intercepted one pass. As a junior, Wacha was selected the District 15-3A Defensive MVP. He also earned All-Northeast Texas as a junior, and was once again First Team All-District 15-3A. Wacha was credited with 108 tackles and 3.5 sacks his junior season. His Pleasant Grove team posted a 6-5 record in 2010 and advanced to the first round of the state playoffs. Wacha also started as a sophomore, recording 103 tackles and three sacks as Pleasant Grove enjoyed a 13-2 season that didn't end until the fourth round of the state playoffs. An outstanding first baseman in baseball, he was the Offensive MVP of District 15-3A his junior year, and was a Second Team All-State Class 3A selection. His sophomore season, Pleasant Grove won the 3A state championship in baseball, and Wacha was named to the All-Tournament team, as well as to the First Team All-District team. Personal: Born May 20, 1993, he is the son of Karen and Tom Wacha. His older brother, Michael, is a professional pitcher with the St. Louis Cardinals. He has another older brother, Charley, and a younger sister, Brette. GAME #1

Wyoming 13, North Dakota 24

Sept. 5, 2015

War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

The Wyoming Cowboys suffered a difficult 24-13 loss at the hands of the University of North Dakota in the 2015 season opener for both teams. Wyoming was hampered by 96 yards in penalties, while North Dakota accumulated 429 yards in total offense, including 276 rushing yards. Wyoming ended the day with 330 yards in total offense, 301 of those coming through the air.

Junior Tanner Gentry was a bright spot for the Cowboys catching nine passes for 176 yards, including his 92-yard TD reception. It was Gentry's first 100-yard receiving game of his career. Coffman ended the day completing 19 of 37 pass attempts (51.4 percent) for 282 yards and two touchdowns.

Wyoming was led in tackles by its two starting safeties, who both played in their first games as Cowboys. Redshirt freshman strong safety Chavez Pownell Jr. led the Cowboys with 16 tackles, while fellow redshirt freshman free safety Marcus Epps was credited with 11 tackles.

GAME #2

Wyoming 29, Eastern Michigan 48

Sept. 12, 2015

War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

What began as a promising start for Wyoming quickly turned into the second consecutive home loss of the season for the Cowboys as the Eastern Michigan Eagles captured a 48-29 victory in Laramie in the first meeting between the two schools.

Despite the key loss at quarterback, Wyoming's rushing attack showed signs of what it can be as the Pokes rushed for 430 yards, marking the first time a Cowboy team had done that since rushing for 451 against San Diego State in 1988. Sophomore running back Brian Hill recorded the second 200-yard rushing performance of his career, ending the day with 242 yards on 21 carries and scoring two rushing touchdowns. Senior running back Shaun Wick ran for 76 yards and one TD, and moved into the No. 8 spot in career rushing at Wyoming. Wick has rushed for 2,173 yards during his Wyoming career. He moved past Dabby Dawson (2,124 yards), Alvester Alexander (2,127) and Walt Goffigan (2,167) on Saturday. Redshirt freshman quarterback Nick Smith added 65 rushing yards on 10 carries.

Wyoming 14, Washington State 31

Sept. 19, 2015
Martin Stadium
Pullman, Wash.

After a quick start by the Cowboys gave UW an early 14-7 lead, the Washington State Cougars came back to defeat Wyoming 31-14 in Martin Stadium in Pullman, Wash.

The Cowboys threw for a 296 yards. Coffman was 25-of-36 completing 69.4 percent of his passes with two touchdowns. Hill rushed 139 yards on 30 carries. He has rushed for 100 yards in six games in his career and six of his last eight contests.

Maulhardt hauled in a career-high 10 passes for a career-high 113 yards. Gentry had seven catches for 127 yards. It is his second 100-yard receiving game of his career and of the season. It is the first time Wyoming has had two wide receivers with 100-yards receiving in the same game since Robert Herron and Dominic Rufran did it against Hawai'i in 2013.

The Cowboys defense recorded three sacks on the night and seven tackles for loss. Senior Eddie Yarbrough recorded two sacks against the Cougars. He is now second all-time at Wyoming in tackles for loss with 32 in his career. Freshman Andrew Wingard led the Cowboys for the second-straight game with 12 tackles. Redshirt freshman Marcus Epps recorded his first career interception and the first of the season for the Cowboys in the third quarter.

GAME #4

Wyoming 28, New Mexico 38

Sept. 26, 2015
War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

The Wyoming passing attack generated a season high 366 passing yards and four touchdowns through the air, while the New Mexico rushing game accounted for 302 yards and four rushing TDs. But it was the Lobos who came away with a 38-28 road win in Laramie in the Mountain West Conference opener for both teams.

Despite a season-best performance from senior quarterback Cam Coffman, Wyoming penalties and an inability to stop the New Mexico rushing attack hampered the Cowboys throughout Saturday's conference opener. Coffman ended the day completing 30 of 42 passes for 366 yards, four touchdown passes and two interceptions. The completions, attempts, yards and TD passes were all season highs for him. But Wyoming also had a season high 10 penalties for 98 yards, and couldn't contain New Mexico quarterback Lamar Jordan and running back Jhurrel Pressley, who rushed for 147 and 103 yards, respectively.

GAME #5

Wyoming 13, Appalachian State 31

Oct. 3, 2015

Kidd Brewer Stadium
Boone, N.C.

A pair of early touchdowns hindered the Cowboys in a 31-13 loss to Appalachian State at Kidd Brewer Stadium in Boone, N.C. Sophomore running back Brian Hill rushed for 208 yards in the game on 30 carries. It was his third career 200-yard rushing performance of his career and the second of the season.

The Pokes held Appalachian State to only 65 yards passing. It was the first time UW held an opponent to under 100 yards passing since Cal Poly threw for 34 yards in 2012. The Cowboy defense also did not allow a third-down conversion in the entire contest.

True freshman Andrew Wingard led the Cowboys in tackles with eight tackles. Redshirt freshman Marcus Epps finished with five tackles and recorded his second interception of the season in the first half. Junior linebacker Lucas Wacha, the Cowboys' leading tackler had seven stops on the night.

Hill's 30 carries was a career-high and was the most by a Cowboy since Devin Moore carried the ball 32 times at Tennessee in 2008. Hill has rushed for more than 100 yards seven times in his career and in seven of his last 10 games. He is the first 200 yard rusher against App State since 2005.

GAME #6

Wyoming 17 Air Force 31

Oct. 10, 2015

Falcon Stadium
Colorado Springs, Colo.

A strong second half by the Air Force offense lifted the Falcons past the Wyoming Cowboys, 31-17. Sophomore Brian Hill rushed for 128 yards in the contest. He has rushed for more than 100 yards in four games this season and has 100 or more rushing yards in eight of his last 11 contests.

The two teams combined for six turnovers in the game. Wyoming recorded four turnovers with the Falcons recording two turnovers on the night. The Cowboy defense was strong in the first half allowing a season-low seven points in the frame. The Cowboys offense had 307 total yards on the night, which was a season-low.

Air Force scored 24 points in the second half to pick up the win. The Cowboys offense came alive in the four quarter with a pair of scores, but it was not enough to complete a comeback. Wyoming's fourth quarter touchdowns came off of redshirt senior quarterback Cameron Coffman connecting with junior wide receiver Jake Maulhardt on a pair of touchdown passes.

GAME #7 NEVADA

Wyoming 28, Nevada 21

Oct. 17, 2015

War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

Wyoming quarterback Cameron Coffman was near perfect on the day throwing the football. Running back Brian Hill rushed for 188 yards, and the Cowboy defense came up with the big play at the end of the game as Wyoming captured a 28-21 home win over Nevada for its first win of the season. The Cowboys led wire-to-wire in the victory before a Homecoming day crowd.

Coffman ended the day completing 18 of 20 passes (90.0 percent) for 213 yards and three touchdown passes to three different receivers. The redshirt senior concluded his outstanding day with a quarterback rating of 229.0. He threw an 18-yard touchdown pass to junior tight end Jacob Hollister for Wyoming's first score of the game with 10:28 remaining in the second quarter. Then with 1:30 remaining in the second quarter, Coffman connected with the Mountain West's leading receiver, Tanner Gentry, on a 27-yard TD strike. Coffman concluded the first half with a 12-yard pass to junior wide receiver Jake Maulhardt with 12 seconds remaining to put the Pokes up 21-7 at halftime. On that final drive of the half, Coffman was 3-for-3 passing for 29 yards and had an 18-yard run to account for all 47 yards on the drive.

GAME #8

Wyoming 14, Boise State 34

Oct. 24, 2015

Albertsons Stadium
Boise, Idaho

An early deficit for the University of Wyoming Cowboy football team was too much to overcome in a 34-14 loss to Boise State in Albertson's Stadium in Boise, Idaho. The Broncos led 24-7 going into the second half on the way to the win. Sophomore running back Brian Hill made history becoming the fastest Cowboy to reach 1,000 yards rushing in a season.

Coffman finished his day 8-for-13 for 70 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Redshirt freshman Nick Smith threw for 53 yards on 4-of-8 passing. He also rushed for 18 yards. Maulhardt had six catches for 76 yards and one touchdown.

Defensively, junior D.J. May led the Cowboys with a career-high 14 tackles. He also added a tackle for loss. Redshirt freshman Andrew Wingard added 11 tackles for his fourth double-digit tackle contest of the season.

GAME #9

Wyoming 27, Utah State 58

Oct. 30, 2015

Romney Stadium
Logan, Utah

After a tightly contested opening quarter the Wyoming Cowboys fell to Utah State, 58-27 in Maverik Stadium in Logan, Utah on Friday evening. Sophomore running back Brian Hill rushed for 201 yards. He became the first Cowboy rusher to rush for over 200 yards in four different games in their career.

Hill now ranks fourth in single-season rushing in UW history with 1,262. He also eclipsed 2,000 career rushing yards and now has 2,058 in his career and needs 69 yards to move into the top-10 in career rushing yards at Wyoming. He piled up 138 yards in the first half and has rushed for over 100 yards in an opening half four times in his career.

Defensively, freshman Andrew Wingard recorded a career-high 15 tackles. He was followed by redshirt freshman Marcus Epps with 13 tackles.

GAME #10

Wyoming 7, Colorado State 26

Nov. 7, 2015

War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

The Wyoming Cowboys got off to a slow start, while Colorado State scored on its first four possessions of the game, resulting in a 26-7 home loss for the Cowboys in the 107th meeting in the "Border War" series.

On the day, the Cowboys were unable to get their offense on track. Wyoming entered the game averaging 177 rushing yards per game and 196 passing for a combined average of 373. But Saturday, the Cowboys could manage only 239 total yards -- 130 rushing and 109 passing. UW also turned the ball over four times on three lost fumbles and one interception, while forcing only one turnover by the Rams.

While Wyoming's standout running back Brian Hill moved into second place on UW's single-season rushing list on Saturday, he was held to 65 yards rushing -- 75 yards under his average of 140 per game. Hill has run for 1,327 yards thus far this season to rank No. 2 in Wyoming history behind Ryan Christopherson's 1,455 yards in 1994.

GAME #11

Wyoming 3, San Diego State 38

Nov. 14, 2015

Qualcomm Stadium
San Diego, Calif.

The Wyoming Cowboys faced the hottest team in the Mountain West Conference on Saturday as the San Diego State Aztecs won their sixth consecutive conference game by a final score of 38-3 over the Cowboys.

Wyoming could generate only 191 yards of total offense on the night, while SDSU concluded the game with 431 total yards. The Aztecs were led by two 100-yard rushers in running backs Chase Price and Donnel Pumphrey, who ran for 152 and 140 yards, respectively. UW's junior wide receiver Jake Maulhardt recorded the second 100-yard receiving game of his career, with 107 yards on five receptions, and sophomore running back Brian Hill ran for 72 yards on the night to lead the Wyoming offense.

The Aztecs took a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter and added a touchdown with only 29 seconds remaining in the second quarter to post a 21-0 halftime lead. SDSU would score the only points in the third quarter on a field goal to build its lead to 24-0, before Wyoming would put its only points on the board early in the fourth quarter on a 31-yard field goal by freshman place-kicker Tristan Bailey. The Aztecs would add two TDs in the fourth quarter to cap off the 38-3 victory.

GAME #12

Wyoming 35, UNLV 28

Nov. 28, 2015

War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

The Wyoming Cowboys captured an exciting 35-28 home win over UNLV on Saturday in their 2015 season finale at War Memorial Stadium. The Cowboys generated a season high 538 yards of total offense on way to the victory. UW was led by sophomore running back Brian Hill, who rushed for 232 yards on way to setting a new school single-season record of 1,631 rushing yards.

Hill ended the day with his fifth career 200-yard rushing game (fourth of the season) and his 11th 100-yard game in two seasons. He was joined on offense by senior quarterback Cameron Coffman, who completed 14 of 24 passes (58.3 percent) for 248 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. Coffman's favorite target was junior tight end Jacob Hollister. Hollister caught five passes for 119 yards, including a 64-yard TD reception with 2:20 remaining in the game that proved to be the game winner. For Hollister, it was the first 100-yard receiving game of his career.

Wyoming's defense did their part in the win. Senior defensive end Eddie Yarbrough concluded his outstanding college career with seven tackles, 2.0 sacks, 2.0 tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

LARRY BIRLEFFI PRESS ROOM

LARRY BIRLEFFI, flanked by former UW Athletics Director Paul Roach (on left) acknowledges the crowd on Oct. 17, 1992, the day UW dedicated the press area in the War Memorial Stadium Press Box as "The Larry Birleffi Press Room".

In 1992 the University of Wyoming Athletics Department honored long-time newspaper, radio and TV personality Larry Birleffi, by naming the working press area in the War Memorial Stadium media facility after him.

For over 50 years, and 1200 events, Birleffi covered the Cowboys and Cowgirls for newspaper, radio and television. While coaches, players and fans have come and gone, Birleffi was there. He was the one common thread through the tapestry that is Wyoming tradition. He carried the word of Wyoming athletics longer, and more effectively, than any other. He was inducted into the University of Wyoming Athletics Hall of Fame in 1996.

Born in Hartville, Wyoming's first incorporated town on April 17, 1918, Birleffi graduated from the University of Wyoming in 1942. He had begun covering the Cowboys for the UW student newspaper the Branding Iron in 1937.

Birleffi died on September 27, 2008.

THE BILETNIKOFF AWARD

Honoring the Nation's Top Receiver

MARCUS HARRIS, 1996

Marcus Harris is presented with the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver in 1996.

One of Wyoming's most decorated football players, Marcus Harris was a consensus All-American in 1996, being selected First Team All-American by the Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp Football Foundation, and Football News. In 1996, he won the Biletnikoff Award (named after former Oakland Raiders receiver Fred Biletnikoff), symbolic of the nation's top receiver. He also finished ninth in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1996. During his college career, Harris became the NCAA's all-time leader in receiving yards with 4,518 career yards, and he remains the only receiver in NCAA history to have three 1,400 yard receiving seasons. With his 1,650 yards in 1996, Harris led the nation in receiving yards, earned First-Team All-Western Athletic Conference honors for the third straight year, and was named the WAC Co-Offensive Player of the Year.

MOUNTAIN WEST

This is the Mountain West

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 18th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

2015-16 In Review

From the gridiron to the diamond, Mountain West teams enjoyed a strong year in 2015-16. In football, the third annual MW Football Championship game took place on December 5, 2015 at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego, California. Divisional champions Air Force (Mountain) and San Diego State (West) made their first appearances in the contest with the Aztecs taking the title, 27-24.

The MW sent a record eight teams to postseason bowl games. The previous record of seven was set in both 2013 and 2014. The league has earned 77 bowl bids since 1999 and holds a 42-35 (.545) all-time record. The 2015 postseason marks the ninth consecutive straight year the Mountain West has sent at least five teams to bowls and the 12th time overall since the league's inception.

Mountain West men's basketball tournament champion Fresno State earned the league's lone bid to the NCAA Tournament. Regular-season champion San Diego State earned a bid to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) and advanced to the semifinals at Madison Square Garden. Nevada made the most of its postseason opportunity by winning the College Basketball Invitational (CBI).

In women's basketball, Colorado State made its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2002 after capturing the regular-season and postseason crowns. Fresno State earned the league's automatic bid to the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT), while New Mexico received a berth in the Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI).

Colorado State collected its 21st consecutive appearance in the NCAA women's volleyball tournament, earning the league's automatic bid after capturing the MW regular-season crown.

San José State won its first MW Championship title with a tournament crown in women's soccer. The Spartans advanced to the NCAA Tournament with the league's automatic bid. San Diego State earned its fourth consecutive regular season title.

The New Mexico women's cross country captured the 2015 NCAA Championships title in Louisville, Kentucky on November 21. The Lobos became the first MW team to win a team national title since 2002. Boise State freshman Allie Ostrander was the individual national runner-up in the 6K race, matching the best finish by an MW runner at the national meet. UNM head coach Joe Franklin was named the NCAA Division I National Women's Coach of the Year by the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA). UNM earned its eighth consecutive MW women's title, while Air Force won the men's crown.

Eighteen Mountain West student-athletes earned All-America honors at the 2016 NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships with seven named to the first team. Air Force junior Taylor Smith was the national runner-up in the men's high jump for the league's top individual finish. The Air Force men and the Colorado State women each won their second MW titles.

New Mexico senior Courtney Frerichs broke the NCAA record in the 3000-Meter Steeplechase to claim the national title at the 2016 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships. Frerichs was one of 29 MW student-athletes to earn All-America accolades. Colorado State repeated as the MW women's champion, while the Air Force men captured their third league outdoor team title in the last five years.

Nevada sophomore Shareae Zheng's two diving national titles capped a strong season in Mountain West women's swimming & diving. Zheng won the 1-Meter and 3-Meter springboard events at the NCAA National Championships in Atlanta and was named the College Swimming Coaches Association of America (CSCAA) Diver of the Year. Her coach, Jian Li You, earned CSCAA Diving Coach of the Year honors. Seven MW programs sent representatives to the national finals with competitors in 19 of the 21 events.

The UNLV men's and women's tennis teams swept the 2016 Mountain West titles and represented the league at the NCAA Tournament. In individual competition, the Fresno State sister duo of Mayar Sherif Ahmed and Rana Sherif Ahmed advanced to the NCAA Doubles national quarterfinals with an upset of the No. 5 doubles team in the first round. Mayar Sherif Ahmed also earned a bid to the NCAA Singles Championship. The New Mexico men's doubles team of Hayden Sabatka and Bart Van Leijzen also earned a bid to the NCAA Doubles Championship.

UNLV also took an MW sweep of the men's and women's golf titles. The No. 25-ranked men's team was one of three MW teams and one individual to earn bids to the NCAA Regionals. It was the 17th straight year at least three men's golf teams were selected to participate in the NCAA Regionals. San Diego State advanced to the NCAA Men's Golf Championship, while UNLV and New Mexico saw their seasons end at Regionals.

On the women's side, four teams and two individuals had berths in the NCAA Women's Golf Regionals. UNLV earned the automatic bid, while New Mexico, San Diego State and San José State received at-large spots. It was the 12th time in 13 years in which the league had sent at least three women's teams to the postseason.

Fresno State won its second-consecutive MW softball title and earned the MW's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. It was the Bulldogs' 36th appearance in the national postseason event. Fresno State was ranked among the nation's top 25 teams for 14 weeks during the season and ended the year at No. 18 in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll and No. 20 in the USA Today/NFCA coaches poll.

New Mexico earned the Mountain West's automatic bid to the NCAA Baseball Tournament after capturing the 2016 MW tournament title. Fresno State took home the regular-season crown. Thirteen MW student-athletes were taken in the 2016 MLB Draft including MW Co-Pitchers of the Year Griffin Jax of Air Force and Jimmy Lambert of Fresno State.

Mountain West Commissioner Craig Thompson

Craig Thompson was the Mountain West Conference's first employee when he was named Commissioner on Oct. 15, 1998. Ever since, Thompson has navigated the Conference through the ever-changing landscape of intercollegiate athletics. As the league enters its 18th season of competition in 2016-17, Thompson continues to create and improve the opportunities for Mountain West institutions and student-athletes to be successful both academically and athletically.

Since the Mountain West opened its doors on January 4, 1999, Thompson has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW has flourished under the guidance of Commissioner Thompson and continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. He has been instrumental in negotiating nearly $300 million in television revenue and has been an innovator in the postseason bowl structure as MW teams have participated in six inaugural bowl games.

As conference realignment spread throughout the collegiate landscape, Thompson positioned the Mountain West for the future with the additions of Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012, and San José State University and Utah State University on July 1, 2013. The University of Hawai'i also joined the league as a football-only member on July 1, 2012, while Colorado College became a member in women's soccer on July 1, 2014.

Thompson's leadership and vision have helped the conference enhance its television revenue and exposure through revolutionary agreements with CBS Sports Network and ESPN, and becoming the first major collegiate athletic conference to launch a dedicated sports channel featuring exclusive programming around its athletic programs, as well as conference news. In the summer of 2006, the centerpiece of this historic relationship was realized with the launch of The Mtn. – MountainWest Sports Network – the first sports network dedicated to serving a single collegiate athletic conference. The Mountain West was also one of the first conferences to develop its own digital network. The Mountain West Network, powered by Campus Insiders, continues to expand and enhance the league's profile through live-event streaming and on-demand content.

Thompson has been instrumental in strengthening the position of the Mountain West in the college football landscape - both in the previous Bowl Championship Series (BCS) format and in the current College Football Playoff (CFP) structure. In 2006, he spearheaded an effort that resulted in better access for the MW and more than doubled the annual BCS revenue on an annual basis for non-automatic-qualifying conferences. The MW has been steadfast in its efforts to find a way to make the collegiate postseason football system fair for all universities. Through its first 17 years of competition, the Mountain West has participated in 76 bowl games, amassing a 42-35 (.545) all-time record in those contests.

Thompson is an integral part of the national landscape in intercollegiate athletics, holding many prestigious NCAA posts. He currently sits on the NCAA Division I Council and CFB Management Committee. In addition, Thompson is a member of the College Football Officiating Board of Managers, LLC. He also has served on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee (1995-2000) and was appointed Chair of the committee in July 1999, completing his term September 1, 2000.

Over the tenure of his career, Thompson has been a member of the Executive Committee and the Director's Cup Committee of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), as well as the governing NCAA Council and various Council subcommittees. He has also played a prominent role in hosting numerous men's and women's NCAA postseason basketball tournaments in St. Louis, Atlanta, New Orleans and Denver.

Prior to his current role, Thompson served as the commissioner of the Sun Belt Conference for nearly eight years and as the only commissioner of the American South Conference prior to the merger of the two leagues in 1991.

During his eight years at the Sun Belt, he spent the majority of his time addressing national trends and challenges in intercollegiate athletics, television exposure, issues relating to conference membership and promoting corporate involvement. In 1997-98, the Sun Belt instituted a comprehensive sportsmanship policy, which earned Thompson designation as a 1998 Sports Ethics Fellow by the Institute for International Sport. Under Thompson's leadership, the Sun Belt was active in expansion as it continued to strengthen its posture nationally, adding Florida International University and the University of Denver.

Prior to his merger with the Sun Belt, Thompson served as the first and only commissioner of the American South Conference, which boasted an NCAA national champion in women's basketball during its first year. The American South also gained immediate national cable television exposure on ESPN and sent numerous teams into NCAA postseason play during the conference's four-year history.

Preceding his move to commissioner, Thompson served four years as the Director of Communications for the Metro Conference in Atlanta. While at the Metro, he directed the communications operations and administered conference championship events. Thompson originated the Metro Conference Sportswriters and Broadcasters Association, began a weekly radio program with over 300 affiliate stations, and originated a weekly satellite video program involving all Metro institutions. He also took on administrative duties such as coordination of officials, scheduling of tournament and regular-season play, and handling of legislative rules interpretations.

Thompson graduated from the University of Minnesota with an undergraduate degree in journalism. Following graduation, he spent two years as assistant sports information director at Kansas State University, earning numerous CoSIDA publication awards. He then spent three years as director of public relations and promotions for the NBA's Kansas City Kings.

Thompson and his wife, Carla, have a son (Ted) and a daughter (Emma).

UW ADMINISTRATION

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING

PRESIDENT LAURIE NICHOLS

Laurie Nichols began her duties as UW's 26th president May 16, 2016.

President Nichols had been the provost and executive vice president for academic affairs at South Dakota State University since 2009, helping the university of about 12,600 students advance on a number of fronts. Before that, she was dean of the SDSU College of Education and Human Sciences from 1994 to 2008. From August 2008 through mid-June 2009, Dr. Nichols served as interim president of Northern State University in Aberdeen, S.D. She began her career in higher education as a member of the faculty of the University of Idaho from 1988 to 1994.

"This is just an incredible opportunity for me, and I am beside myself with excitement at being able to come to Wyoming," Nichols says. "It's a great university and a wonderful state, and I don't think I could have found a better place and a better fit."

"We're delighted to have someone of Dr. Nichols' experience and enthusiasm agree to take the reins of the University of Wyoming," says Board of Trustees President Dave Palmerlee. "We're confident she will work well with the trustees and UW's many stakeholders to lift the university to new heights of excellence."

President Nichols was born and raised in South Dakota. A first-generation college graduate, she received a bachelor's degree in education from South Dakota State in 1978. She then earned a master's degree in vocational and adult education from Colorado State University in 1984 and a Ph.D. in family and consumer sciences education from Ohio State University in 1988.

Both South Dakota State and the University of Idaho are land-grant universities like UW; so are Colorado State University and Ohio State University, where Nichols earned her graduate degrees.

"I just really love the mission of land-grant universities – I have spent my whole life at them, and I am a product of them," Nichols says. "I believe in the mission of teaching, research, service and outreach, and I'm delighted that I will be leading a university that embraces that mission."

She and her husband, Tim, have two adult daughters.

TOM BURMAN

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING, DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Tom Burman

From the time Tom Burman was named Athletics Director at the University of Wyoming on Oct. 9, 2006, to today, Wyoming Athletics has enjoyed some of its most memorable moments in school history. Also during Burman's nearly 10 years as athletics director, he has hired some of the most accomplished head coaches in University of Wyoming history. Fundraising and season-ticket sales have reached record levels in Burman's nine-plus years directing the UW Athletics department, and numerous facility projects have also been completed under Burman's direction. Academically, Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes are achieving at exceptional levels.

The memorable moments during Burman's time as A.D. include Wyoming Cowboy Basketball winning the 2015 Mountain West Basketball Tournament Championship and earning an automatic bid to the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament. In 2016, Wyoming wrestler Bryce Meredith, from Cheyenne, Wyo., earned his way to the NCAA national championship match at 141 pounds before falling just one point shy of capturing a national title. Meredith earned All-America honors and became only the eighth Cowboy in history to wrestle for a national title. UW posted an 18th-place team finish at the 2016 NCAA Championships, which was its best finish since 1996. The Cowboy wrestling program has enjoyed success in multiple NCAA Tournaments during Burman's tenure, and joined the Big 12 Conference in wrestling, beginning in the 2015-16 season. Cowboy Football captured a dramatic, double-overtime victory in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl and followed that up with an appearance in the 2011 New Mexico Bowl. The Cowgirl Basketball team captured the WNIT National Championship in 2007, and earned the school's first appearance in the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament in 2008.

Among the nationally-successful head coaches that Burman has hired is current head football coach Craig Bohl. Bohl led North Dakota State to three consecutive FCS national championships in 2011, '12 and '13, was named National Coach of the Year in 2012 and '13 and was part of two FBS national championships as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, in 1995 and '97.

The other nationally-successful coaches that Burman has hired include current Cowboy head basketball coach Allen Edwards, who enjoyed a tremendous playing career at Kentucky from 1995-98 that included the Wildcats advancing to three consecutive NCAA Final Fours during Edwards' sophomore, junior and senior seasons and winning two national titles in 1996 and 1998. Burman hired former head men's basketball coach Larry Shyatt, who was part of two national championships in 2006 and '07 as associate head coach at Florida. Burman hired head wrestling coach Mark Branch, who was part of four NCAA Championships as associate head coach at his alma mater, Oklahoma State, and won two individual NCAA titles as a competitor at OSU in 1994 and '97. Current track and field coach Bryan Berryhill is a fifth UW head coach who has achieved a national title and was hired by Burman. Berryhill captured individual NCAA national championships in the indoor 1-mile run and outdoor 1,500-meter run in 2001 at Colorado State.

"I care deeply about this University, the success of UW Athletics and the well-being of our student-athletes," Burman said upon his hiring. "We will build a program that wins championships, is a source of great pride to our alumni and generates enthusiasm across the state. The future starts now."

Specific accomplishments that have been achieved during Burman's tenure as Director of Athletics at the University of Wyoming include:

Student Services

- Under Burman's leadership, the University of Wyoming has increased resources in the areas of academic success and student-athlete well-being by over 100 percent.
- Increased funding of academic support for student-athletes has resulted in unprecedented success. In May 2016, the NCAA released annual Division I Academic Progress Rate (APR) data, and three of Wyoming's 17 NCAA-sanctioned athletic teams recorded their best scores since the NCAA began utilizing the APR as a measure of academic performance. Wyoming had two teams, men's golf and women's tennis, record perfect scores of 1,000 for the four-year period resulting in national recognition from the NCAA for academic success. Overall, University of Wyoming athletic teams scored an average of 976 in the APR, 46 points higher than the NCAA threshold for demonstrating academic success (930).
- Projected NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) numbers demonstrate that UW student-athletes graduate at a higher rate than the general undergraduate student body (2% percent higher over 6 years and 9% higher over 4 years). University of Wyoming athletic teams as a whole achieved an 80% GSR score for the conclusion of the 2009-10 academic year, which is the most recent reported data.
- Wyoming student-athletes performed better in the classroom than the general student body during the 2015-16 academic year, earning a 3.07 annual gpa versus 3.01 for all UW undergraduate students. A total of 268 student-athletes concluded the 2015-16 academic year with an annual gpa of 3.00 or better, with 124 earning a 3.50 or better and 24 earning a perfect 4.00. Spring 2016 was particularly successful, as 33 student-athletes across 13 different sports earned a perfect 4.00 gpa for the term. Student-athletes also study a wide array of majors at the University of Wyoming, with 452 student-athletes pursuing 63 different degrees.

- Burman's commitment to student-athlete well-being is evident in the addition of several key staff devoted to improving the overall athletic and academic experience for student-athletes. These new staff members include: a full-time athletics department team physician, a sports nutritionist and additional sports medicine, sports performance and academic support staff members.
- At the conclusion of the 2012-13 season, the University of Wyoming swept the Mountain West Conference Male and Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year awards as Luke Ruff of Cowboy Football and Chaundra Sewell of Cowgirl Basketball were named the recipients. It marked only the second time in the history of the Mountain West Conference that both Female and Male Scholar-Athlete Awards went to individuals from the same university.

Revenue Generation/Facilities

- Wyoming Athletics shattered its annual fundraising record in the 2015-16 fiscal year as $20.4 million in pledges and gifts were made to UW Athletics. That broke the previous record of $12.8 million in pledges and gifts to UW Athletics that was also set during Burman's tenure as A.D. in the 2013-14 fiscal year.
- Cowboy Joe Club annual revenue grew from $2.1 million in 2006 to over $5 million as of the end of the 2015-16 fiscal year.
- In 2011, season-ticket sales for Wyoming Football surpassed the 10,000 season-ticket mark for the first time in school history.
- Burman has spearheaded over $100 million in facilities projects during his time as athletics director, including: construction of a new $11 million Indoor Practice Facility (Fall 2007); construction of the $22 million Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites addition to War Memorial Stadium (Fall 2010); extensive renovations to the east side of War Memorial Stadium; significant upgrades to the UniWyo Sports Complex for volleyball and wrestling; completion of a new $3 million Indoor Tennis Facility (Spring 2011); a new $1.2 million golf practice facility (Summer 2014); and Phase I of a $30 million two-phase renovation to the Arena-Auditorium (Fall 2014). Phase II of the AA renovation is planned to begin in the fall of 2016.
- Construction of the new Mick and Susie McMurry High-Altitude Performance Center is on the horizon and will provide all UW student-athletes with a world-class training facility. The proposed $44 million facility will be funded by $24 million in private donations and $20 million in matching funds from the state of Wyoming that was allocated with the support from the Wyoming State Legislature and Governor Matt Mead. Construction of the facility is expected to begin in late 2016.

Competitive Excellence

- In the spring of 2011, Burman lured Larry Shyatt away from his position as associate head coach at the University of Florida to return to Laramie and take over as head coach of Cowboy Basketball. Shyatt had been part of two National Championships with the Gators. Burman's hiring of Shyatt received numerous positive reviews, including an "A" rating from ESPN.com. Of the 19 coaching hires that ESPN.com rated, Wyoming received one of only five "A" ratings. The Cowboys reached the Top 25 of the USA Today Coaches' Poll during the 2012-13 season and defeated No. 5 ranked San Diego State in the 2013-14 season before capturing the 2015 Mountain West Basketball Tournament Championship and earning an automatic bid to the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament.
- Wyoming football has made two bowl appearances during Burman's tenure as athletics director. The Cowboys won the 2009 New Mexico Bowl and earned a second appearance in the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl.
- Burman hired Mark Branch as Wyoming's new wrestling coach prior to the 2008-09 season. Branch led Cowboy Wrestling to an 18th-place finish at the 2016 NCAA Championships. That was the best finish for the Cowboys since 1996. He was named the Western Wrestling Conference Coach of the Year three times at Wyoming. Wyoming joined the Big 12 Conference in wrestling, beginning in the 2015-16 season.
- The 2014 women's soccer season saw the Cowgirls advance to the Mountain West Conference Tournament Championship game, while head coach Pete Cuadrado was named 2014 Mountain West Coach of the Year.
- The women's tennis team advanced to the 2015 Mountain West Conference championship match, and head coach Dean Clower earned MW Coach of the Year honors.
- Cowgirl Basketball has achieved unprecedented success under the direction of head coach Joe Legerksi. Wyoming won the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) National Championship in the 2006-07 season, defeating Wisconsin, 72-56, in the championship game in Laramie. In 2007-08, the Cowgirls earned the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth. In both the 2009-10 and 2010-11 seasons, Wyoming again received bids to the WNIT where it advanced to the third round both seasons. The 2012-13 Cowgirl squad also earned a bid to the WNIT's first round.

Scheduling

- Burman scheduled the most-anticipated event in the history of War Memorial Stadium when the No. 9 ranked Nebraska Cornhuskers came to Laramie on Sept. 24, 2011, for the first time. It marked only the second time that a Big Ten football team had appeared in Laramie.
- Burman also negotiated the 2009 appearance of the No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns in War Memorial Stadium. The Longhorns made their first-ever appearance in Wyoming and went on to play for the 2009 National Championship, finishing as the national runner-up.
- In addition to Texas (2009) and Nebraska (2011), Burman has also negotiated future football contracts to bring the following teams to War Memorial Stadium: Oregon (2017), Washington State (2018), Missouri (2019) and Texas Tech (2023).

Before becoming A.D. at Wyoming, Burman had previously served as an Associate Athletics Director at UW from 1995-2000. His first position at his alma mater was as Associate Athletics Director for Development, serving as Executive Director of the Cowboy Joe Club from 1995-97. From 1997-2000, Burman was Wyoming's Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs. During that time period, he was instrumental in raising funds for the $9.4 million Rochelle Athletics Center.

He served as Athletics Director at Portland State University from September 2000 through March 2006. Burman returned to UW in March 2006 as Associate Vice President for Institutional Advancement with the UW Foundation, before being selected by President Tom Buchanan as the eighth athletics director in UW history.

Burman began his intercollegiate athletics career as Director of Marketing and Promotions (1993-95) at the University of Idaho in Moscow, Idaho. Before entering a career in college athletics, Burman worked as a project manager for the sports management company DeWilder & Associates in McLean, Va., from 1990-92.

Burman earned a bachelor of science degree from Wyoming in 1988 and an M.B.A. from Robert Morris University in Corapolis, Pa., in 1991.

Burman is 50 years old, born Jan. 4, 1966. He and his wife, Kathy, have two sons, Drew and Nathan.

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT & GUIDING PRINCIPLES

MISSION STATEMENT

The University of Wyoming Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is committed to the development of tomorrow's leaders by creating an environment that promotes personal growth, academic and athletic excellence in a progressive, inclusive, and transparent manner. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics will support the overall University of Wyoming mission, provide an outstanding fan experience, encourage community engagement, and serve as a source of pride for alumni, supporters, and the state of Wyoming.

CORE VALUES

Dedication to Student-Athletes

We will promote the well-being of student-athletes and provide opportunities for academic, athletic, and personal success. We will foster academic excellence, graduate student-athletes, support their development as citizens, and prepare them to be leaders.

Integrity

We will demonstrate integrity in all areas. We are dedicated to financial stability, rules compliance, diversity, and personal accountability.

Respect

We will celebrate a climate of mutual respect, inclusiveness, loyalty, and sportsmanship by recognizing contributions to our teams, our department, and the university.

Competitive Success

We will endeavor to be the very best when representing the University of Wyoming and our state. We are committed to providing the resources and personnel for our teams to achieve success.

Tradition

The legacy of the University of Wyoming athletics is proud and strong. We will honor our outstanding tradition.

Excellence

We believe in a spirit of comprehensive excellence. We will strive for excellence in all we do.

AT WYOMING

GAMEDAY TRADITIONS

Craig Bohl speaks to fans in the Marian H. Rochelle Gateway Center prior to Wyoming home games

The Cowboy Walk stretches from the Gateway Center to War Memorial Stadium

Wyoming fans share a moment with Lucas Wach and his teammates on the Cowboy Walk

MEMORABLE MOMENTS

Brian Hill celebrates setting a new Wyoming single-season rushing record with his mother, Tamara, and former Cowboy Mark Nzeocha, who is now a member of the Dallas Cowboys.

Eddie Yarbrough and his teammates celebrate a win over UNLV in Yarbrough's final home game as a Cowboy in 2015. Yarbrough joined his hometown team the Denver Broncos in 2016.

GREAT GAMEDAY ATMOSPHERE

Wyoming fans celebrate a Cowboy victory, while the UW Spirit Squad adds to the exciting atmosphere in War Memorial Stadium on Gameday.
